Among the latter, New Jersey Central, and Ohio and Mississippi declined from 13¾@11¼. The next weakest stocks were Western Union, St. Paul's, Northwesterns, Michigan Central, and Delaware and Lackawanna. The disposition to press down some of the coal roads had a depressing influence upon the whole market, and the strong bearish feeling in shares of these roads is based upon the fear that the combination may possibly be broken. There is little or no effort being made to sustain the share list generally, as many operators, large and small, are out of town, and a feeling of indifference seems to pervade the stock exchange. In addition to causes previously existing to disturb speculation, some of the western roads show a falling off in earnings for last year, when traffic was heavy. This was used against grangers stocks, and assisted the general decline. Transactions to-day aggregated 125,000 shares, of which 20,000 were Western Union, 4500 Northwesterns, 24,000 St. Paul, 4000 Erie, 27,000 Lake Shore, 20,000 Ohio, 4000 Michigan Central, and 12,000 New Jersey Central. RIVER CHRONICLE

Weather and Rivers.

"Maximum thermometers" climbed up to 81° yesterday, one degree higher than on Monday, though Old Sol reached his usual altitude, and did all in his power to remind us that the summer is not yet over. In the shade it was delightfully cool, but in the sunshine, oh, it was hot. The principal feature of the rivers is the rapid decline in the upper streams. The fall here yesterday was half a foot, which will perhaps reach a food or more to-day. We append latest particulars:

FRIARS POINT—A. J. White, Nat Green, master, five p.m.

Marine Miracles.

Business was slim yesterday.

There were five departures and but one arrival at this port yesterday.

It is now said that the James W. Gaff will make her first trip to New Orleans.

Departing packets yesterday had very fair trips, making due allowance for the time of the year.

The Phil Allin arrived during the night, and will be ready to receive for her return this evening.

The Cons Millar did not get away till late last night, owing to a pressure of business at the eleventh hour.

The A. J. White, Captain Nat. Green, leaves for Helena, Friar's Point and all intermediate landings at five o'clock this evening.

Captain Lee Cummins, of the A. J. White, who is laying off from duty a spell, went down on the Illinois yesterday for recreation.

Sullivan, you and Shearer go down to the river on the arrival of the Illinois, and get Joe Speers to tell you how pretty the boat is. It's good reading.

Captain Irv. Dugan retires from the wrecking business, and will engage in the coal trade at Louisville. He's a good one anywhere you place him.

The Phil Allin, Captain Stack. Lee, leaves for Greeneville, taking in Helena, Friars Point, and all the lower coast landings, at five o'clock this evening.

St. Louis Republican: "The steamer John L. Rhoads is being docked for the first time since she was built. But the James Howard is twice as old and has never yet needed docking."

The turbid bosom of Big Muddy was not disturbed by anything yesterday but the harbor tugs and ferryboats, until late in the afternoon, when the local packets began skipping out.

General Garfield has undertaken the job of explaining the position the tail end of the Radical Presidential ticket held on the subject of the Ohio river improvements. It can't be did satisfactorily to the marines, from all accounts.

The Robert Mitchell, Captain James Paul, leaves Glenn's wharfb at at noon to-day for Cincinnati, and, of course, takes all business offering for Cairo, Evansville, Louisville, and way points. Captain Glenn, at the wharfboat, will give particulars.

Cincinnati Times: "The last up trip of the Hudson, while making a landing at Parkersburg, a lady was standing on the wharfboat near the edge, and was called to by persons on the steamer to move, as she was in danger. When the Hudson struck the wharfboat the lady's legs got caught between the two crafts, and one was crushed and the other badly crippled. She died from the effects of her injuries."

A large crowd of the friends of the Illinois and her gallant officers assembled on the bluffs yesterday, to witness the departure of that packet, and were loud in expressions of delight and admiration at her improved appearance. The splendid new brass band discoursed sweetest strains for the entertainment of the vast throng of spectators, until the hour of departure, when the Illinois gracefully backed out and made a magnificent display as she sped on her way to her destination to be welcomed all along the route by her numerous friends.

Captain Smith, writes the St. Louis Republican the following letter, under date of "Jeffersonville, Indiana, July 20th," in regard to his new boat for upper White river, Arkansas: "As to the size of the little boat I am building, it is as follows: Keel 115 feet, floor 25 feet, depth of hold 3½ feet—small cabin—office, bar, 8 open berths, 4 rooms and cook house; 2 engines, 10 inches in diameter, 3½ feet stroke; length of bucket 20 feet beam, do tor, 1 boiler 44 inches in diameter, 22 feet long; three 10 inch flues and 38 inch flues. James Howard & Co. contract for boat complete and make trial trip before delivering boat. Guarantee her to draw only 9 inches. To be complete in 60 days."

The Aurora (Ind.) Republican has this to say about the gentleman after whom Captain Wiss's new Memphis packet, James W. Gaff, is named: "When the Great Unknown shall write the history of Aurora and Dearborn county, among the brightest names that will adorn its pages and shine forth as a synonym of enterprise, will be the name of James W. Gaff. Every man, woman and child in Aurora knows him, either personally or by reputation. To his energy Aurora is indebted for her distillery, her cooperage manufactories, her foundry and her brewery, the largest in the State; to him Dearborn county is, in a great measure indebted for her splendid turnpikes. To Cincinnati he has been a 'main spoke in the wheel,' and in honor of him the Memphis and Ohio river packet company, of which Captain Jas. S. Wise is superintendent, and Mr. Gaff a large stockholder, have named their new and splendid packet James W. Gaff."

St Louis Times: "Private advices from Yankton report that the E. H. Durfee left there Monday for the Yellowstone, with General Miles's command, consisting of twenty officers, three hundred and twenty privates, eighty-six horses, twenty-one wagons, and two ambulances; also, all the privates' freight she could carry. The Western and Carroll will follow the Durfee with troops. Captain Morrison W. K. Knox, an old steamboatman, died suddenly in New Castle, Pennsylvania, on Tuesday night, where, with his wife, he had gone on a visit. Deceased had not been on the river for a number of years. Captain O. P. Shinkle was, on Wednesday, the recipient of an elegant present from his venerable father, Pete Shinkle, Esq. The gift is a finely-made box, about two feet square, and designed to hold the captain's private papers. It was made by Mr Shinkle, who is eighty-one years of age. For a man of his age, he is remarkably preserved, hale, hearty and active. He resides in Covington, Kentucky."

HAIR RENEWER.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color.

It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp, by its use, become white and clean.

By its tonic properties its restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it THE BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."
