FINANCIAL.

In financial circles yesterday there was the usual amount of dullness. Considerable "stubbling" at local stocks was done, but no actual transactions occurred. Inquiries were heard for Bluff City insurance stock, and for Memphis city, at 45@46. Planters at 4?, and Peoples at 74, while Merchants' Insurance stock was offered at 20, and Crittenden county (Ark.) courthouse bonds at 70. Exchange is light offering at par buying north New York and for eastern demand, both selling at par; New Orleans ¼ discount, selling at par. Gold opened in New York at 106⅞, and closed at 107. Memphis brokers paying 106 and selling at 107.

The stock market in the forenoon was exceedingly irregular, and changes from firmness to depression were frequent. In the afternoon the market became weak, and prices showed a decline of ½ to 2½ from the highest point of the day. The recent heavy advance in prices frightened the bears into covering as a general thing, which took from the market its principal speculative element, and there being very few outsiders in Wall street prices naturally receded. Just before the close of business, however, a steadier tone prevailed, and there was a recovery of ¼@1 per cent. Morris and Essex fell off to 75 and closed at 75⅝. Delaware, Lackawanna and Western declined to 50½ and recovered to 51½, but closed at 51⅛. Delaware and Hudson fell off to 46¼ and recovered to 47¼. New York Central fell off to 95⅝ and closed at 96⅛. Lake Shore, after selling down to 51¼, recovered to 51¾. Rock Island opened at 91 and closed at 91½. Western Union sold down to 92⅞, and closed at 92⅝. Pacific Mail advanced to 23¼. Michigan Central fell off to 42⅝. Panama to 93. Northwestern common to 70¼. Northwestern preferred to 84½, and St. Paul common to 18½. There was only a fractional recovery in these shares at the close, when the market ruled active and very irregular. Transactions were 190,000 shares, of which 8200 were New York Central, 41,700 Lake Shore, 3800 Northwestern, 18,500 Rock Island, 5700 St. Paul, 37,900 Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, 5000 Delaware and Hudson, 3000 Morris and Essex, 4000 Michigan Central, 49,500 Western Union, and 3500 Pacific Mail. The Hong Kong property of the Pacific Mail company was sold for $200,000. The property was rendered nearly useless for the company's business by a typhoon. Closing quotations were as follows: Western Union Telegraph, 92⅝; Quicksilver, 15; Quicksilver preferred, 22; Pacific Mail, 23¼; Mariposa, 4⅛; Mariposa preferred, 8; Adams Express company, 96; Wells & Fargo Express company, 93; American Express company, 52; United States Express company, 40½; New York Central, 93¾@ 94; Erie, 7⅛; Erie preferred, 17½; Harlem, 37; Harlem preferred, 87; Michigan Central, 47½; Pacific, 93; Union Pacific stock, 65; Lake Shore, 52¾; Illinois Central, 55¼; Cleveland and Pittsburg, 86; Northwestern preferred, 39¼; Northwestern common, 44½; Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and Indianapolis, 28; New Jersey Central, 9; Rock Island, 91½; St. Paul, 18¾; do. preferred, 46½; Wabash, 4¾; Fort Wayne, 95; Terre Haute, 2; Terre Haute preferred, 10; Chicago and Alton, 90; Chicago and Alton preferred, 106; Ohio and Mississippi, 4¾; Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, 51½; Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph, 12⅝; Missouri Pacific, 4; Indiana Central, 14; Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, 100⅝; Hannibal and St. Joe, 10½; Central Pacific bonds, 8; Union Pacific bonds, 4½; Union Pacific land grants, 100; Union Pacific sinking funds, 62¾.

Levee paragraphs.

Weather delightful.

Business was a little brisk.

Receipts yesterday were very limited.

The landing was entirely clear of steamers at dark last night.

The Cosmona pulled out for the lower bends yesterday on time, as usual, and with a good showing in every particular.

The Osceola Belle sailed away for the upper bends beautifully yesterday, having a fair trip all round. Those who think the Belle can't run when she's a mind to are mightily fooled.

The Cincinnati and New Orleans packet Golden City, Captain Hegler, is on the boards to pass up at ten o'clock this morning. The accomplished Sterling M'Intyre has charge of the office.

The James W. Gaff left for the Ohio yesterday evening with 500 bales cotton, 400 barrels oil, 50 bales rags, 1200 car-wheels (250 tons), a lot of sundries, and 50 cabin and 20 deck passengers.

The Mary Houston, Captain Miller, will pass down for New Orleans at eight o'clock this morning. Rise early if you would secure passage down the river on an elegant steamer. Elliott Miller is chief clerk.

The elegant steamer Robert Mitchell will pass down this evening at four o'clock on a grand excursion to New Orleans and the jollies. Captain James Paul is on the roof, and Frank Stein has charge of the office.

The Memphis and Arkansas City packet A. J. White sails for the lower bends at five o'clock this evening. Captain George Malone is on the roof, with Cook Creighton, Will Darragh and John Briggs in the office.

Among the passengers out on the Gaff yesterday were Mr. Roy Johnston, city editor of the APPEAL, and his father, Dr. J. L. C. Johnston, of Clarksville. The former gentleman goes on an excursion to recuperate his health.

The Kellogg arrived last night with another big tow of ice for Bohlen, Huse & Co. If we can't get all we want to eat this summer, we surely can keep cool. John O'Brien says the ice will be cooler this summer than usual, and cheap is no name for it.

Little Rock Gazette, Tuesday: "At dark last night the river was slowly rising, the gauge showing 17 8-10 feet, having risen three feet within twenty-four hours. The Belle of Texas, from above, arrived at midnight and will leave to-day for Memphis."

The Hard Cash skipped out for White river yesterday evening with a very fair trip of freight and a good showing of people. Champ says he hopes some fair flower of the valley would take pity and rescue him from the arduous duties of river life. He says he is up for the highest bidder, and feels assured he would be an ornament to any household. He wants a mother-in-law badly.
