FINANCIAL.

It was useless inquiring among the banks yesterday for news, for so even and so quietly went on the course of trade that there was little or nothing of many preceding days, no incidents, no change. Applications for discounts were even lighter that before. The free sale and delivery of cotton, which had taken shipped in two weeks—were crowding exchange heavily into the banks and bankers were in request. The New York Bulletin of Wednesday, stated that recently ten drawers of the leading banks agreed to raise the discount rate to four per cent, or at least to assist that the minimum side. The banks maintained until Tuesday, when one of the number found it necessary to take paper at a lower rate, so that there is no longer uniformity of action on this point. In our market exchanges quoted New York, 1a discount; all points in New England, with grace, 1a discount; New Orleans, 1 plus and sell; selling at points at par. Money 8@10 per cent. In our local market Shelby county sight drafts sold at half a, 8 selling. Last sales were: Memphis gas stock, 75; Tennessee, new issue, 37; Mississippi and Tennessee railway first-mortgage bonds 115, second mortgage, 90. Memphis gas bonds, 90; Peabody insurance stock, 117; Bluff City insurance, 71 50.

COTTON.

The cotton telegrams yesterday mostly maintained the buoyant tone of the previous day. There was some dullness in New York spots, but futures were firm; the former advanced 1-16c, and Memphis was 1-8c higher. The demand for spots for our factory was maintained, and had the support of an active demand, principally from strangers. The receipts at Memphis showed a falling off, which day's sale, including what changed hands after the reporting hour, was easier to amount to 1000 bales. Our receipts this week were 1000 bales larger than on each of the two preceding years, and our stock is now below that of last year, we shipped off 45,303 bales of cotton in the last two weeks.

GENERAL TRADE.

The weather was delightful again yesterday, and is drying up the mud so that country visitors can get to the city. The stores had a good day's business, but there was very little material offering on the wholesale market, although there was a boat in from up the stream. The boat brought nothing of consequence in produce or food, consequently there was a scarcity of transactions. The absence of any arrival of corn, for which there is some inquiry, causes an expectation of advance; a thousand sacks is offering from store, but at a higher price. There was an absolute scarcity of cornmeal, which is now quoted $2 10 in St. Louis for city ground and $2 05 for stone. Holders of potatoes express themselves firmly, the demand is the finest seen for this season of the year. The St. Louis Republican, of Thursday, reports potatoes "in demand and firm; both for eating and seeding varieties. We quote: Rose and flake, 65@66c; peerless, 70c; peachblow, 60@70c. Wagon receipts (more selling) mainly at 67½c; car lots in shipping order at $1 80@2—small lots much higher." Eggs were abundant again and lower. The Republican quotes them in heavy receipt at 11½c.

Bacon—Corn not arriving no lots were offering except from store; there was expectation of an advance. Lard—Nothing doing, 100@75c per cent in store. Oats—A good supply in store, quiet demand; in store, 35c; seed, 38@40c. Hay—A fair demand for good qualities; sales of 100 bales of prime at $11, and a car-load of choice timothy at $14; in store, 100@125 per cent.

MEAL AND FLOUR—Cornmeal in good demand and very scarce; sales on landing of two lots at $2 25. Flour—Current good grades, $5 50@5 50; fancy up to $6 25.

VEGETABLES—Potatoes were not active but holders were claiming higher prices, but the peculiar way in which the potato business is done makes it difficult to speak confidently of what those prices are; in store, $2 15@2 40. Onions—Of Potatoes—In store, $2 50. Onions—In store, $2 50. Onion sets—Red and yellow, $2 50; white, $3 a bushel. Cabbage—For New Orleans, $4 75 per crate, according to quality and the size of the crates. Turnips, $1 2 barrel. Parsnips, $2 a barrel. Carrots, $2 a barrel. Horseradish, $3 a barrel.
