COTTON.

The usual Saturday's quietness prevailed yesterday in the cotton market—there was nothing in the telegrams to disturb it. Liverpool was still, New York and New Orleans were lower. In our market the inquiry was the light; sales were easier, and bids were within the limits of quotations. The day's business was light. From the New York Bulletin, of Wednesday, says: "It is claimed that the main influence against greater buoyancy was a reason from operators who calculate upon events by seeing the price at a much higher figure, but not being as yet prepared for the advance, seek to hold back in check. Outside orders, low yet, and a desire to cover have created a partial fill and sale demand, and offered the stimulus on which the gain was made. The incentive to buyers was to be found in the lighter receipts again, and favorable accounts from our corn goods market, coupled with cheaper advices from abroad, not only as regards the Liverpool market, but showing a cheerful and improved condition of affairs at Manchester. Indeed, the showing on these features is about all that the bears have been predicting, and the existing doubt was whether the influence had already been discounted or was temporarily neutralized by powerful manipulation."

THE GENUINE

Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS

ACUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar-coated. Each box has a red-wax seal on the lid with the impression, MCLANE'S LIVER PILL. Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS.

Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.
