PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

A LAND SLIDE occurred on the Norfolk and Western railroad above Bristol Monday night.

THE stockholders of the Little Rock and Fort Smith and Little Rock, Mississippi River and Texas railroads were billed to meet in Little Rock yesterday.

THE announcement of the decision in the Baltimore and Ohio railroad case at Richmond, on a motion for an injunction to restrain the tax collector from selling the property of the road, has been withheld until the 14th of May.

ARTICLES of incorporation were filed in the office of the secretary of State at Little Rock Tuesday for a new railroad, to be known as the Russell and Augusta Railway Company. The road will begin at Russell, White county, and terminate at a point on the west bank of White river opposite Augusta. It will be 11 miles long, with a capital of $30,000.

THERE is said to be good ground for the report that the Chesapeake and Ohio Company will lease the Ohio Central bridge over the Ohio river at Point Pleasant, and will also lease the Ohio Central line to Charleston, W. Va., 90 miles. This will connect the Chesapeake and Ohio with the Ohio Central in Ohio and with the Columbus, Hocking Valley and Toledo.

A FEW days since the conductors on the Alabama Great Southern railroad received official notice from General-Manager Scott that they would be required to give a bond after the 1st of May. This was a small bomb thrown into their quiet camp, and created consternation. The manner in which the bonds are executed is as follows: The North American Guarantee Company, of New York, makes a bond to the railroad company for the conductor, and takes all risks, and they hold the conductors responsible for the faithful discharge of duty. The only objectionable feature in the matter to the conductors is that the bonds are executed in New York. They can't go to Mexico to get a bond for any amount at Chattanooga or to Mr. Scott in Eutaw, Ala. It is rumored that some of them will resign, but nothing definite can be learned, as they are non-committal concerning the matter.

The Palmer-Sullivan Syndicate.

ST. LOUIS April 26.—A dispatch from Matamoras, Mexico, says it is reported there and at Monterey that the Palmer-Sullivan syndicate has sold their entire railroad interest in Mexico to a party of English capitalists.

The War Inflicted Against the Nashville and Chattanooga Railway.

NASHVILLE—The Banner of Thursday: "The suit of the United States, as trustee, vs. the Nashville and Chattanooga railway, was argued and decided in the United States District Court yesterday by the jury returning a verdict in favor of the defendants. The case was brought some time ago to compel the Nashville and Chattanooga railway to pay accrued interest on certain coupon bonds. Some time previous to the war the United States government bought, as trustee for the Chickasaw Nation, certain coupon bonds issued by the Nashville and Chattanooga railway in 1852 and indorsed by the State. These bonds fell due in 1862. The interest which accrued on them between July 1, 1861, and January 1, 1865, inclusive, amounting to about $120,000 evidenced by coupons, was not paid during the war nor subsequently, but the bondholders subsequent to January 1, 1866, had heretofore been paid by the railway company. The suit just decided was a suit by the government, brought upon the coupons maturing between July 1, 1861, and January 1, 1866, and, with interest thereon, making a total claim of nothing over $200,000. While it was conceded that the statute of limitation did not run against the government in matters merely trustee, that it was where it was the real party in interest, it was contended, and the court held, that the statutes of limitation in Tennessee contended that the coupons were barred by the statute, and during the war between belligerents interest could not be charged. In his charge to the jury Judge Baxter held that the coupons of the statute of limitation was a good plea, and while it did not apply to the government when it sued in its own behalf, it did apply in the present case, where it sued as a trustee. Under this charge, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant. The counsel for the plaintiff, however, appealed the case to the United States Supreme Court.
