

"We're Rotten," He Said to Filipinos, "Come, Join Us."

D. H. Harris, of Mendon, Mich., in a recent talk, issued the following appeal to the Filipinos:

"You Filipinos don't know what you are missing by not wanting to become citizens of this grand country of ours. There isn't anything like it under the sun.

You ought to send a delegation over to see us, the land of the free—land of hundreds of fine churches and thousands of licensed saloons; Bibles, forts and guns, houses of prostitution, millionaires and paupers, theologians and thieves, liberals and liars, politicians and poverty, Christians and the chain gangs, schools and scoundrels, trusts and tramps, money and misery, homes and hunger, virtue and vice, a land where you can get a good Bible for 25 cents and a drink of whiskey for fifteen; where we have a man in congress with three wives and a lot in the penitentiary for having two wives; where some men make sausage out of their wives and some want to eat them raw; where we make bologna out of dogs, canned beef out of horses and sick cows, and corpses out of the people who eat them; where we put a man in jail for not having the means of support and on the rock pile for asking for a job of work; where we license bawdy houses and impose fines on men for preaching Christ on the street corners; where we have a congress of 400 men who make laws, and a supreme court of nine men who set them aside; where good whiskey makes bad men and bad men make good whiskey; where newspapers are paid for suppressing the truth, and made rich for teaching a lie; where prof'ors draw their convictions from the same place they draw their salaries; where preachers are paid $25,000 a year to dodge the devil and tickle the ears of the wealthy; where business consists of getting hold of property in any way that won't land you in the penitentiary; where trusts hold and poverty holds down; where men vote for what they do not want for fear they won't get what they do want by voting for it.

Where niggers can vote and women can't; where a girl who goes wrong is made an outcast and her male partner flourishes as a gentleman; where women wear false hair and men dock their horses' tails; where the political wire puller has displaced the patriotic statesman; where men vote for a thing one day and cuss it 364 days; where we have prayers on the floor of our national capitol and whiskey in the cellar; where we spend $500 to bury a statesman who is rich, and $10 to put away a workman who is poor; where to be virtuous is to be lonesome, and to be honest is to be a crank; where we sit on a safety valve of energy and pull wide open the throttle of conscience; where gold is substance, the one thing sought for; where we pay $15,000 for a dog and 15 cents a dozen to a poor woman for making shirts; where we teach the untutored Indian eternal life from the Bible, and kill him off with bad whiskey; where we put a man in jail for stealing a loaf of bread, and in congress for stealing a railroad; where the check book talks, sin walks in broad daylight, justice is asleep, crime runs amuck, corruption permeates our whole social and political fabric and the devil laughs from every street corner, 'Come to us, 'Filippes. We've got the greatest aggregation of good things, hot things, and cold things, all sizes, varieties and colors, ever exhibited under one tent.

THEY ADVERTISE WITH US.

"What have you got? What have you got?"

The editor said to me, "I have a bulky story, sir; I know you will agree, at Macyburg's and Wanaker's. An elevator dropped. And killed a half a dozen folks. Before it could be stopped—The cables were defective. And they're going to raise a fuss—'Kill it!' screamed the editor. 'They advertise with us!'"

"What have you got? What have you got?"

The editor said to me, "I haven't much tonight, old man. As you will quickly see. At Macyburg's the dog has pups—The mother's doing well. The autocar of Wanaker has tires. So they tell. I tried to verify it, and I made the chauffeur cuss—'Two columns!' screamed the editor. 'They advertise with us!'"

Girl corset makers in New York are organizing. It is rumored the purpose of the organization is to make demand for better wages and shorter hours and to strike if the demand be rejected.

Carpenters in West Point, Ky., have succeeded in negotiating a new scale whereby the men get an advance of 2½ cents per hour. The new scale was signed without any trouble whatever.

H. B. Pernham, president of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, says the award of the board of mediators in the demand of the telegraphers on the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain system will give the telegraphers and station agents of the two roads $50,000 increase in wages.
