ZANESVILLE, February 9.—The Muskingum has fallen one foot since 6 o'clock p.m. yesterday. Rain is reported up the river. The Wabash has been one foot since Saturday. A rise of the bottom lands is now expected.

RIPLEY, O.

Higher Than Last Year, and Still Rising—Much Suffering.

RIPLEY, February 9.—The river here is now higher than it was last year, and is rising an inch an hour. There is much suffering. Three hundred families have been driven from their houses. Two-thirds of the town is under water.

CATLETTSBURG, KY.

The Town Completely Submerged—Houses Floating off.

CATLETTSBURG, February 9.—The town is completely submerged. Only three houses on the hillside are free from water. Several frame houses have floated off. The brick business houses are floating out of business houses. There is fear that the worst has not yet come. The water at 7 o'clock p.m. was eighteen inches higher than last year, and rising one inch per hour.

LYNCHBURG, VA.

Fears of a Disastrous Flood—James River Rising Rapidly.

LYNCHBURG, February 9.—The rains have swollen James river nine feet above the low-water mark. The water is rising at the rate of three inches an hour, owing to the rapidity of commencement, between the cities. It is now ascertained that the fire caught in Wells & Peal's drug store, caused by the explosion of chemicals. The flames spread to the Hollaway block, containing ten houses, and at this writing the houses are all ablaze. The fire-steamers having gone down the river to assume the firemen, it is impossible to check the flames. If the fire should get loose, it will sweep away the houses of Branum & Sons, S. S. Jenkins, the Sherman House, and other houses on the north side of Main street. The loss will be incalculable, and no pen can do it justice. In the flooded portions the population has been well provided for in the shape of food. In the matter of clothing, the amount of destitution to be seen is appalling. The fire-engines are employed washing of the mud from the streets as the water falls. The boilers of steamers that went down the river to Richmond, Montal and Bollaire have not yet returned at this writing—12 o'clock noon. They had on board a plentiful supply of provisions, and none is lost, but they will suffer. The worst points are above this city, especially the town of Milsburg. As far as is known at this time, no lives are reported lost.

NORFOLK, VA., February 9.—A woman was drowned in the Fifth Ward last night, falling from a second-story window into the water. The baby of a family named Lacy, on the first floor, fell into the water and disappeared from sight. Neither body was recovered. Many narrow escapes are reported, and doubtless several lives were lost not yet discovered. At Martin's Ferry, O., 200 people are led by organized charity. The funds are drawn from the proceeds of fines under the local tax. An immense force of the Fire Department is pumping out the flooded basements. Tim McCarty, on the island, lost $25,000 in gold in his house swept away. Many of the large stves of money were lost. The total loss in this vicinity will reach $6,000,000, including both sides of the river.

The Wabash Steed-Iron Works and Chagn Car Roofing Company lose $75,000.

The steamer John Lewis arrived from down the river this evening. She was nibbled with bullets, and the passengers on the cabin floor covered with mattresses and life-preservers as protection from missiles. The boat left Pittsburg this morning, and reports many houses on the Ohio washed away. The Pittsburg Stove Works and dry houses are a total loss. Not a vestige is left of Cochranville, O., a village in Monroe county. At Bellaire the loss will be matched out of water, and the citizens had to carry it. The situation here among the homeless housed in schoolhouses, churches and other buildings is very sad. It will be impossible to be protected to feed them, and give aid to neighboring towns suffering. Mayor Miller said to-night that he had hoped to avoid appealing for aid, but the case is too large, but feared it would have to be done. Clothing, food and money are badly needed. At the village House, in the South End, the water is knee deep. The water is slow and insufficient and unfit food. The worst has not yet begun, is the sickening conclusion to which the thoughtful are forced.

On the representation of citizens of West Virginia that the local resources are insufficient for the relief of the suffering, the Governor has telegraphed the Senators and Representatives in Congress, asking that the appropriation for relief be increased to $1,000,000.

POSTOFFICES AND POSTROADS.

Several Important Measures Before the House Committee.

WASHINGTON, February 9.—The House Committee on Postoffices and Postroads will report a bill to-morrow providing that letter-carriers be employed in every city containing 50,000 inhabitants, and may be employed in places containing less than 50,000 and producing a gross postal revenue of at least $2000 per annum. The committee also agree to report a substitute for the bill to secure the speedy delivery of letters. It provides for the issuance of special stamps to cost two cents, which, when affixed to letters, will insure their immediate delivery at any free-delivery office, between the hours of 7 o'clock a.m. and 7 o'clock p.m. It allows postmasters at such cities to pay not more than eighty per cent. of the value of such special stamps to the person who delivers the letter, and no one person shall receive more than $30 per month for such service. A favorable report was also directed on the bill to provide for the deposit in the Treasury of the receipts of the money-order system, and for the payment of its expenses out of appropriations.

LABOR BUREAU.

Favorable Report on the Bill for Its Establishment.

WASHINGTON, February 9.—The House Committee on Labor ordered a favorable report on Representative Hopkins's bill for the establishment of a department of labor statistics. The measure provides for the appointment of a commission who shall acquire all useful information upon the subject of labor, its relations to capital, means of promoting the material, social, religious and intellectual prosperity of laboring men and women. The question of contract and convict labor was discussed without reaching a conclusion.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE.

Judge Reagan Before the Committee in Advocacy of the Bill.

WASHINGTON, February 9.—At a meeting of the House Committee on Commerce to-day, Judge Reagan spoke in behalf of his interstate commerce bill. He opposed a commission, but said that if necessary he would favor an amendment referring questions in dispute to state courts.

Mr. Clarke opposed the bill, except the section of reference to interstate commerce. He also opposed a commission, but favored legislation giving State courts jurisdiction over alleged grievances.

I SUFFERED for several years from asthma and from some affection of the throat resembling bronchitis. After spending a great deal of money on various medicines, with no material benefit, in M[illegible] was recommended to me by one of Mr. F. Peters, of this place, I obtained Dr. Jayne's Expectorant. After taking two bottles of this remedy, I found myself so much relieved that I continued taking it until I used seven bottles, and by this time my symptoms had all disappeared, and I have every reason to believe myself cured.—W. Basin, Calspring, Austin County, Tex.

APPEAL SPECIALS.

A Decision by the Supreme Court of Tennessee Which Will Revolutionize the Jury System.

In the Slab and Greatly Increase Its Efficiency—Important Decision Regarding Contested Wagers.

A Disastrous Conflagration Raging at Helena, Ark.—Proceedings of the Mississippi Legislature.

SUPREME COURT OF TENNESSEE.

Two Important Decisions, One by Distinguished Jurist Very Revolutionary.

Special to the Appeal.

NASHVILLE, February 9.—Mr. Justice Green, of the Supreme Court, in the case of Cole Gardner vs. the State, held as follows: I have upon a trial for murder stated that he had formed an opinion from rumor, and to the first question, by the Court, added that he could divest himself of the opinion, and upon the evidence fair and impartial justice between the State and the prisoner. He further said to counsel for the defendant that he had been prejudiced by the prisoner had killed the deceased, with a knife, on the road unknowing, that he had not formed whether those persons were witnesses or not; that he had the same opinion still, and that it would take evidence favorable to the prisoner to remove it, but again said that he could disregard the opinion and rely upon the evidence for his verdict. Held that there being in fact no doubt that the prisoner did kill the deceased in the manner and that there was error in the Court's ruling of the jury as competent. This decision is said to overrule former decisions on this point, and will revolutionize the jury system and increase the ability of the State to get intelligent juries.

By Justice Freeman: State vs. Farrel, indictment for carrying a pistol; plea, that the party had been arrested and punished under a judgment of the justice of the peace, whose law," and, held by a circuit judge that the justice had no jurisdiction, as imprisonment was imperative under the act of 1879. Held by this Court that the justice did have jurisdiction to try the case, and that the infliction of imprisonment under the act of 1879 was discretionary with the circuit or criminal judge trying the case, and affirming a judgment, the State, and Tarrent vs. the State, under the small offense law, that if the offense merits imprisonment it is the duty of the justice to bind the party over to the court.

Associated Press Dispatch.

JACKSON, MISS., February 9.—The House passed the bill allowing the sale of liquor at Oxford, the seat of the Mississippi University. It causes much commotion.

UNPROVOKED MURDER.

A Negro Shot Down in Cold Blood in Walker County, Ala.

Special to the Appeal.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., February 9.—Intelligence reached here to-day of the unprovoked killing at Jasper, in the adjoining county of Walker, of Charles Stoval, a negro, by another negro named Gaddi. Gaddi went to Stoval's house and called his wife, but Stoval went to the door himself and stepped out. Gaddi, without a word, blew out Stoval's brains with a shotgun. The jugular vein. Stoval died in a few minutes. Gaddi escaped.

DISASTROUS FIRE

Raging at Helena, Ark.—Several Business Houses Already Consumed.

Special to the Appeal.

HELENA, February 9.—One of the largest fires Helena ever witnessed is now raging. Jacks & Co., wholesale and retail druggists and liquor dealers, have been entirely burned out. Loss, $40,000; insurance, $25,000. Triebor & Co.'s store was entirely consumed; loss not known. The wholesale department of Simon Seeligh's dry goods establishment, and A. Hirsch & Co.'s, are burning. The buildings burned belonged to John P. Moore.

COVINGTON, TENN.

Casey Young and Protection—Deaths from Pneumonia—Personal.

From the Appeal's Correspondent.

COVINGTON, February 9.—There has been but little of importance to interest the public going on since last I wrote you. The very inclement weather of the past two weeks has entirely suspended outdoor operations. The mud is deep, and old earth is everywhere drenched with water.

Some of our best citizens have "passed over the river." Pneumonia and kindred diseases have taken off many aged people in Tipton.

The agriculturalist looks a little "blue"—no opportunity to make preparations for farming. Our people are interested in the proceedings of the Mississippi Legislature. It is to them the most important of the South and West to have the "Father of Waters" made a safe highway for the transportation of the products of the Mississippi Valley.

Our clever townsman, Mr. W. D. Smith, has entered into the mercantile business. He bought out P. A. Fisher & Co. Success to you, Mr. Smith.

I see in this week's issue of the Weekly Call the following: "In an interview published in the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette the Hon. Casey Young, when asked if he favored protection, is reported as saying:

"Most certainly; so does my district, and so does the entire South. I don't mean to say that our protection is satisfactory everywhere as it stands, but as between protection to American industries and the free trade, or the approximate free trade sentiment of certain portions of the present Congress, the South is unquestionably for protection. "It will fight any repeal of internal revenue till the debt is paid, and oppose any and all antagonism to the interests of American labor."

Upon which the Call makes the following comment or "criticism:" "We believe Casey Young has too much sense to assert that the South or his district favors a protective tariff. It is a slander upon the district. So far as this county is concerned, not a man in it gets a dollar's worth of protection, and the Democrats are solid for a tariff for revenue only."

Thus you see that the Weekly Call has fired its first gun at the Hon. Casey Young by way of comment or criticism; not on Mr. Young's record in Congress, but on what purports to be an "interview" with some newspaper correspondent. Brother Call, attack Mr. Young upon his record and show that he has, by vote or speech in Congress, set at defiance the will of his constituents.

But the Hon. Casey Young need fear nothing from the Call's comments, or criticisms, if it is subject to the charge of that. Mr. Young is in the discharge of his duty. Last summer and fall the Call took occasion to criticise Chairman Randall's management of Democratic political affairs. The Quarterly Court at its January term took occasion to endorse Chairman Randall, on the first ballot, representing the Democratic constituency. The Call would think this an opportune time to make this threat at Mr. Young. The people of the Ninth District would not look favorably upon any effort to defeat Mr. Young. They will be slow at first, if not probably after the Call's criticism upon Mr. Young's "record" have worked, if will probably elect Mr. Young on the first ballot to be his own successor.

The new depot at this place has quite a Natural appearance.

Farmers are talking for a great overflow at an early day.

TRUANT.

JACKSON, TENN.

Developments in a Manslaughter—Amusement of the Public Generally.

From the Appeal's Correspondent.

JACKSON, February 9.—At this writing the weather is very bearish. It has been raining constantly for two days and nights, the various mud-holes in the city are almost impassable. Very few country people have been in town during the past week, and business is almost as a dead-still as cemetery. The bad weather has set in now for a period longer than a week. The city will be full of visitors from the North and elsewhere.

The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias of the State meet here Tuesday and will remain in session during the week, and Capt. Harvey's grand excursion from the Northwest and a great many other visitors from different parts of the State will be here attending the Commery Convention, which will be in session on the 18th and 19th. We have a very pleasant little city, full of the most hospitable people imaginable. Our hotels, living other distinguished guests, the editors of the Appeal are cordially invited to come down any week. The writer will guarantee to them a pleasant time.

Mr. G. F. Kelly, a dry goods and notion dealer of our city, was married last Monday by Sheriff Bradford. Mr. Bradford has in his possession a marriage license issued by the Clerk of Madison county, which he will be taken up first.

The law side of the Gibbons Law and Chancery Court of Madison county will meet Monday, the 17th instant. The State docket will be taken up first.

Mrs. Nellie H. Hughes, wife of C. H. Hughes and daughter of H. H. Curtis, died at her home in this city Sunday morning last. Deceased had only been married about one year. She had an infant a week or so old.

Wright H. Hendleson, a good Christian lady, died at her home in Jackson on the 6th instant, aged about two years.

A grand hop-supper ball will be given by the young ladies of the city at the Hopper House next Thursday night, the 14th instant.

Miss Ella Brown, Miss Ella Jones and Mrs. L. J. Gilmore, of this city, left to-day for Cincinnati, to attend the grand Opera Festival.

THE Memphis and Charleston railroad shows more and more disaster every day.

MOVEMENT Manager of the Gulf, Colorado, and Santa Fe railroad, was in town last week.

THE war of rates last week demonstrates the fact that Memphis is getting to be a railroad center.

C. E. LOCKWOOD, general passenger and ticket agent of the Kansas City route, was here last week.

THE high water is interfering to some extent with the work of the railroads. The Western roads are still dawdling.

GEO. H. NETTLETON, general manager, and Geo. L. Dunn, general freight agent, were in the city yesterday.

THE war between the Little Rock and Memphis and Memphis road is at an end, and previous rates are restored.

THE Mississippi and Tennessee railroad will be completed to Greenfield in three and a half hours before very long.

TRUCK-LAYING on the line of the Tennessee Southern railroad is progressing at the rate of about a mile a day.

BY the completion of the Kansas City road, travelers have another route to the Northern and Eastern cities.

WORK on the hotels and side-tracks at Mudge's Station is rapidly progressing, and everything is in good shape for the season.

TICKET AGENTS are beginning to grumble about the scarcity of travel, which will continue to be the case until the Legislature adjourns.

IT is yet probable that the shops of the southern branch of the Louisville, New Orleans and Texas will be located at Grenada, Miss.

HARDLY a day passes that deeds to land in the suburbs of the city are not recorded in the register's office by one of the numerous railroads.

CHARLES W. ADAMS, the genial representative of the Kansas City route, came back last week with forty immigrants for Eureka Springs, Ark.

C. O. JOHNSON, general Southeastern freight agent of the Kansas City, Springfield and Memphis route, is spending from an extended trip to the South and Southwest.

MR. E. A. WILLIAMS, immigrant agent of the Memphis and Brunswick Railroad, of Atlanta, Ga., will come to Memphis to look out for the interests of his road.

CHARLIE JONES, for a number of years with Gaston's Hotel, has been appointed city passenger agent of the Kansas City route. They never could have made a better selection out of the numerous applications.

THE freight traffic of the Kansas City, Springfield and Memphis railroad is increasing daily. This line has a good-paying business all the year, as it is the shortest route from Cotton Belt to Lake's half year of every season.

THERE are indications that work will soon be resumed on the Memphis and Paducah of the city now some seventy-five of 100 mules, wagons, etc., encamped near the line a day or two ago, and work will be pushed for the purpose of building the road. It is to be hoped that it will.

Hagdon's Cincinnati Opera Festival Postponed.

A young man testifies as to Check you for his cure of Blood Poison by the use of your Specific after all other treatments had failed.—H. JACOBES, Druggist, Athens, Ga.

TRIED HOT SPRINGS TWO LONG YEARS WITHOUT RELIEF.

Mercurial Rheumatism made me a cripple. After trying the various cures, and spending the Mercury and Potash, I felt myself a wreck. I was a cripple, unable to walk without crutches. I was prevailed upon to try S. S. S. I was persuaded to try it, thinking it could do no harm. After taking three bottles I was able to leave the crutches at home. I continued taking it until I had taken twelve bottles, when I felt as well as I ever did. It is now nearly eight years since I took S. S. S. My health and appetite are good, and I am able to attend to all the business I can get.—CHAS. BEGG, Hot Springs, January 1, 1883.

"PUT ME SQUARE ON MY FEET."

Twelve years ago I was prostrated by my S. S. S. for Malarial Blood Poison, which had crippled me so that I was unable to attend to business. Less than twelve bottles have put me square on my feet; have steadily improved; barring a little setback in ten years.—C. R. GUINN, Hot Springs, January 1, 1883.
