Receiver's Sale.

No. 5568. R. D.—In the Chancery Court of Shelby County, Tenn.—J. A. Wiggs et al. vs. the Mullally Coal & Iron Co. et al.

PURSUANT to the order of sale in this cause on Tuesday, June 30, 1885, between 10 o'clock a.m. and 3 o'clock p.m., I will sell at the front of the courthouse, Memphis, Tenn., the following described property, namely: The entire leasehold interest of the parties to the suit in the premises on the southwest corner of Auction and Front streets, which passed by the lease from the Milburn Ore and Machine Company to the defendant, H. A. Mullally, subject to the terms and conditions of the said lease, and of the agreement between the said Milburn Ore and Machine Company, by which the said company sold and assigned all the right, title, and interest of the said Milburn Ore and Machine Company in and to the said premises, and also all the engines, boilers, machinery and other property used in or about or belonging to the said Milburn Crushing and Reducing Company, and including all that may be embraced in the inventory of J. M. Fowlkes, the receiver, on file with the Clerk and Master, except such products of the mill as have already been sold or otherwise disposed of by the said receiver under the former orders of this court. Also, the lease, fixtures, furniture, office furniture and fixtures, safes, tools, implements, and other property belonging to the said Fully Crushing and Reducing Company of every description, whether embraced in the said inventory or not, and whether in the hands of the receiver or in the custody or control the same may be. But it is not intended that any debts owing to the said Company, or any choses in action belonging to it, shall be sold or disposed of.

All the property herein described to be sold will be sold on a credit of one hundred days, the crushing rolls and four filters, and one stand of presses, including purchase money, to be secured by the lease, and by two bonds, the lease being the same that was heretofore given by the Milburn Ore and Machine Company to the Mullally Coal and Iron Co.

The articles to exceptor will each be sold separately.

Terms of Sale—One-third cash, balance in equal installments of one and two months, notes of purchasers payable to the order of the undersigned Clerk and Master, bearing interest from date, with security to be approved by the receiver.

W. H. FLOURNOY, Clerk and Master.
M. Randolph, Taylor & Carroll, Esq. Wurtlner, Solicitors.

GOLD MEDAL, PARIS, 1878.

BAKER'S Breakfast Cocoa.

Warranted absolutely pure Cocoa, from which the excess of Oil has been removed. It has three times the strength of Cocoa mixed with Starch, Arrowroot or Sugar, and is therefore far more economical, costing less than one cent per cup. It is delicious, nourishing, strengthening, easily digested, and admirably adapted for invalids as well as for persons in health.

Sold by Grocers everywhere.
