A PRETTY wedding will be solemnized tonight at 6:30 o'clock in the Hotel Walton, when Miss Flora Baer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Baer, will become the bride of Julius Adler. Rabbi Krauskopf will perform the ceremony. Miss Baer will have as matron of honor her sister, Mrs. M. A. Green, of Pittsburgh, and the best man will be Jules Rosin. Two little flower girls will be Miss Stephanie Einstein and Miss Janet Hart. The bride will wear a soft shimmering gown of white pussy willow taffeta, made with a court train. Her tulle veil will have a cap of duchesse lace and will be fastened with orange blossoms.

The bridal bouquet will consist of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Blue taffeta will form the attractive costume worn by the matron of honor, who will carry pink roses.

The flower girls will be gowned alike in pale blue, with an overdress of white net. They will carry baskets of pink roses and ferns.

A reception will follow the ceremony at the Hotel Walton.

Upon their return from an extended wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Adler will reside at the Wissahickon Apartments.
