TODAY will mark the 25th anniversary of the founding of St. Timothy's Hospital, which will be celebrated with a lawn fete on the grounds of the hospital.

The hospital was founded by the late J. Vaughn Merrick and his wife, Mary Wagner Merrick, as a memorial to their parents and was called "Memorial Hospital and House of Mercy of St. Timothy's Church, Roxborough." It was opened in the Wagner homestead at the corner of Ridge and Jamestown avenues, and has grown into the present large institution.

There will be rustic booths for the sale of home-made candy, cakes, fancy articles, cut flowers and plants, a fish pond in charge of the Junior Aids and a tent for fortune telling. From 4 to 5 o'clock the anniversary exercises will be held, with the Rev. James B. Halsey, chairman ex-officio of the Board of Managers, and Dr. Barton Cook Hirst as the principal speakers. Supper will be served at 5 o'clock. The fete will be in charge of Mrs. George A. Bostwick, president of the Ladies' Aid; Mrs. M. Howard Fussell, vice president; Mrs. George McKeown, secretary; Miss Margaret D. Bostwick, treasurer; Mrs. J. Vaughn Merrick, Mrs. David E. Williams, Mrs. John Thompson Littlewood, Mrs. Reuben Kenworthy, Mrs. George Clay Bowker, Mrs. Oliver S. Keely, Mrs. Nathan L. Jones, Mrs. Robert H. Hays, Mrs. Robert Hey, Mrs. Wilbur F. Hamilton, Mrs. Robert E. Dennison, Mrs. Lawrence Simcox, Mrs. William H. Stafford, Mrs. Clinton J. Stafford, Mrs. Joseph C. Morris, Mrs. John F. L. Morris, Mrs. William G. Lawton, Mrs. William H. The lawn fete to be held tonight and tomorrow night on the grounds of St. Matthias' Church, Bryn Mawr avenue, Bala, of which the Rev. M. J. McCabe is rector, promises to have many interesting features.

Large and small sized American flags, interspersed with small Irish flags, together with many varied colored lanterns strung around the lawn, will lend a patriotic and picturesque air to the grounds. White trellis booths at which fancy articles, novelties, cakes, candies, potted plants, cut flowers and cigarettes are to be sold, will be prettily decorated with flags and electric bulbs and presided over by prominent women and young girls of Bala and Cynwyd. A fish pond will also be arranged for the amusement of the youngsters. Among other interesting features of the fete will be an orchestra, consisting of violin, harp, cornet and drum, which will render musical selections each night, while in a roped-off space on the lawn the young people of the parish will enjoy the novelty of dancing on the green for the benefit of the school building fund.

Among those actively interested in the affair are Mrs. Paul A. Vanneman, Mrs. William Simpson, Mrs. J. Howard Mecke, Mrs. Alexander J. Christie, Miss M. A. Holt, Miss Robinette, Miss Murphy, Mrs. James H. Dolan, Mrs. John D. Colgan, Mrs. Frank A. Rowsey, Mrs. O. M. Gaiser, Mrs. A. J. Maguire, Mrs. Henry A. Beck, Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. M. Leary.
