Notes and Comment on Diamond Affairs

Malone's one-handed stop on Crawford in the first inning was the fielding feature of the game, and it was one of the finest plays made at Shibe Park this season.

Babe Oldring was robbed of a hit because Jack Lapp was on first when Bush knocked down his drive to deep short. There was no chance for Bush to get Babe at first, but he threw to Young, forcing Lapp.

Manager Mack has several youngsters working out in the morning, one of whom is due to be promoted to the afternoon class. He is McGlinchey, of Massachusetts Tech.

Wyckoff received credit for a wild pitch when he fanned Cobb and the ball got away from Lapp. It seems like an injustice to give a man a wild pitch when a hitter like Cobb considers a ball good enough to swing at it.

The Detroit infield was completely upset when McInnis turned the ball down past Kavanaugh for a triple. "Stuffy" seldom hits in that direction, and Kavanaugh never even got his hands up.

The play that saved the game for the Athletics was Kopf's feat in knocking down Veach's terrific drive. Veach beat his throw, but Vitt tried to score and McInnis nailed him at the plate. Kopf is improving wonderfully.

Kavanaugh picked up a slow roller from Kopf and tried to beat Bill to the bag, though Dauss was covering. Had he thrown, Kopf would have been retired easily, but Kopf beat him to the bag.

There is nothing wrong with Wyckoff's nerve. The way he disposed of Cobb and Crawford with men on bases was a treat. He also fanned Jacobson and Dauss in a pinch.

Jacobson, the Tigers' utility man, who batted for Stanage, is the largest outfielder in baseball since Bill Lang's day. He stands 6 feet 3 inches in height and weighs 205 pounds, but he is mighty fast.

McInnis' triple in the fourth inning was the first hit of the game. It is not often that both teams go that long without getting one safe. The Tigers did not get a hit until Veach singled in the sixth.
