J. H. DUFFY LEADS WITH 160 IN GOLF TEST AT APAWAMIS

St. Andrew's Senior Ousts J. A. Tyng, Baltusrol, From Medal Place on Last Day

EVENT BIG SUCCESS

RYE, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Late in the day John H. Duffy, St. Andrews, took the lead for the 36-hole net prize, with a total of 160, in the last 18-hole round of the senior golf tournament at the Apawamis Club. Up to that time, James A. Tyng, of Baltusrol, with a 176, held the honor.

The tournament has proved to be a huge success.

An official list of prize winners will not be given out until tomorrow, in view of the likelihood of complications because of the rule that one man cannot take two prizes.

"It's the same old story, the putts won't go down," declared J. Ernest Smith, the Attorney General of the State of Delaware.

Even with three putts on the home green and similar offenses on many others, the Wilmington man got round in 91.

Mahlon Pitney, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, did himself proud on the homeward journey, coming back in 43. That gave him a 92 for the round and a 77 net, so that he looks like a winner for today's net prize. Frank Presbrey, who played with Mr. Pitney, also had 92.

MRS. VANDERBECK WINS FROM MRS. BARLOW IN BERTHELLYN MATCHES

National Champion Gets Revenge Over Old Rival in Semifinals in Thrilling Play at Noble

TAKES GAME BY 1 UP

NOBLE, Pa., Sept. 24.—In one of the most exciting matches ever witnessed between women on a local course, Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbeck, Philadelphia Cricket Club, defeated Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow, Merion Cricket Club, in the semifinal round of the Bethellyn Cup, at the Huntingdon Valley Country Club, 1 up.

From the first hole to the last, the contest was most thrilling, and despite the fact that Mrs. Vanderbeck always held the lead, Mrs. Barlow kept right after her and very nearly pulled the match out of the fire.

By winning, Mrs. Vanderbeck obtained revenge for the defeats that she has suffered at the hands of her opponent in past matches.

Mrs. Barlow overdrove the green on the fifth to the rough, and Mrs. Vanderbeck was on with her drive, but missed a 3-foot putt for a win in three. Mrs. Barlow drove into the bunker on the sixth and pulled across the course with her second, and she was on the green inthree to two and lost the hole four to five.

On the seventh Mrs. Vanderbeck ran down a long putt for a five, but on the eighth Mrs Barlow went her one better. Both were on the green in four, but Mrs. Barlow was 40 feet from the pin. To the surprise of the gallery, she holed out and won the hole when Mrs. Vanderbeck took two putts. The ninth hole was halved in fives, and Mrs. Vanderbeck was two up at the turn.

In the second semifinal match Mrs. Caleb F. Fox easily defeated Miss Eleanor T. Chandler 5 up and 4 to play. Miss Chandler's putting was exceedingly weak, and this accounted largely for her severe defeat. The cards:

FAVORITES WIN IN STRAIGHT HEATS IN GRAND CIRCUIT MEET

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 24.—Pronounced favorites not only won the four races on yesterday's grand circuit program, but they did so without the loss of a heat. Not a driving finish was seen. The time average was the best of the week, and Etawah found the track good enough for the lowering of his records, the Geers' horse finishing the mile in 2:03 flat after having gone the first half in less than a minute. A breeze hindered him and all the other horses through the last quarter.

Queen Abbess, winner of the 2:10 pace, showed her quality when she stepped the final heat in 2:04½. Napoleon Direct made the fastest time of the week when he did the second heat of the free-for-all pace in 2:02¼, a second slower than his record made last week at Syracuse.

Lizzie Brown almost equaled her record in each of the first two heats of the Capital City trot. At Syracuse she won in 2:06¼. Yesterday she did 2:06½ twice, never being hard pressed by Lucile Spier.

LEWISBURG, Sept. 24.—The Bucknell football team has been put through stiff practice along all lines by Coach Johnson, preparatory to the game with Susquehanna here on Saturday.

It is understood that Susquehanna has a heavy team this year and is coming prepared to blot out the defeat of 43-0 last season.

Signal practice, goal kicking, punting, forward passes and other tactics have had a thorough test and the students are looking forward to some fast work for the second game of this season's schedule.

MISS A. CUNNINGHAM WINS WOMEN'S TITLE ON MANHEIM COURTS

Boston Racqueter, With Mrs. F. M. Felton, Also Lands Doubles Championship

SCORES, 13-11 AND 7-5

MANHEIM, Pa., Sept. 24.—Miss Alice Cunningham, wearing the colors of the Longwood Cricket Club, Boston, won two matches, semifinal and final, in the singles section of the women's Philadelphia and district lawn tennis championship, at the Germantown Cricket Club, Manheim, today, and earned the privilege of contesting the challenge round tomorrow against the titleholder, Miss Marion Cresswell, Philadelphia Cricket Club.

The Boston girl's semifinal victory was over Miss E. G. Ostheimer, Huntingdon Valley, at 6-1, 6-4. In the final round Mrs. Forrest Kerbaugh, Belfield Country Club, who is barely a head taller than the height of the net, took the first set that Miss Cunningham has lost since the start of the tournament. The scores were 6-1, 3-6, 6-0.

The final round was originally scheduled to start at 2 p. m., but was begun an hour earlier, in order to give Miss Cunningham a chance to rest up before the start of the doubles and mixed doubles, since she is in the semifinal of both of these events. Hence, the gallery was small, but what it lacked in numbers it made up in enthusiasm.

At the outset it looked like a walkover for the Bostonian. She began the service and won, broke through Mrs. Kerbaugh for the second game and repeated the performance until she led at 4 love. She eased up in the fifth game, but took the sixth and seventh for the set at 6-1. Miss Cunningham had a grand total of 26 points, of which 10 were earned, eight from placement and two service aces. All but two of Mrs. Kerbaugh's 15 points were from her opponent's nets and outs.

The tiny Belfield player staged a brilliant rally in the second set, and from her base line kept Miss Cunningham chasing from one side of the court to the other. Her well-planned offensive tactics forced Miss Cunningham to pile up a total of 29 nets and outs. Mrs. Kerbaugh had 24 nets and outs and each had six placement aces, while Miss Cunningham served one double fault, making the point total 36 to 30 and the games 6 and 3.

The seven-minute rest between the second and final sets really decided the issue, for Miss Cunningham came back greatly refreshed, while her opponent, relaxing, was unable to keep up her well sustained effort. With the conditions of the second exactly reversed, Miss Cunningham ran six straight games, for a total of 28 points, against 7 points for Mrs. Kerbaugh.

The semifinal in ladies' doubles was between Miss Cunningham and Mrs. F. M. Felton and Miss Emily Kennedy and Miss Edith Reath. In the other half of the draw Mrs. W. P. Newhall and Miss E. G. Ostheimer reached the final yesterday.

In mixed doubles the matches were Miss Agnes and Kenneth Kennedy vs. Miss Sarah Myers and J. S. Disston, Jr., and Miss Edith Runk and Brooke Edwards vs. Miss Cunningham and Allan Evans, Jr.

In a fiercely fought match Miss Cunningham and Mrs. Felton gained the final bracket in the ladies' doubles by defeating Miss Elsie Reath and Miss Emily Kennedy in two sets at 13-11, 7-5.
