ERCONFIDENCE CAUSED DEFEAT

Beth Israel Underrated Port Richmond Five in American League Game

ST. COLUMBA GAINS

Holding their Port Richmond rivals too cheap proved the undoing of the winning streak of the Brotherhood of Beth Israel five last night in an American Basketball League contest at Trayesmore Hall.

When selecting his players for last night's fracas, the manager of the Beth Israel team decided that there was no reason why he should pay money to his two former Eastern League stars, Doc Newman and Lew Sugarman, to help defeat a team which had not won a contest this season, when he had several men sitting on the bench who played for the love of the game and who he thought were capable of defeating the Port Richmond club.

Sugarman and Newman therefore were told to take an enforced rest. But the Beth Israel team had underrated its opponents, who, after the first few minutes of play, took the lead, never to be headed. The final count was 24 to 16. This defeat should be a lesson to the B. B. I. Club, and it is safe to say that Sugarman and Newman will be on hand when Referee Kelly toots his whistle next Monday night, when Beth Israel meets the league leaders, St. Columba.

The game was rough and the better part of the second half reminded one of a football game, the players appearing to take a liking to the floor. Owens was the high light for the victors, scoring 10 of his team's 24 points. Kirstein and McGinley played an important part with their floor work. For the Brotherhood quintet the work of Dessen and Schwartz was the best.

In the wind-up the playing of Tom Dunleavy enabled the St. Columba team to further intrench themselves in first place by defeating Girard Alumni by the score of 33 to 16. The former high school star played a wonderful floor game and was well nigh perfect in his shooting, caging four foul goals in four tries, and five goals from the field. Inability on the part of the Girard Alumni guards to stop Fisher, Dunleavy and Moorehead from cutting in for the basket to receive a pass gave the Saints an early lead, which they never lost. Gallagher appeared to be the only Girard player with any "pep."
