I. O. O. F. OBSERVES CENTENARY TONIGHT

Fraternalists Will Give Dance and Banquet to Members in Scottish Rite Hall

SACRED SERVICE TOMORROW

The 100th anniversary of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows will be celebrated in this city tonight with a banquet and dance in Scottish Rite Hall, Broad and Race streets. One thousand members of the order are expected to attend. The Rev. Dr. James S. Isenberg, pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, will deliver the principal address.

Representatives of I. O. O. F. lodges in Philadelphia, Delaware, Chester, Montgomery and Bucks counties, where the order has 50,000 members, will take part in the celebration, which commemorates the organization of Washington Lodge, No. 1, in Baltimore, by Thomas Wildey in April, 1819.

Five thousand persons will attend the anniversary service tomorrow morning in the Metropolitan Opera House. The Rev. Dr. Walter B. Greenland, pastor of Grace Presbyterian Church, will preside, and the Rev. Dr. William Barnes Lower, of Logan, will preach an anniversary sermon.

Governor William C. Sproul will be represented by William L. Snyder, attorney general of Pennsylvania, who will deliver an address.

Among the prominent guests who will have seats on the stage are Judge Amory A. Walling, of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court; John Wanamaker, Rabbi Joseph Krauskopf, the Rev. Dr. Russell H. Conwell, W. Freas and Kerrick, representing the Philadelphia county committee of patriotic organizations; John A. Perkins, Free and Accepted Masons; Amos R. Cox, Grand Order of Artisans; Charles L. Hall, Junior Order of American Mechanics; Samuel Wolf, Knights of Pythias; E. J. Gallagher, Knights of the Golden Eagle, and John E. Adams, of the Manchester Unity.

The centennial celebration will be in charge of a general committee of which J. P. Hale Jenkins, past grand master, is chairman. Fulton A. Hall, grand secretary, is chairman of the executive committee, which includes Samuel H. Pope, Robert Norman, Rhys N. Evans, Thomas Cowdon, John T. Fisher, Thomas J. Martin, Charles J. Richards, Robert Lowe and Charles H. McNair.

The Rev. Dr. Walter B. Greenland is chairman of the reception committee, which includes J. H. Avery, Wesley Peacock, J. S. Pomfunbon, J. P. Cyril, Samuel Sample, William Rink, G. V. Wills, John Lincoln, C. P. N. Carr, Samuel D. Kneer, E. J. Simon, S. L. Prince, A. S. Wilson, C. H. Moore, R. S. Smith, E. H. Wiggins.

Official Citation

NEIBOUR, THOMAS O., (98595) Private, Co. M, 167th Infantry.

FOR conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty in action against the enemy near Landres-et-St. Georges, France, 16 October, 1918.

When this objective had just been gained after bitter fighting, and the summit of that strong bulwark in the Kriemhilde Stellung was being organized, Private Neibour was sent out on patrol with his automatic rifle squad to enfilade enemy machine-gun nests. As he gained the ridge he set up his automatic rifle and was directly wounded in both legs by fire from a hostile machine gun. The advance wave of the enemy troops counter-attacking had about gained the ridge, and although practically cut off and surrounded, the remainder of his detachment being killed or wounded, this gallant soldier kept his automatic rifle in operation to such effect that by his own efforts and by fire from the skirmish line of his company, at least one hundred yards in his rear, the attack was checked. Four of the enemy attacked Private Neibour at close quarters. These he killed. Private Neibour captured eleven prisoners at the point of his pistol and, although painfully wounded, brought them back to our lines. The counter-attack in full force was arrested to a large extent by the single efforts of this soldier, whose heroic exploits took place against the skyline in full view of his entire battalion.

Home Address: J. C. Neibour, Father, Sugar City, Idaho.
