PENN BOXERS SHOULD ALL MAKE THEIR LETTERS, SOME GETTING THEIR P.'S AND OTHERS K. O.'S

OF COURSE, BASEBALL OUTDRAWS FOOTBALL

No Figures at Hand, but With Five Months of National Game Daily Against Grid Sport Every Week for Two Months There Really Is No Comparison

By GRANTLAND RICE

Copyright, 1920. All rights reserved.

"IT IS my contention," writes A (in his usual argument with B), "that football drew more paid admissions last year than baseball did in the two major leagues. Are there any figures to give a correct comparison?"

There are no figures in sight, but baseball undoubtedly wins, for the very simple reason that there were major league ball games every day for five months, against football games every week for two months.

On the average paid attendance a game, football was well ahead.

The world series alone drew 237,000 paid admissions. The Giants, Reds, Yanks and White Sox each played to something over 500,000, whereas Yale, in her two-month schedule, played to something under 150,000.

* * *

A FOOTBALL team playing eight games has no admission chance against a baseball club playing 140 or 154 games.

* * *

THE old argument as to whether a shortstop or a second baseman has more chances might be taken up from these figures: Ruth, of the Reds, at second, had 818 chances in 138 games; Olson, of the Dodgers, at short, had 738 chances in 140 games. Each was the busiest athlete on the job. The gap, apparently, isn't very wide.

One by One

"Maree Released by the Reds"

One by one the race is run,
One by one the tale is spun,
As a gray ghost through the mist,
Till each entry leaves the list
Where Doc Time, across the brink,
Crooks his finger with a wink,
Salary whip or batting eye,
High and low or low and high,
Till at last he seat th's plea:
"Time is up—report to me,
Sherwood Nottingham Maree."

Sixteen years amid the show,
Swapping wallops, blow for blow,
Leading on the well-known pill
With a crash that echoes still;
Soaking doubles left and right,
Cracking every pitch in sight,
Till at last the Ancient Doc,
With his eye upon the clock,
Sighed and sent this hurried plea:
"Sorry—but report to me,
Sherwood Nottingham Maree."

The Leader

WHICH of these do you consider the most wonderful record:

Beeson's high jump—6 feet 7 5-16 inches.

O'Connor's broad jump—24 feet 11¾ inches.

Kelly's 100-yard dash—9 3-5 seconds.

Ted Meredith's half-mile run—1m. 52 1-5s.

Taber's one-mile run—4m. 12 3-5s.

Beeson's high jump and O'Connor's broad jump will be among the last to be broken. As O'Connor's record has lasted nineteen years, it has the advantage in this respect, at least.

* * *

"ENGINEER'S golf course will be a fine test for amateur championship." Well, if an eager and ambitious set of engineers can't lay out pits and bunkers deep enough, who else can?

* * *

East vs. West

"I HAVE never seen a complete summary," writes Paul Gould, "showing just just how the East and West finished last season in the way of sporting supremacy. Has any such summary been made?"

It would be in part as follows:

Tennis championship — Johnston (West).

Amateur golf championship—Herron, 50-50, Pittsburgh.

Open champion, golf—Hagen, Detroit (West).

World's series—Cincinnati (West).

Heavyweight championship—Dempsey (West).

Lightweight champion — Leonard (East).

Intersectional football—West, three victories; East, two victories.

* * *

WITHOUT going any further, it is fairly evident that for 1919 the West had an unusually wide margin—one of the widest of many campaigns. What 1920 will have to offer will be unfolded shortly.

* * *

"VINCENT RICHARDS," says Norman Brookes, "may never get to be a great tennis player, as he has too many strokes."

That's the trouble a number of us have had in golf. There are times when we have had to jot down many more strokes than we ever thought could be taken on a certain hole or through a certain round.

* * *

PRINCETON'S 1920 football schedule may not suit all concerned, but by the time the Tiger has finished with Washington and Lee, West Virginia, the Navy, Harvard and Yale, there can be no serious charge of loafing launched against the schedule committee.

* * *

Advance Echoes

"What's that?—I thought I heard
Somebody say 'He's safe at third!'"

* * *

Exchange

And I was certain some one said,
"I should 'a been 3 up instead,
But those four stymies killed me dead."

* * *

Something to Think Over

ALMOST any life is great that you don't have to lead.

* * *

TODAY is generally too late for those who don't think tomorrow may be.

AMONG the many called are two or three who wanted to hear.

DOBSON NOSES OUT WANDERERS' TEAM

Soccer Elevens Wage Thrilling Contest in Cold Winds. Score 2 to 1

ROXBOROUGH FORFEITS

J. and J. Dobson defeated the Wanderers yesterday afternoon by 2 goals to 1, after an interesting match. Although there was nothing at stake, both teams went at it, however in the driving cold and wintry blasts, with the result that the few spectators who braved the elements had the satisfaction of witnessing a corking contest.

There should have been a double-header, but as Roxborough failed to appear for their Allied Special Division match, this was forfeited to Nativity, who were on the job ready to play with their full eleven.

Wanderers have secured the Nativity grounds at Belgrade and Ontario streets to play Sunday soccer. They will have Disston, of the National League, for their opponents next Sunday, while games will be staged there every week-end hereafter.

J. & J. Dobson		Wanderers
Ebrline	goal	Pearce
Mountjoy	right fullback	Struble
Wilson	left fullback	Taylor
McDonough	right halfback	Thompson
Walsh	center halfback	Fossett
Walker	left halfback	Campbell
Brooks	outside right	Hemingway
Foster	inside right	Finnigan
Brain	center forward	Graham
Lavery	inside left	J. McGhee
Brown	outside left	B. McGhee

Final score—J. & J. Dobson, 2; Wanderers, 1. Half-time score—Wanderers, 1; J. & J. Dobson, 1. Goals made by Foster, Brown and B. McGhee. Referee—Irvine Carr. Linesmen—Horn and Coleman. Time of halves—30 minutes.

Sacred Heart Wins Close Pool Game

The Sacred Heart Literary Institute defeated Corley Catholic Club in the weekly tournament of the Catholic Young Men's Union, yesterday, at the latter's headquarters, Eleventh and Wolf streets, by the score of 100 to 99. The feature of the game was the shooting of Harry Tunnelty, of Sacred Heart, who, being paired with Pat O'Malley, did great work. In checkers, Sacred Heart won three straight games, but lost two out of three games in pinochle.

Higgins Quits Penn State

State College, Pa., Jan. 19.—Robert A. Higgins, ranked as the greatest football end in the game last fall and captain of the Penn State eleven, left here today to accept the position of assistant to the recreational officer at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. He has virtually finished his course in commerce and finance and will be awarded his college degree on February 2, being one of the 112 members of the special "war class" to be graduated at that time.

Winter Sports Carnival Opens

Quebec, Jan. 19.—The winter sports carnival opened yesterday with ski racing on the esplanade alongside the Chateau Frontenac, curling matches in Quebec and Victoria rinks and hockey matches at the arena. The three big toboggan slides are in excellent condition and very fast. Mayor Levigueur officially opened the carnival.

SIX GAMES IN SCHOOL LEAGUE ON THIS WEEK

Two Rounds of Basketball Matches to Be Played in Interscholastic Campaign

ST. JOE FIVE WINS

By PAUL PREP

TWO rounds of games in the Interscholastic Basketball League are scheduled this week. Tomorrow afternoon three matches will be played as follows:

Northeast High at South Phila. High.
Central High at Frankford High.
West Phila. High at Germantown High.

For Friday afternoon the following contests are scheduled:

Central High at South Phila. High.
West Phila. High at Northeast High.
Germantown High at Frankford High.

No league basketball games will be played in the Central High School gymnasium this season. Because of the abundance of gymnasium paraphernalia at Central, Doctor O'Brien believes facilities are poor for good basketball. For this reason all of the Crimson and Gold's scheduled home games will be played on the opposition's floor.

With South Philly and West Philly not scheduled to play each other this week, the chances are that the Interscholastic League standing still will be in a deadlock at the finish of Friday's games. While Northeast may give the Southwark five a grueling battle tomorrow, the latter is picked as the winner. In tomorrow's West Philly-Germantown match the Speedboys are expected to come through with the bigger score.

In Friday's matches both South Philly and West Philly will have hard opponents. Central and Northeast respectively. Nevertheless, both of the Phils are favorites for victories.

The crackajack teams of West Philly and South Philly are scheduled to meet for the first time this season on January 30, and this contest, no doubt, will be the first of the crucial battles. It will be played in the Speedboys' cage.

In the Catholic Schools Basketball League, St. Joseph's entered into a deadlock for the runner-up position by defeating West Philadelphia Catholic High Saturday night on the former's floor. The final score was 25 to 12.

St. Joe led all the way, holding a 14-7 lead at half time and staying out in front throughout the second half. Oakes, of St. Joe, was the individual star with five field goals.

West Catholic's score was held down so low because of the inability of Blake to locate the basket on foul tosses. He was able to cage only half a dozen goals out of a total of eighteen attempts.

West Philadelphia High captured the team honors, three new records were established and thrilling races resulted in the seventeenth national interscholastic swimming championships at Weightman Hall, University of Pennsylvania, on Saturday. The Speedboys, who won the meet last year with 23 points, made six less on Saturday.

Other schools in the meet finished as follows: Girard College, 12; Mercersburg, 8; Marquand, 8; Poly Prep, 7; Rutgers Prep, 5; Lawrenceville, 2, and Northeast High, 1.

Winners of the six different events, showing new records, follow:

50 yards—Genthner, Brooklyn Poly. (New record, :25 3-5).

100 yards—Chace, Berkeley-Irving.

220 yards—Chace, Berkeley-Irving. (New record, 2:38 4-5).

800-foot relay—West Philadelphia High School.

Plunge—Hann, Rutgers Prep. (New mark, 70 ft. 6 in.).

Dive—Boyle, Girard College.

Dartmouth Captain

Hanover, N. H., Jan. 19.—H. Nelson Browne, of Barre, Vt., a guard, was elected captain of the Dartmouth basketball team last night. The basketball squad left last night on its second trip of the season, during which games are scheduled with Williams tonight, Union on Tuesday night and a league contest with Cornell on Wednesday.

Brazil in Olympic Meet

Rio de Janeiro, Jan. 19.—The Brazilian Sports Confederation has accepted an invitation extended by the International Federation at Amsterdam to participate in the Olympic games to be held at Antwerp in August. Steps are to be taken immediately to have Brazil properly represented at the games.

Harry Tuthill Retires

Detroit, Jan. 19.—Harry Tuthill, for twelve years trainer with the Detroit Americans, announced his retirement today. Tuthill once served in a similar capacity with the New York Giants, one of the first clubs to engage a trainer. Before entering baseball Tuthill handled many of the foremost old-time prize fighters, including Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons and Steve O'Donnell.

Wind Spoils Ice Sports

Red Bank, N. J., Jan. 19.—Many New York and Newark parties came here today and braved the high winds and snow drifts by ice-boating, skate-sailing and skating on ice. Several fifth-class boats in the Independent Club were doing stunts on the snow-covered ice, but the larger third-class yachts did not venture out as it was blowing too hard.

On Saturday night on the Weightman Hall court the Penn tossers will clash with Coach Joe Fogarty's quintet from Swarthmore.
