CURTIS CLUB OPENS ITS SUMMER SEASON

Concert Ends Day of Ball Game, Track Meet and Other Features

An orchestra concert by the Beta Chapter Sinfonia, the Philadelphia Branch of the Phi Mu Alpha Musical Fraternity of America, given last night at the Curtis Country Club, at Lawndale, featured the opening of the summer season at the club.

More than 1000 employes of the Curtis publications and their friends were guests. Business problems were cast aside for tennis, baseball and a track meet. The baseball game, in which the Hathoro team defeated the Curtis players by a score of 6 to 3, was the athletic treat of the day. It was a hard-fought battle, with five of the Hathoro runs made in the last inning. Buskirk, pitcher, starred for Hathoro, while Gorgan, Curtis shortstop, won applause for his clever fielding.

The concert of the evening was built up on an excellent program and executed in a manner to do credit to professionals. Edward Ray Strayer conducted. The orchestra is made up of musical students.

The program included "Raymond Overture," A. Thomas; Peer Gynt Suite, Grieg; Adagio Pathetique, Godard; March Militaire, F. Schubert. "Angel Face," by Victor Herbert, was the popular selection.

Paul Engle, a baritone, was the soloist. He was accompanied by Miss Ann Bassett.

Mr. Engle's voice is one of quality and showed to best advantage in "Duna," by McGill and "O Lovely Night," by Ronald. The other two selections on his program were "Tommy Lad," by Margeston and "Tell Me Not of a Lovely Lass," Forsyth.
