BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

A NEW YORK PUBLISHING HOUSE, which does a substantial amount of its business on the monthly payment plan, requires additional working capital. Accounts receivable, all of which are good, are well in excess of $100,000; the profits and the volume of business are rapidly increasing; we can make an attractive arrangement with any financial house or individual in a position to advance funds to the extent of 80 per cent of any part of the outstanding accounts; or we can offer to responsible parties an interest in the business as a permanent investment.
