Holmesburg and Frankford Prepare for Big Title Game

SIX BIG GRIDIRON GAMES THIS WEEK

Battles Will Be Decided in Three Football Leagues in This City

INTERACADEMIC CLOSES

By PAUL PREP

THIS is a big week for elevens in the three leagues in this city. The public High League will be the busiest. Three games will be staged, one on Thursday and a pair on the following afternoon.

Two games will be contested in the Catholic League, both on Friday afternoon and the curtain will come down on league games for two of the Interacademic League teams.

Northeast High opposes Germantown High in the first Public High League game. As Tabor Field has been last to the Clivedens, the contest probably will be played on the Archives Field.

Germantown High is about the only eleven that has an outside chance for the title. The Clivedens have won two games and lost one, while the Pioneers, leaders of the circuit, have won the two league games played to date.

The Archives were mowed down quite easily by the Speedboys on Saturday and the Clivedens should hang up another win.

Two Hard Games

West Philadelphia High, Central High and Southern High vs. Frankford present the league entertainment Friday. Central won its first game of the season last Friday and looks much better with Edwards in the backfield. The Speedboys will have their hands full. Southern, since Goldblatt's absence, is weakened considerably and the Pioneers are going full speed.

The Catholic League battles for Friday afternoon are West Catholic High vs. St. Joseph, at Forty-fourth street and Parkside avenue, and Villanova Prep vs. Catholic High, at Cahill Field.

While mentioning the Catholic League we might add there are two teams who are found in the ranks of the organization that are the only undefeated elevens in the city. Catholic High and St. Joseph Prep, the deadlocked leaders of the league, have mowed over the opposition in outside games as well as league contests.

The Purple and Gold has been tied in two battles, but this does not detract from the record made by the team. Radnor and West Philadelphia High each managed to secure a deadlock.

Should these elevens keep their slates clean until Thanksgiving morning, when they are scheduled to meet the schoolboys of the city will have a treat before their turkey dinner.

Big Haverford Contest

Germantown Academy travels to Haverford Friday afternoon and closes the interacademic season. The Main Liners have an outside chance of tying for the league crown.

If Germantown Academy falls victims to Johnny Scott's eleven and Penn Charter is downed by St. Luke's in its final game the season in the league will end in a deadlock. There is a possibility that this may happen, but not a probability.

Penn Charter can clinch the title for the tenth consecutive year by winning from the Wayne aggregation.

The usual heavy Friday gridiron schedule is listed and many annual and sectional rivals will see action.

Saturday, Radnor and Lower Merion High, two of the strongest rivals on the Main Line, will battle at Radnor. It is alumni day at the latter school and this adds greater interest to the fray.

McNally a Star

Instructions between Jakes seemed to have done Catholic High a world of good Saturday afternoon. At the time the Purple and Gold was routing West Catholic High by the score of 6 to 0.

With grim determination written all over their faces they proceeded to knot the count and registered another touchdown, which proved to be the winning one before the third quarter ended.

McNally was the big star in the Catholic win. After playing raggedly in the opening half, the fleet back skirted the ends with Killinger-like speed in the second half and placed the pigskin in position for the score. He tallied once and on the other occasion threw a forward pass which was caught by McNally over the goal line.

Incidentally, in reference to the game, the largest crowd that has ever attended a school game on the city fields was present. Six thousand fans watched the game on Strawbridge & Clothier Field.

In the other local game the Speedboys, doing all their work in the first half, scored a 13-0 victory over the Archives. It was West Philadelphia's home game but was staged on the Northeast Field. A big crowd also was in attendance at this match.

Bergmann and Liggett stood out in the win. The former made a touchdown and a field goal, while Liggett showed some brilliant open-field running in making his score.

"SKEETERS" ON TOP IN EASTERN RACE

Jasper Basketball Five Breaks Into Winning Column by Dividing Week's Games

MEEHAN IS LEADING SCORER

By WILLIAM S. DALLAS

THE work of the Camden Skeeters in taking undisputed possession of first place was the feature of the week in the Eastern Basketball League. The leaders have another tough week ahead of them and they will have to be at their best to keep a clean slate.

Tonight they play at Coatesville, and the Lincoln Highway aggregation has won both games at home, defeating Atlantic City, 33-18, and Philadelphia, 33-21. Manager Behney's boys are a speedy lot on the floor at the rink, which is attested by the 66 points scored in the two games.

At home on Wednesday the league leaders draw another tough assignment with Trenton and for the first time this season the Armory will be filled with a capacity crowd. The Potters are a trifle peeved over the reverse on Friday and are out for revenge.

Jasper came to life during the week and broke even in the two games played. The Jewels are an unknown quantity and it is hard to say where they will finish. Some good players are on the payroll but there has been entirely too much shifting for any real results and the players have missed too many games.

The scoring records show "Streth" Meehan, the tall Trenton tapoff, to be in the front in point getting, with forty in four games, for an average of ten points per game. Dave Kerr and Tom Barlow are tied away for field goal honors, with twelve each. The Camdenites made but three this week, while Barlow caged four.

Players who have scored in every game played are White, Newman, Sugarman, Glasco, Ripley, Durleavy, Sedran, Brown, Friedman, Steele, Campbell, Dolin, Kerr, Dunn, Barlow, Swenson and Schwab. The individual records follow:

Sunday Soccerists Busy

Kenwood Catholic club scored the surprise of the season yesterday by traveling to Wissahickon Shore grounds at Ardmington and winning a sensational soccer game, goals to 0. Another surprise of the day was the victory of Ivy Athletic club over Morrell Mills, on the latter's field at Sixty-third street and Cedar avenue, 1 goal to 0. It was the first defeat of the season for Morrell Mills, which had run their string of straight wins up to eight.

All-Scholastic Grid Candidate

JOE BERGMAN

Joe Bergmann, fullback of West Philadelphia High, is starring this year for the Speedboys. He is the only member of the backfield that has played in every game.

Bergmann's two main assets are his line plunging and kicking. His punts are very seldom topped by the other kickers.

Bergmann is playing his last year of football. His showing to date warrants him a place on one of the all-mythical teams that will be picked at the end of the season.

ALL-PHILLIES TRIM MAGNOLIA ELEVEN

Fullback of Frankford Team Breaks Leg in Downtown Football Battle

MT. AIRY BEATS CLEARFIELD

The All-Phillies celebrated their return to the football field yesterday by handing the strong Magnolia team, of Frankford, a 6-to-3 setback at Thirty-third and Reed streets, in one of the best games seen downtown this year.

Play was marred by a mishap when Leo King, 4639 Milner street, Magnolia, had his left leg broken in the last ten seconds of play. He was removed to the Polyclinic Hospital. King was playing his first game for Magnolia.

The losers scored first, when Charles Matzak made a beautiful drop kick from the 40-yard line in the opening period. The winning touchdown came in the third period, when Stinger plunged 20 yards off tackle for the only score of the downtowners.

Stinger was a star throughout, and tore great holes in the Magnolia line. Vinnie Kelly proved a good field general, and his forward passing was all that could be desired.

Manager Brown, of Westinghouse, took his squad to Lancaster and vanquished the formidable All-Lancaster team, a team undefeated for five years and unscored upon for three. The score was 7 to 2.

With a line averaging 190 pounds and a backfield 175 pounds, composed mainly of former Franklin and Marshall College stars, Lancaster looked worthy of its record, but the "livewires" played them to a standstill in every department of the game and in the second half had the home boys on the defensive all the time.

The "livewires" looked every bit like champions and before the game was finished the Lancaster fans were rooting hard for the visitors, who had showed them some real football. Longer, Freeman, Bartolet, Place, Hewitt and Weber worked like trojans and their defensive play was of the highest caliber.

Mount Airy continued its successful march by humbling Clearfield A. A., 7 to 0. The fray, which was staged at Morris Field, Willow Grove avenue and Cheltenham road, Wynnewood, had the good spectators on the jump throughout the hour of play.

The winners had three chances to score as early as the first period. Each occasion the pigskin was carried to the 1-yard line and lost on downs. In the next quarter Mount Airy carried the ball as far as the 15-yard line, but this time the pass grounded over the goal line.

The score came in the third quarter. Mount Airy by consistent plunges sandwiched with several end runs went to the 15-yard line. Frank Heinrich grabbed the ball and shot around right end, and with splendid interference made the only touchdown of the game. He also kicked the placement goal for the seventh point.

Hobart journeyed to Pottsville and gave Clarence Beck's team its best game of the year. The West Philadelphia champions made eight first downs against the up-Staters and also crossed their goal line, which was thought impossible before the game began. Stan Cofall, Nemzie and Beck starred for Pottsville, while Bruder, "Pat" Miller and Eddie Glennon were the outstanding stars for Hobart. Jimmy Kelly, formerly of Villanova, hurt his arm and will be out until the Thanksgiving game with Victrix.

Clifton Heights scored one of the most decisive victories during Barry Morris' reign as Clifton Heights, 20 to 0. Rusty Wise was in the sidelines in the first half, which was productive of no scores, but he entered the game the Delaware County eleven began. Charlie Gaut scored two of the three touchdowns, the other going to Joe Walton.

Ten thousand spectators watched Coatesville and Chambersburg battle at Mahanoy City, and the former won a hard-fought battle, 6 to 0. Coatesville counted in the opening period, when they recovered a fumble on Shenandoah's 38-yard line, and, after working the ball to the 18-yard line, Lithgow circled the end for a touchdown. In the second quarter Joe Lellecha kicked a field goal from the 45-yard line, and attempted another from the 6-yard line almost as the game ended, but his kick was blocked.

The Tacony eleven, which has been idle for several weeks, made its reappearance, and handed Melrose, of Atlantic City, its second defeat of the season, score 8 to 7. A touchdown and safety in the third period provided the points for the winner. The Melrose score came in the last period.

With such stars as Lois Little, Lud Wray, Hugh Miller and Johnny Scott in the line-up, the Swedeland, Pa., team turned back Ardmore, 14 to 0. A tremendous crowd witnessed the game, which was played at Swedeland.

The Big Green team, of Riverside, had a fine chance for the championship battle with Bethlehem next Saturday by running up a 30-to-0 score on the Logan Redjackets. Against Oberlin, a responsible foe, three touchdowns and Riverside did not allow a single first down.

"BIG THREE" RIVALS BATTLE TO A TIE

Holmesburg and Conshohocken Score Seven Points Each in Hard-Fought Game

EASY WIN FOR FRANKFORD

The first football clash between teams of the "big three" in local grid circles came on Saturday, when Holmesburg invaded Conshohocken and held the Ironworkers to a 7-7 tie.

For a while it looked as if Walter Shisler's eleven was due to return to Philly with the scalps of Rob Crawford's warriors hanging to their belts, but the Conshy lads launched an aerial attack in the closing moments that tied the score.

The Holmesburg line was invincible and Conshy was held to a single first down. Howard Berry, former Penn star, and "Brainy" Bowers, the Dartmouth flash, made their first appearance in Holmesburg uniforms and starred.

The former had the best of a punting duel with "Lefty" Yarnall. Both teams were minus star players, Walter French being missing from the Conshy line-up, while Stan Cofall was the Holmesburg absentee.

Mt. Carmel Easy

The Frankford Yellowjackets entertained Mount Carmel on Brown's Field in a game witnessed by Mayor Moore and members of his cabinet. "Heinie" Miller and his crew of All-Americans had not the slightest difficulty in running up a total of 45 points on the up-Staters, who failed to score.

Johnny Scott was back in the line-up and scored the only points of the first period when he kicked a field goal from the 35-yard line and made the first touchdown in the second period. Heinie Miller also made a six-pointer on a sensational triple pass. Lud Wray registered a touchdown and Joe Lightner scored twice in the final period.

Mayor Moore spoke between the halves and told of the wonderful playing of the Yellowjackets and what they meant to Frankford. He boosted clean sports and lauded the work of all the players.

Norwood advanced a peg in the elimination series for the championship of Delaware County by scoring a 13-to-0 victory over the Derby Rams. All the points were made in the final quarter, Sweeney and Juliens making the touchdowns.

Virgil Johnson's Millville eleven maintained its winning streak by handing Gloucester a 31-to-0 trimming. Millville will hold a week of intensive practice in preparation for the game with Riverside on Saturday for the South Jersey title.

Welcome A. C. won another game, turning back the Frazier A. C., 18 to 0. The Scott brothers, Bazio and Steel were the stars for Welcome.

Owen S. Young's Wissahickon eleven celebrated Armistice Day with a community celebration and then turned around and hurdled the Wyoming Pirates, of Frankford, a 24-to-7 trimming.

FOLEY NOW LEADS SCHOOL SCORERS

Weeks and Carberry Tied for Runner-up Position — Carr Heads Academy Gridders

McKINNEY TOPS CATHOLICS

FOLEY, Southern High's fleet halfback, took the lead in the race for individual scoring honors in the Public High School League last week. His touchdown and the extra point after the score against Central High Friday brought his total to 23 points.

The Red and Black back broke the tie between Weekes, of Frankford High, and Carberry, of Germantown High, last Monday. As neither of these players participated in league games during the last seven days the deadlock continues for runner-up positions. Each has made nineteen points.

Germantown Academy has the leader in the Inter-Academic League. Carr, halfback, went wild in the Episcopal fray on Friday and registered five scores for his first points in league battles. Bendore, Haverford School, is second with 25 points and M. Smith, of Penn Charter, third with 20.

McKinney still tops the Catholic League scorers. The Catholic High back boosted his total one point by getting a placement goal after touchdown in Saturday's game with West Catholic High. There are three men in a tie for second position, all having 12 points. Osborne, St. Joseph Prep; Bierling, West Catrolic High, and McNally, Catholic High, are the players.

THE MOVIE FAN'S LETTERBOX

By HENRY M. NEELY

William Devine writes: "I saw Wallace Reid the other night in 'The Dictator,' and thought that it was not so very good (I mean the acting). Walter Long, I think, was splendid. His acting was wonderful. All the boys on our street want to go see Walter wherever he is playing. He did some good acting in 'South of Suva,' too. (Remember the time I reminded you that John Bowers played in that?)

"Now that brings us to the point where I will start criticizing John Bowers. Don't you think he is wonderful? I saw him with Lon Chaney in 'The Ace of Hearts.'

"Last night I saw Jackie Coogan in 'My Boy.' Although 'the Kid' can act, I don't think this picture fitted him. What think you?

"Excuse me for thinking you wrong about 'The Loves of Pharaoh.' I saw it at a local 'movie' last Monday, and anybody that says that Lubitsch 'is one of the worst' belongs out at Kirkbride's.

"About a month ago I saw 'Foolish Wives,' and enjoyed it very much. Some people around me don't understand it, and think it was a lot-a-bunk. Can you tell me Von S's next picture? Also John Bowers' and Walter Long's?"

("Shadows" for Walter Long's next, "Lorna Doone" for John Bowers' and "Merry Go Round" for Von S's——, though Erie doesn't act in it. He merely wrote it and directed the first part. I don't think Bowers is "wonderful," but he's all right. I'm inclined to agree with you on Jackie Coogan and I'm quite sure I agree with you that I ought to be out at Kirkbride's—and will be soon—because of that remark about Lubitsch. Only not for exactly the same reasons you give.)

Peggy Young writes: "Will you be so kind as to tell me what blond actress used to play with Alice Brady? Her right name is Frances Beaumont, but I want to know her screen name."

(I'm sureidunno. They don't all tell me their right names—not all of 'em. If anybody knows Frances Beaumont, we'd appreciate the information.)

E. Francis—Maurice Tourneur stopped directing for some time. Don't know why. Then he began making "Lorna Doone" about a year ago, finished that and then made "The Christian," which is just finished.

• • •

Betty—Claire Adams was the heroine of "When Romance Rides," so you win your bet.

Cap—Thanks for that information about the French-Canadian picture. Somebody else gave it to me and I printed it. Maybe that was one of the days you were out of town and didn't see the Letter Box. Yes: I appreciate it when people write on one side of the paper only.

F. N. H.: I'll have to give you the same advice I have given others: don't send scenarios to the studios. There's only one sensible way to handle them and that is to get in touch with a reliable manuscript agent and let him guide you in your work.

• • •

T. R.: A million apologies—if that's enough. I've just come across your letter of a month ago and wondered why I didn't print it then. It was very interesting, but now it's out of date. Write again, won't you?

S. A. E.—Sorry, but I couldn't possibly go into the picture-sending business. Write to Jackie Coogan, care of First National Pictures, 8 West Forty-eighth street, New York, inclose twenty-five cents and tell him the kind of picture you want and he'll probably send it.
