Near "Red" Says Mayor Prince and County Board Ignored Workingmen

To the Editor of The Labor World: I was one of your supporters in the last campaign for mayor, and I was glad to see the splendid run you made, although I was sorry you were not elected. My second choice for mayor was Mr. Kaplan, the Socialist candidate, and I also voted for the other Socialist candidates.

I am not a member of the Socialist party, but I am a firm believer in many of the things they advocate. I have never experienced the feeling of class consciousness, not yet at least. I do not know how it grasps a fellow, but I have a strange feeling of late that something is coming over me that dangerously approaches class consciousness.

When Mayor Prince announced the new civil service commission I failed to find the name of a single representative of the workingmen among his appointees. They are all real estate men, who toll not neither do they spin, and yet our dilettante mayor would have them prescribe the rules and regulations for city employes.

I had about forgotten those appointments when I read in the daily paper the other day of the names of the new city and county work farm board. Mayor Prince announced that he had appointed a bishop and a lawyer to represent the city, while the chairman of the county board appointed a real estate man, a mining engineer and a banker.

This new board will have charge of the new work farm upon which unfortunate and delinquent workingmen and workingwomen will be given a chance to "come back." Here again we find the working class completely ignored. Workingmen may have free soup, free beds, free work, free hospital and medical treatment, but they will have to break into jail to get them. Their wants are to be ministered by a board of men not one of whom is a producer. The blessings to the workingmen will be poured down upon them like sunshine from heaven.

Now I am a workingman, not a tradesman, but a common everyday working stiff, and I am getting sick and tired of this beneficent business, by which all things are dished out to the so-called charity. If Duluth workingmen were on the job as they should be they would see to it that Mayor Prince and the whole city commission, including the county board, respected the interests of the working people.

Why don't The Labor World tear loose at the new commission, when it sees the working people ignored. I did not support the new charter because I was afraid of an aristocratic government. It looks as though I was right, and you were wrong. Under the old ward system we at least were recognized to the extent of getting an occasional appointment on the boards that had something to do with the welfare of the working classes. Get out of your rut and start something. If I owned The Labor World I would make things hum.

Signed,
ALBERT SIMS.

PLUMBERS CHOOSE BENNETT DELEGATE

Will Represent Local Union In Boston Convention to Be Held Next Month.

John Bennett has been elected to represent the local Plumbers' union in the bi-annual convention of the United Association of Journeymen Plumbers, Gas and Steam Fitters, which will open in Boston, Monday, Aug. 18.

Mr. Bennett will leave Duluth in time to board a special train for plumbers and steam fitters to be made up in Chicago, which will carry all the western delegates to Boston.

The special train will be over the Lake Shore and Michigan railroad from Chicago direct, without any changing to Boston. The train will stop at important points in Indiana and Ohio.

Delegates from the far west to the Plumbers' convention have chartered special cars to carry them from San Francisco to Chicago. The convention will be in session two weeks.

Well Known Member of Painters' Union Returns After Three Months' Visit.

Gus Linnell of 2219 West Tenth street, a well known member of the Painters' union returned last week from a three months' visit in Sweden, the land of his birth. Mr. Linnell was accompanied by his son.

He attended the Painters' union Tuesday evening and gave an interesting account of labor conditions in Sweden. He says the strike of 1909 has greatly improved the labor situation. Men are employed at good wages and the union movement is in excellent condition.

UNION PAINTERS GO BACK TO THE FARM

Said to be Twenty-five Members of Union Owning Farms Near Duluth.

It is said that about 25 members of the local Painters' union have joined the "back to the farm" movement. Edward Andersen, the popular business agent of the union has 30 acres of land on the Rice Lake road, and every week finds him out there cultivating a crop, clearing land or putting up new buildings. He has 12 acres under cultivation.

Edward Burwick, another member of the union left this week for his farm at Brook Park, Wis., to work during the haying and blue berry seasons. Earnest H. Hammer, also a well known painter has a most productive piece of land in Wisconsin where he is now haying and otherwise looking after his crop.

Fred McGuire, the veteran union painter of Duluth, has a fine piece of land near Woodland. He works it after hours and during week ends. Other painters are doing likewise; each preparing for another day when work will not be so plentiful as it is now.

JENSEN IS WINNER; GOES TO ROCHESTER

Painters' Union Reconsiders Its Action and Will Send But One Delegate.

At last Tuesday evening's meeting, the Painters' union, on account of the expense involved, re-considered its action of two weeks ago, when it elected two members to act as delegates to the biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators to be held in Rochester in September.

At the former meeting, John E. Jensen and D. M. Robertson were elected. The members of the union were somewhat in doubt as to which of the two should be sent to the convention. Both of the delegates-elect very gracefully tendered their resignations and asked that a new vote be taken by the union. Jensen and Robertson were the only nominees. Mr. Jensen won out.

The members of the Duluth union voted to go to Superior, Thursday evening to attend in a body a meeting of the Superior Painters' union. The union approved of the death claim in behalf of Eiof Anderson, the late member of the union, who was drowned in St. Louis bay on July 5. Mrs. Anderson will be paid $500 by the International union.

FORMER DULUTH RED MAX HOLDER, MARTYR

Arrested in Minneapolis for "Obstructing" Streets in Free Speech Crusade.

Max Holder, a former Duluth waiter who managed the campaign for the Socialist party in the last city election, was permitted to choose between a $15 fine or 10 days in jail before a Minneapolis judge on Wednesday.

Five Socialists were found guilty of obstructing the streets. They were speaking in behalf of the street railway employes whom the I. W. W. are attempting to organize. The company officials, anxious to break up street meetings, induced the mayor to order the police to arrest all street speakers.

In the first crusade Alderman C. I. Johnson, the Socialist member of the city council from the Tenth ward in Minneapolis was arrested. Five others were taken also. They were Max Holder, Abe Sugarman, J. F. Emme and O. F. Webber.

Alderman Johnson was given his choice of a $25 fine or 30 days in jail; Holder and Sugarman were each fined $1 for 10 days in jail as was also J. F. Emme. O. F. Webber did not appear and action on his case was postponed. The Socialists will appeal to a higher court and a stay of execution was granted.
