HORSE BUYERS, ATTENTION.

Our next big horse auction sale takes place Wednesday, March 5, 1902, without fail, commencing at 10 o'clock sharp. Come early. Our auction sales are now an established success, and are recognized throughout the entire northwest as one of the most successful events which ever took place in this part of the country, a distinction we are justly proud of; and to make each sale a better and a bigger showing for our buyers is our motto. This sale will be a corker. Look at the prominent shippers who will be on hand with from one to five loads each: Mr. L. A. Legg, St. Paul, drivers and trotters; Joe Jonas, Minneapolis, farm mares and chunks; Cal Miller, Perry, Iowa, three loads general purpose horses; Lee Fleener, Hedrick, Iowa, farm mares; Charles Betts, Stewart, Neb., two car-loads mules; Ben Betts, Lincoln, Neb., farm mares and horses; A. Gegenmeier, Olevine, Iowa, mixed load; W. H. DeLancey, Northfield, delivery and general purpose horses; and many other shippers will be on hand with the best assortment of horses and mules ever seen in this market. You can't afford to miss this big sale. All men are treated alike here. Come and buy what you want at your own prices. Remember day and date—March 5. Every horse warranted as represented. Private sales daily.
