AN INFERNAL ASSYRIAN

Solomon Skoff Steals a Girl in Chicago and Is Captured in Toronto.

New York Sun Special Service.

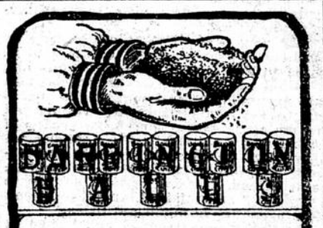
Chicago, Jan. 7.—Solomon Skoff, an Assyrian, 40 years old, who deserted his wife and children a year ago, and who is wanted by the police of several cities in the United States on charges of abducting young girls, was arrested to-day in London, Ont., with 14-year-old Nellie Ashford, whom he took with him from Chicago. The girl was stolen from her home, 85 West Polk street, Dec. 29, placed in a cab and driven to a railroad station, where her captor took a train.

A few days before abducting Nellie Ashford, the Assyrian, the police say, attempted to force the girl to marry him. When she refused, he pointed a revolver at her head and threatened to take her life. The child dashed the weapon aside and screamed for help. Her mother came to her assistance and Skoff was driven from the home. He was not to be daunted in his purpose, however, and, renting a room a few doors away, waited his opportunity to steal the girl.

A DEMOCRAT IN RHODE ISLAND.

Providence, R. I., Jan. 7.—Dr. L. F. C. Garvin, the first democratic governor the state has had since 1891, was inaugurated with military pomp and ceremony yesterday. There was the biggest crowd of democrats at the statehouse to witness the ceremonies that has ever gathered in the building. Dr. Garvin in his address to the legislature, as was expected, recommended some drastic legislation, not the least of which was a suggestion that the legislature compel street railroad companies to reduce fares to 3 cents.

That tired, languid feeling and dull headache is very disagreeable. Take two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring, and you will find relief. They never fail to do good.



A handful of coffee chaff is removed from every 2 lb. canister of the new steel cut coffee—

Barrington Hall

This chaff remains in coffees ground in the ordinary way. As shown by chemical analysis, chaff contains none of the valuable properties of coffee, but the astringent principle, tannin (whose common use is to convert hides into leather). Its removal from coffee produces a drink so pure and healthful as to be used by the most delicate without inconvenience.

A MIDWAY WEDDING

Miss Mabel Cowles and Franklin Menefee Are Married at Merriam Park.

Reception Follows Ceremony—Mr. and Mrs. Menefee Will Make Their Home in Oregon.

The Marriage of Miss Mabel Cowles and Franklin Menefee of The Dalles, Oregon, was prettily solemnized last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford S. Cowles, on Carroll street, Merriam Park. Asparagus fern and smilax furnished a background for the bridal party and white roses and carnations were placed through the room. The same colors were carried out in all the rooms and the supper room had table decorations of roses and smilax. Mrs. Harry Crandall played the Lohengrin bridal chorus and Mrs. Hartigan sang "Oh, Promise Me" just before the service. Misses Louise Bugbee and Marion Seward were bbridesmaids and wore pink crepe de chine trimmed with lace and carried pink roses. Mrs. H. B. Humason was her sister's matron of honor. She wore her wedding gown of white Paris muslin fashioned with medallions of lace and ribbon and carried Carnot roses. The bride's gown was of cream peau de siene over taffeta. The bodice had a bertha of real lace and ropes of pearls and embroidered chiffon were also used in the trimming. Her only ornament was a pearl and diamond brooch, the gift of the bridegroom, and the bridal roses and lilies of the valley. Harry Humason was best man and the service was read by Rev. G. H. Tenbroeck in the presence of 150 guests. A reception followed and Mr. and Mrs. Cowles and Mrs. Canfield, the bride's grandmother, received with the bridal couple. Mrs. Cowles wore cerise silk, trimmed with black lace, and diamond ornaments. Mrs. Canfield was in lavender velour with black lace. Mr. and Mrs. Menefee left for the east and they will be at home at The Dalles, Oregon, Tuesdays in March.

The Neighborhood Dancing club had a jolly cotillion last evening in Mrs. Noble's hall on Fourteenth avenue SE. About thirty-six couples were present. The hall was lighted with Japanese lanterns and a green screen was covered with flowers to be used as favors in one figure. The other favors were on tables arranged beneath a great Japanese umbrella with the gay lanterns hanging from it. Most of the women wore white and decorated their gowns with the glittering trimmings of a Christmas tree. An amusing figure was one in which the women in dainty white aprons and caps hung handkerchiefs on the line held by four of the men while the orchestra played "The Irish Washerwoman." The handkerchiefs were all marked and the men found partners by taking them down. Then the men hung miniature socks marked with their names on the line. The favors were small washing utensils. Supepr was served after the dancing. The guests were: Messrs. and Mmes. E. J. Blanchard, Robert Penney, Erdman, E. J. Scriver, Fournie, Hendry, B. H. Kent, A. A. Wyman, J. W. Chambers, J. B. Willett, R. F. Porter, H. C. Smith, A. K. Roehl, B. H. Timberlake, C. H. Kittridge, J. E. Klassey, W. R. Hoag, Bevell, W. H. Nichol, Leavitt, W. H. Sherwin, Harry Barnard, E. W. Baker, R. J. The Epiphany party of St. Mark's parish was given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Christian on Eighth street S. Mr. Hardenberg drew the ring last year and would have been host but on account of illness in the family, Mr. and Mrs. Christian took the pleasant duty of entertaining the church officers at its annual gathering. Great bowls of red tulips were placed on the mantels and tables and the same flowers formed the centerpiece in the dining-room, where the table was lighted with red and green tapers in tall chandalabra. An informal program of musical numbers from the pianola was one of the divisions and the finding of the ring in the Epiphany cake furnished considerable amusement. It was drawn by Hector Baxter, who will be host next year. The guests of the evening were Rev. and Mrs. T. W. MacLean, Messrs. and Mmes. C. M. Harrington, George Higgins, V. H. Van Slyke, Hector Baxter, Clarence H. Child, E. A. Kemp, Henry E. Bacon, Howard S. Abbott, A. H. Linton and T. S. Outram.

Rev and Mrs. Stuart B. Purvis entertained the wardens, vestrymen and officers of Holy Trinity church last evening at an Epiphany party. The guests of honor were Bishop and Mrs. Edsall, Mesdames Hall, Potts and Bingham. The ring in the Epiphany cake was found by J. Garbett, senior warden, who will be host at a similar party next year.

About 140 couples attended the dancing party in Masonic Temple last evening, which was given by the Royal Arcanum entertainment association. Palms and ferns banked the stage and were arranged through the hall. Latourelle's orchestra played and C. A. Dannenbaum was master of ceremonies. He was assited by J. R. Chute, J. H. Runge, John Potts, W. J. Mycue, H. W. Reiter, Charles Huhn, Roy Cole, Frank Biglow, T. C. Thompson, H. W. Whitter, W. A. Ryberg.

Revised Version Stories.

The story of Adam and Eve often comes up in discussion at club conventions. At a Philadelphia convention one bright woman said: "I like that story. Some tell it to prove woman's inferiority to man, but to me it shows woman's superior generosity. Adam would have taken that apple and have gone away and eaten it by himself, but Eve, true to her womanly instinct, shared that which she believed to be desirable with her companion."

At the Loisville biennial a child's version of the creation, as expressed in a small girl's composition, was quoted as follows: "Man was made before woman. When God looked at Adam he said to himself, 'I think I can do better if I try again,' and then he made Eve. God liked Eve so much better than Adam that he has made more women than men ever since."

Order of the Amaranth.

Mistletoe Court, No. 1, Order of the Amaranth, will hold its regular meeting in Masonic Temple to-morrow evening. At 8 o'clock there will be initiation of candidates and after the degrees the installation of the following officers will take place: Mrs. Alice Y. Bordwell, royal matron; Sir Knight Tuttle, royal patron; Mrs. Mary Tuttle, associate matron; Mrs. Annie M. Keller, secretary; Mrs. Anna Chadwick, treasurer; Miss Susie Hall, herald; Mrs. Landgraff, conductress; Mrs. Elizabeth Yould, associate conductress; Mrs. Margaret Weston, Truth; Mrs. Nettie Merriam, Faith; Mrs. Alice Munson, Wisdom; Mrs. Imogene Wilson, Charity; Miss Edna Langtry, organist; Mrs. Mary T. Earhuff, warder; Mrs. Martha Emery, sentinel. The royal patron of the court, Sir Knight Willson, will officiate as installing officer.

Ladies' Thursday Musicale.

An interesting program will be given at the meeting of the Ladies' Thursday Musicale in the Unitarian church to-morrow morning, when Miss Abell will give a talk on "Three Centuries of Operatic Composers and Their Works." The lecture will be illustrated by members of the musicale and the program will be something different from the regular meetings of the club. Miss Abell has had a personal acquaintance with many of the composers and leaders, and her talk is sure to be delightful. The public will be admitted on payment of a small sum.

Prevented Child Labor System.

At the state meeting of the King's Daughters of Louisiana the society offered to the board of managers of the home for incurables $2,000 as a nucleus for a children's annex to their buildings. They opposed the employment of child labor in the mills of the city, a subject which was later taken up by the Era club and the New Orleans Educational association, and the result is that child labor has been crushed in its incipiency by these combined forces.

Conference of Unions.

The Conference of Unions was held yesterday afternoon in the Friends' church on First avenue S. Mrs. H. M. Powell gave a report of the annual convention. Miss Morgan furnished piano numbers and Mrs. W. H. Cook recited. There was a large attendance from the local unions and it was decided to ask Miss Anna Robbins to come to the city in February and tell of her experiences as an army nurse in Manila.
