AND TOWN PROPERTY FOR SALE

AT

RUGBY, N. D.

A STORE BUILDING, made of natural stone and very substantial, with other frame buildings, which brings a good monthly rent, together with a $3,000 stock of merchandise, and situated on Main street in a good locality. A promising business for the right man.

A BLACKSMITH SHOP with tools and the good will of the owner. An excellent chance in a live town.

A LOT 20x112 feet, adjoining the Odd Fellow hall; good place for a bank, millinery or any kind of a small business. Price reasonable if bought soon.

SEVERAL RESIDENCES in different parts the city are on my sale book; do not fail to see them if you come to Rugby.

I HAVE the only prominent corner location left unsold in Rugby, consisting of two lots, being 50 feet front and 140 feet to the rear, and situated two blocks from the Great Northern depot, opposite the Odd Fellows' hall and the county courthouse. Location well adapted for a first-class hotel, a bank or opera house site (either could do a good business in our town). I own personally several business and residence lots and I am the local agent for Comstock & White, original townsite owners, and can suit you in choice of business as well as residence lots. Exchange of business and correspondence solicited with real estate firms. For further particulars, descriptions and prices call on or address

Journal Printing Co., Minneapolis, Minn:

Gentlemen: We have found the advertising columns of The Journal most satisfactory and do not see that we could more highly testify to this than by the fact that we have from the beginning continued almost without cessation in your columns. You seem to reach a very large territory throughout this northwest, judging from inquiries that come to us. We are more than pleased.

Very truly yours,
—General Typewriter Exchange.
