HOT DAYS AT COMMENCEMENT

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES IN MINNESOTA ARE CLOSING DOWN.

The Sioux Outbreak Given in Dramatic Form at Montevideo—High School and College Students Will Now Be Given an Opportunity to Rest and Think.

Specials to The Journal.

St. Peter, Minn., June 5.—Commencement exercises of the St. Peter high school were held in the college auditorium Saturday evening, and were witnessed by a crowd of 800 persons. Seventeen students received their diplomas and the speaker of the evening was T. R. Kane of St. Paul. Miss Gracia Loehl delivered the salutatory and Miss Margaret Smith the valedictory. Two numbers were given by the commencement chorus and the Misses Ransom, Schleuder and Klitzke, Mrs. Strathern, and Messrs. Wasson, Cox, Schleuder and Lansing sang "A Rose in Heaven."

Professor V. R. Wasson, superintendent of the local schools, left for New York this morning and will make a tour of Europe during the summer.

Montevideo, Minn.,—The high school commencement exercises were held in the opera hall, and over a thousand persons were present. The exercises were unique from the fact that the members of the graduating class have cast into dramatic form incidents of the Sioux outbreak of 1862, and rendered this as their commencement program. The location of Camp Release, about three miles from the city, added local interest to the presentation. Superintendent S. A. Callman has been reelected for the fifth year at an increase in salary.

Fergus Falls, Minn.—Commencement week at the Northwestern college opened Sunday, the baccalaureate sermon being delivered by Rev. J. Moody of Eagle Lake. The commencement exercises proper will be held on Thursday evening, and the address of the occasion will be delivered by Dr. P. A. Mattson, president of Gustavus Adolphus college of St. Peter. The following are the graduates: Hilma Johnson, Anton Ward, J. A. Anderson, W. E. Erickson, R. W. Danielson, Karl Hoorn, V. E. Johnson, J. B. Lindstrom, Ellen Nelson, Richard Nelson, Clara Ryden, Oscar Steele, Victor Sundberg and Emma Olson.

Dodge Center, Minn.—The commencement sermon of the public school graduating class was given in the opera house by Rev. W. C. Daland, president of Milton college, Milton, Wis. This evening graduating exercises will be held in the opera house.

Pelican Rapids, Minn.—The annual commencement of the high school and eighth grade occurred on Friday evening. Three received diplomas from the high school and sixteen from the eighth grade. The commencement address was delivered by Dr. P. M. Magnuson of the St. Cloud Normal.

Ada, Minn.—The following graduated from the high school June 2: Alfred Betcher, Marguerite Allen, William J. Neukom, Alta E. Patterson, Wallace Pearson, Harriet Hetland, West A. Rolfe, Melissa Holden.

Pierre, S. D.—The commencement exercises of the Pierre high school were held in the hall of the house of representatives, and a large crowd was out to attend the ceremonies which marked the close of the school year. A class of twelve graduated.

Huron, S. D.—High-school commencement exercises took place Friday evening and were listened to by a very large audience. The class numbered seventeen—seven ladies and ten gentlemen.

Faulkton, S. D.—The third commencement exercises were held at the operahouse. The play "Home Folks" was presented by the class to a packed house.

Cumberland, Wis.—A class of eight graduated from the Cumberland high school. The class gave as the class play the comedy-drama, "Mr. Bob."

Two Harbors, Minn.—The fourth annual commencement exercises of the Two Harbors high school will be held at Norden hall Tuesday evening, June 6, at which nine will be graduated. The baccalaureate sermon was preached by Rev. J. A. McGaughey at the Swedish Lutheran church.

Cannon Falls, Minn.—The high-school graduation occurs June 6 at the Swedish Lutheran church. Sunday Rev. J. L. Keene gave the sermon. Wednesday is alumni reception day.

WELLS, MINN.—The first annual 8th grade commencement exercises took place in the assemblyroom of the high school Friday evening, May 26. Saturday evening, May 27, the juniors gave their annual banquet to the seniors. Yesterday Rev. Paul Faude preached the baccalaureate sermon at the M. E. church. This evening the graduating exercises will be held at the opera house. Dr. John R. Clarke will lecture on "Hits and Misses." The following class graduate: Salutatorian, Joseph I. Ensrud; valedictorian, Oscar Anderson; Carl L. Altenburg, lizabeth M. Bieri, Birdie A. Garlock, M. Blanche Loomis, Ada B. Maricle, and Cleo Blanche Whitney.

THE 1906 SANGERFEST

To Be Held in La Crosse July 6, 7 and 8, in 1906.

Special to The Journal.

La Crosse, Wis., June 5.—La Crosse has been decided upon as the place for holding the 1906 sangerfest of the Northwestern Scandinavian Singers' association and the dates set are July 6, 7 and 8, 1906. Six hundred singers will come to La Crosse, with probably 10,000 Scandinavian visitors. The selection of La Crosse was made at the meeting of the delegates from the several singing societies belonging to the association held in this city Saturday evening.

The Northwestern Scandinavian Singers' association was organized about fifteen years ago at a gathering of singing societies held at Sioux Falls. About twenty societies scattered thru the states of Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin are affiliated with the association, but it is hoped that the number will be greatly increased in the next year.

The last sangerfest, held in 1904, at Grand Forks, was a great success and La Crosse will endeavor to duplicate it. A special effort will be made to induce the Norwegian and Danish singing societies of Chicago, which are not members to the association, to participate in the La Crosse fest.

CANNON MANNERS JAR ON PORTLAND

Speaker Crosses Continent to Be Taught Etiquette as Observed in Oregon.

New York Sun Special Service.

Portland, Ore., June 5.—Uncle Joe Cannon came all the way from the house of representatives to be taught etiquette in Portland. Mrs. H. W. Goode, wife of the president of the corporation, let him know that to dip three fingers in a glass on the speaker's table might be proper in Washington or New York, but it was quite impossible in Portland.

It was warm Thursday, the opening day. Uncle Joe was perspiring freely, when, in the procession headed by Vice President Fairbanks, he entered the large speaker's stand.

Before seating himself, the aged speaker of the national house of representatives marched to the front, where, in full view of many thousands of people, he dropped his hat on the table, poured out half a glass of ice water into his hand and carefully swabbed his head. When he was thru he sat down, and Mrs. Goode proceeded to work up a case of society nerves.

Presently, while the party was still waiting for the president to touch the golden key back in Washington, Uncle Joe felt warm again. He went to the table and repeated the performance, but this time he saw a scrap of ice at the bottom of the glass. His long fingers dived after the ice and in a moment those in front smiled to see him briskly rubbing his head and neck with it. They smiled again when they saw him wipe off the ice and drop it into his mouth as if nothing had happened.

Mrs. Goode could not stand the sight another instant. She called Theodore Harde, assistant to the exposition president. The young man hastened to Speaker Cannon and informed him the glass had been intended to drink from, and that wash basins could be found elsewhere.

The speaker of the house gasped and then escorted the young man to the rear of the stand. Uncle Joe's arms sawed the air and those in the back seats say his language was firm, forceful and warm, tearing etiquette to shreds. Only by intervention of high officials and apologies was he induced to deliver his address.

Mrs. Brodie L. Duke made this declaration of war today against the tobacco trust and announced that she had the backing of the entire state of Texas and the Southern Pacific railroad. She says she will remain here until she has put the trust out of commission.
