ROOT-RUSSELL GO WAS VICIOUS

Chicago Man Given the Decision After Ten Rounds of Slugging.

Journal Special Service.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Feb. 27.—In a ten-round go here last night between Jack Root of Chicago and Fred Russell of Denver at catch-weights, Root was given the decision. Russell was not pleased with the decision and started to mix it with Root after the contest was over, but the referee and seconds stepped between the fighters.

In the tenth round both seemed determined to land a victory. Root got a number of blows to the face and body, but Russell exchanged with him every time, frequently landing two blows for one. Russell ran into Root with a series of blows and drove him to the ropes. Root rallied and fought fiercely at the end. The decision was not popular with a large part of the spectators.

In the preliminaries Tommy Shea met Ben Deerbe, both of Chicago, six rounds at 125 pounds. Deerbe's seconds threw up the sponge in the sixth.

Round 1—Root landed right on Russell's face. Russell led awkwardly, but failed to land. Root jabbed left to stomach and they went to a clinch. Russell reached chin and then put left to stomach and blocked right lead to jaw. They went into a series of clinches and Root tilted Russell's head with a left jab. Russell blocked left lead, but Root landed right to jaw and then two rights to nose. Root staggered Russell with left to jaw as bell rang. Root showed by far greater cleverness, altho Russell's long reach gave him some advantage.

Round 2—Root jabbed twice to nose and received right to stomach in return. Russell forced Root to the ropes, but failed to land. Root swung a left to the stomach and took a left to the face in return. Root planted left on jaw. Russell put stiff left to jaw and rushed Jack to the ropes. Root missed and they clinched. Root had a shade the better on points.

Round 4—Russell sent Root back several feet with hard left to jaw and repeated. They clinched. Russell tried hard for knockout. He led left and right to stomach and jaw, nearly knocking Root out. He rushed Root to ropes, where they clinched. They went to clinch after clinch. Russell landed left to face and right to jaw and Root drew blood from Russell's face. They fell to floor wrestling. Russell's round.

Round 5—Root ducked several vicious leads and they clinched repeatedly. Russell seemed tired and held in clinches. Referee Coffey had to part them. Root swung right to jaw and Russell put left to Root's face.

Mixing It Up.

Round 6—Russell came up spitting blood, but Root seemed fresh. Root staggered Russell with left to chin, Russell's feet leaving the floor. Russell held Root's gloves and seemed loath to break. Root staggered Russell with left to chin and landed left and right, receiving left to face in return. Root's round.

Round 7—They rushed into clinch after clinch. Crowd yelled "fight." Root landed half a dozen face and stomach blows. Then Russell rushed him across ring and swung right to breast. A wallop to the stomach put Russell on the ropes for count of seven. Root tried to land finishing punch. He opened bad cut over Russell's eye. Russell pushed Root out of ring and fell on him. Blood rushed from Russell's mouth as he went to his corner.

Round 8—Root closed Russell's left eye. They roughed the round and Russell's seconds worked hard to freshen him.

Round 9—Russell rushed Root to ropes, but could not land. Root landed hard right to stomach. Russell straightened Root up with left to head. Root crossed right on jaw. Russell rushed Root to ropes. Crowd yelled for Russell, who seemed to be in bad shape.

Round 10—They shook hands and immediately went to a clinch. They wrestled around ring. Root put two lefts to face and took left chop to jaw in exchange. They exchanged right swings to the body and Root planted hard right on ear.

HART THROWS FISH AT THE REFEREE

Journal Special Service.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 27.—Marvin Hart, who lost the heavyweight championship to Tommy Burns, in a telegram to this city says that he is on his way east, accompanied by Dave Berry and Jack Curley. No mention is made of Tommy Ryan, his trainer.

Hart says: "I am not thru. My record entitles me to matches. I want Burns. If I fail to stop him in twenty rounds I do not want a cent, but I do insist on a referee who will give me a square deal and make Burns fight fair. In our sixty minutes milling he hugged me forty minutes of the time, butted me with his head, gouged me in the eye with his gloved thumb and refused to stand up and fight. Tho we boxed straight Queensbury rules, Referee Eyton threatened to disqualify me if I hit in the clinches.

"I shall continue to fight, meeting all comers and convince the public I can fight. I was not doped. I do not charge anybody with being dishonest, but Referee Eyton is not competent or consistent."

HAWKEYES HOPEFUL

Think They See a Ray of Light in Athletic Line.

Journal Special Service.

Iowa City, Iowa, Feb. 27.—Athletic prospects at Iowa are brightening. The dual record-breaking at the first indoor meet of the year encouraged Captain Catlin more than anything else that has happened since he came to Iowa. In cutting down the mile run to 4:40 3-5, Brainerd made himself a formidable opponent for all rivals in the state meet and Remley duplicated that feat by chopping the two-mile run record to 10:14 4-5.

The refusal of the nine baseball experts to sign the eligibility contracts seemed to mean the wrecking of the hawkeye baseball hopes, but more than thirty-five candidates are now working hard for places on a nine and the outlook is anything but poor, according to Coach Chalmers and Trainer Catlin.

PENN DROPS FOOTBALL.

Iowa City, Iowa, Feb. 27.—Penn college of Oskaloosa is the second school in the state to abolish football, but the action of the joint committee of that institution, which has had the matter under consideration, has tied a provision to the decision. In the place of football, Penn college is to try the association game for a period of one year.

At the end of that time, if the innovation has not proved satisfactory, the rugby game will be reinstated.

READY FOR THE GONG.

San Francisco, Feb. 27.—Both Neil and Tenny have let up in their work, and from now on will do only light exercise until it is time to get into the ring tomorrow night to fight for the bantam championship.

MILLERS TO OPEN WITH HOOSIERS

American Association Schedule Makers Have Framework of the Dates.

Special to The Journal.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 27.—Despite the fact that most of the baseball leagues in the country have completed their schedules for the coming season, the American association magnates are still without one, altho during the past week or two there has been considerable work done in regard to preparing one that will meet the approval of both factions in the association. The magnates say there is plenty of time yet to get out a schedule; that some of them have been apprehensive regarding the Sunday baseball situation in Ohio and want a delay for that reason, but the truth of the matter is they have been working on one, or at least three or four schedules, and will soon endeavor to get together and adopt one for 1906.

Must Get to Business.

There has been some friction in arranging a schedule despite the fact that the two factions do not get any too close to one another, but both sides are beginning to realize that they must act on the level if they want to do business and cut out all these little petty jealousies. The political game does not go well in baseball playing time. The plan now is to have the teams open the season on April 18 with Minneapolis at Indianapolis, St. Paul at Louisville, Kansas City at Toledo and Milwaukee at Columbus. A schedule has been prepared with that arrangement of dates for the opening, but of course it is liable to change. The reason for changing Milwaukee from Indianapolis to Columbus for the opening game this season is that the brewers and senators were the two fighting clubs for the pennant at the close of last season, and they would be a great attraction for the Ohio city for the opening this season.

Superstitious Managers.

It was intended to have the opening on April 20, but some of the managers were superstitious and refused to open with their teams on a Friday. Therefore Wednesday was suggested. With the opening as outlined above it would bring the western clubs home the early part of May, about the 3d of the month, while Milwaukee would open at home about May 11, Kansas City being three days later.

The plan is to have the western and eastern teams play home and home games on Decoration day. The eastern clubs would make a tour of the west and have May 29 for an open date, and get back in time to play two games Decoration day with Minneapolis and St. Paul alternating in the morning and afternoon at the twin cities; Milwaukee at Kansas City, Columbus at Toledo and Louisville at Indianapolis.

Holiday Dates.

Then will come another shifting of the teams, the western clubs going east till about June 23, when they will return and prepare for the Fourth of July. The intention is to have home and home games again with St. Paul and Minneapolis alternating, Kansas City at Milwaukee, Toledo at Columbus and Indianapolis at Louisville. The same plan will be followed on Labor day, with Milwaukee at Kansas City, St. Paul at Minneapolis, Columbus at Toledo and Louisville at Indianapolis.

The Sunday games will be distributed as in the past, as there is no doubt that Sunday ball will be permitted in Ohio. Under the new arrangements the mileage will be shorter for most of the clubs.

HUMBOLDT ALUMNI WON

Defeated the Ashmores in a Fast Game at Ascension Hall.

The Humboldt high-school alumni defeated the Ashmores in a game of basketball at Ascension hall by a score of 30 to 8. Altho the score was large, it was no walkaway. The Ashmores were as pigmies beside the great height and strength of the Humboldt alumni. The feature of the game was the basket-throwing of Oliver and the team work of the Ashmores, who showed their larger opponents up on several occasions. The line-up:

Humboldts—		Ashmores—
Miller	right forward	Lade
Hall (capt.)	center	Dewanz
Brown	left guard	Manning
Case	right guard	Allen

Potts is doing road work in his training and expects to have but little trouble in getting down to the weight limit.

BEAT UNITYS AGAIN

For the second time this season the Unity basketball team fell before the excellent team work of the Young Ascensions last night, losing a well-played game by the score of 17 to 16. J. Barry's fast work toward the close cinched the game for the Ascensions. He had succeeded O'Keefe, who retired when injured, and pitched two baskets in rapid succession. The winners challenge any 15-year-old team. For games telephone to Tom Mullin, Main 1881 J1.

NORMALS ARE WINNERS.

River Falls, Feb. 27.—In the roughest game played on Normal floor this season, the River Falls normals last night defeated Baldwin high at basket ball, by a score of 42 to 28. Normal excelled in team work, while Baldwin was especially strong at free throws. Both teams fouled repeatedly, Baldwin being the chief gainer because of greater accuracy at basket throwing.

TOM McCREERY QUITS GAME.

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 27.—Information brought to Columbus by a fellow player says that Tom McCreery of the hoosiers will cut out baseball and keep his position with a sheet and tin plate concern at Pittsburg.

Journal Special Service.

London, Feb. 27.—James Casey met Moir, an artillery gunner at the National Sporting club last night in a fifteen-round match for £250 at catch weights. Casey was much taller, being very clever, but Moir soon showed he was more agile. At the end of the fourth round he seemed to be the winner, but the American would not be beaten and continued for another four rounds, when he was so badly punished that the referee awarded the victory to Moir.

DARIEL COMING TO MINNEAPOLIS

Champion Pacing Mare Will Be Bred to Dan Patch.

Special to The Journal.

Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 27.—The announcement that Charles T. Chapin, owner of Dariel, the champion pacing mare of the world, will soon ship that crack little pacer to M. W. Savage's stud at Minneapolis is interesting horsemen thruout the country. Dariel will be bred to Dan Patch, the champion pacer of the world, and both owners expect that a record-breaking get will be produced.

It is Mr. Chapin's intention to ship his mare to the west in the middle of next month, as Mr. Savage has everything in readiness to receive her. Horsemen will await with interest the product of these two wonderful animals.

Dariel's mark of 2:00¼, made at Memphis, is the most remarkable ever made by a pacing mare. This figure was tacked up with a runner in front and a dust shield. At Providence, a few months later, Dariel going against time, in an exhibition mile with a dust shield and a pacemaker at her side, completed the circle in 2:02¾, which is another world's record.

APEX AND HENLEYS TOOK THE HONORS

The indoor league games last night resulted in victories for the Apex and Henley teams. The Apex-Holtzermann game was well contested and was not decided until the last inning, when Gibson brought in the winning tally.

The Henley-Company B game was a slugging match and was very onesided. "Peaches" Graham hit the ball hard and the winners played a good game in the field.

There will be two games this evening, the Palace team meets the Tonys at the Casino at 7:15 p.m., and the Lunds play the Holtzermanns at Monitor hall at 8:15 p.m. The scores of last night's games:

BAPTISTE WINS AGAIN

North Dakota Skater Distances Sinnirud on Long Course.

Norval Baptiste, the North Dakota skater, who took three victories from Peter Sinnirud Sunday, again demonstrated his wonderful skating speed in St. Paul last night, beating Sinnirud in three races on the long course of the downtown rink. Sunday the short course was used and Sinnirud's backers declared that their man worked at a disadvantage for the reason that he had not come equipped with the proper skates for short course work. Last night, with suitable skates, he trailed in all of three fast races.

The time was as follows: Half mile, 1:15 1-5; mile, 2:40½; half mile, 1:22.
