RICHMOND AGAIN DOWNS RALEIGH BY GOOD SCORE

Tarheels Drop Third Game in Row to Locals, Who Hit Ball Consistently.

LOCALS WIN TWELVE STRAIGHT

Winning Streak Still Is Unbroken. Ints Go to Petersburg To-Day for Clash With Goobers—Will Play Nutts Here Friday and Saturday.

Good, clean hitting gave Richmond a decisive win over the Raleigh club of the Carolina League yesterday in the final game of the series. The final count was 12 to 2. It made the twelfth straight victory for the Billsmiths.

Two pitchers, Munoz and Hook, were worked by Bennie Busch, but both were equally ineffective. Ross was on the mound for Richmond, and he held the visitors well in hand at all stages of the game. Only six hits were made off him in nine innings.

The game was featured by the clean, consistent hitting of the Richmond team. The hits, too, added sharply, and some pretty stops were made. By getting four runs in the opening frame, the game was practically sewed up, and each time at bat was utilized for practice. Even the squeeze play was executed, and so satisfactorily that not only one run, but two would have resulted had Marty Nye not turned his legs to avoid spiking Howe, who blocked his path to the plate. Marty started to slide, but by a quick turn saved the Raleigh catcher from a nasty wound through his own carelessness or folly.

Fourteen safe hits were made by the local swatters. Tim Hendryx was in the limelight with four safe ones in five official trips to the bat. He managed to keep the ball out of the air, and his hitting leads the fans to believe that he is regaining his old skill with the willow. Angels Arragon is another who came into his own. Angels, who the previous day had failed in times in a row with men on bases, came through with a triple with the stations thickly populated. He also secured another hit. Al Burch, playing in left field, did not have much work in the garden, but he hit safely twice in four legal trips.

Kircher, who is scheduled to fill the utility role, was seen behind the plate yesterday. In his Virginia League days, Kircher caught for Norfolk. Last season in the Southern Association he alternated in the infield and outfield, so it will be seen that he is a versatile player, in addition to his fun-making proclivities on the sidelines. Kircher is still very sore, as he was helmsman on a jitney bus all winter and consequently has not had much opportunity to get his muscles ready for his arduous duties as official clown.

To-day the hits play in Petersburg, playing the first of a three-game series with Goobers. To-morrow and Saturday the Goobers will perform at Broad Street Park. Gleason is due to pitch the game to-day, as he has not worked for more than a week.

RICHMOND SNATCH LEAD IN FIRST AND HELD IT

Munoz and Ross were the opposing slabbists in the final game of the series. George Kircher was on the receiving end of the Richmond battery.

Russell opened the game for Raleigh by slamming out a single to center. Williams struck out trying to bunt the ball. Russell swiped second. Talley grounded to Arragon, and Roberts lifted up a Texas leaguer, which Angels gathered in.

Arragon was the hero of the first inning, as he cleaned the paths with a three-base blow to left. Hendryx started off with a hit just over Talley's head. Nye singled, putting Hendryx on third. McDermott reached first when he sent the ball to third and Edwards elected to try to get Hendryx out, but failed. Arragon then slammed one to deep left, scoring three men. Eibel drew transportation, and on an attempted steal, Arragon was caught between third and home. Burch beat out an infield hit, and Eibel counted. Kircher stole Burch at second for the third out.

The visitors registered one in the second. With one down, McCord and Edwards singled to left. Howe fanned. Kircher made a bad throw to first to catch Edwards off, and McCord went to third, from where he scored on a passed ball by Kircher.

Richmond rallied to score in its portion of the frame. Ross walked, but was forced at second when Edwards dropped Hendryx fly, but recovered the ball and threw Ross out. Hendryx got to third on an error by Howe, who overthrew first. Nye and McDermott each popped up to Edwards.

Neither team scored in the third. Ross passed two, and Munoz one. Only three men were up for each team.

Raleigh crept up close in the fourth. Roberts went out at first. Arragon making a great stop of a hard-hit ball diverted by Ross. Schuyler walked and tallied on a ripping three-bagger from the club of McCord. The latter went out at the plate when Edwards hit to McDermott. Edwards stole second. Howe walked, but was forced at second by Munoz. Richmond added one in its and. Burch singled to short, but was forced at second by Kircher. Ross grounded out, and Hendryx marked a double to center, scoring Kircher. Nye went out, Talley to Williams.

Ross struck out in three minutes in the fifth, although he was delayed for one safety and passed one.

The Billsmiths climbed up two higher in the fifth on clean hitting. McDermott started things with a daisy cutter to left for one base. Bankston sacrificed him along and Arragon scored Red with a hit to right. He counted on a single to center by Eibel. Burch forced Eibel at second. He stole second and went out trying to steal third.

With two down in the sixth, Ross got a streak of wildness. He hit Howe and passed Curtis, batting for Munoz. He uncorked a wild pitch, advancing the men a peg. Russell, however, grounded out to McDermott.

Hook replaced Munoz in the sixth. Kircher hooked one of Hooks' books for three bases and Ross followed with a double to right, scoring Kircher. Hendryx singled to third. Ross scored when Edwards made a bad throw to the plate on a grounder by Nye. Hendryx and Nye executed a double steal. On a squeeze play with Bankston laying down a pretty bunt, Hendryx scored. Bankston was thrown out at first, and Nye was nipped at the plate for a double play.

The Tarheels went out in order in the seventh, but Richmond scored two. Arragon flew out. Eibel sneaked a base hit off Hook. Burch sent one to Williams, who tried to get Eibel at second, but struck Hook with the ball, and both men came home. Kircher went out on a grounder to short, and Ross ended the inning by fanning.

Again in the eighth only three Tarheels faced Ross, who fanned one. Hendryx lead this inning with a single, his fourth. Nye sacrificed him to second. McDermott grounded out and Bankston flew out to Roberts.

The visitors went out in order in the ninth.

STATE PREP TRACK MEET ATTRACTS MANY ENTRIES

Best Schools in Virginia Are Entered in Big Event to Be Held To-Day in Charlottesville.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 19.—To-morrow afternoon, on Lambeth Field at the University of Virginia, the annual State interscholastic track meet will be held under the management of the General Athletic Association. This meet, the third one of its kind, will decide the track and field championship of the contesting preparatory schools of the State.

Between fifteen and twenty schools have already entered the meet, and over 100 athletes will compete for the prizes. Among the schools who have sent in their lists of entries are: Episcopal High School, Woodberry Forest, Roanoke High, John Marshall, Lynchburg High, Staunton Military Academy, Manassas High, Fork Union Academy and Staunton High.

The feature of the meet will be a relay race in which seven prep schools will compete for the first prize, a silver cup. A silver cup will also be awarded the school winning the largest number of points. There will be no elimination contest previous to the meet here. All athletes will gather at the University on Thursday morning, and the events will be held during the entire day. The following is the list of events:

(1) 100-yard dash, (2) 220-yard dash, (3) 440-yard run, (4) 880-yard run, (5) one-mile run, (6) 220-yard low hurdles, (7) high jump, (8) broad jump, (9) pole vault, (10) twelve-pound shot-put, (11) twelve-pound hammer throw, (12) discus throw, (13) javelin throw, (14) mile relay race for State championship, four men to run.

This championship contest was originated and is being fostered by the Virginia High School Literary and Athletic League, now in the third year of its existence. The purpose is to organize the literary and athletic activities of the State, with the university at their head, and place the university, as the capstone of the public educational system of the State, in a closer relation with the secondary schools, cooperating with them in as full and helpful way as possible.

JOE BOEHLING PITCHES WELL

Richmonder Wins His Contest—New York Now Leads American League. Markle Wins His First Start. Pick's Error Was Big Help.

BOSTON, April 19.—The Senators and Red Sox broke even in two closely contested games to-day. It was Patriots' Day, and big crowds turned out at both sessions. The Senators won the morning contest, 3 to 2. Williams's timely double in the fifth driving in two runs. In the afternoon, Leonard made his first start of the season, and held the visitors to three hits, winning, 2 to 0. Gallia also pitched well. A base on balls to Henricksen, an out and Barry's double gave the Sox their first run in the sixth. Henricksen's single and Gardner's triple accounted for the other run.

YANKEES NOW IN LEAD

NEW YORK, April 19.—Markle, a recruit, led the Yankees to victory over Connie Mack's Athletics to-day, 2 to 1. All the runs were scored in the first inning. A base on balls to Witt, a sacrifice and Strunk's single gave the Athletics their's. A base on balls to Maisel, Gilhooley's safe bunt, and errors by Pick and Oldring let the Yankees score twice. Both Markle and Crowell were in fine form, and had the opposing batters at their mercy. Only seven hits were made by both teams.

BROWNS DEFEAT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, April 19.—Wellman's pitching and Felsch's home run were the features of to-day's game between the White Sox and the Browns, which the latter won, 6 to 2. Wellman held the Sox' wrecking crew to four hits, while St. Louis managed to compile ten swats off four Sox pitchers. Cicotte started off, and later Russell, Scott and Wolfgang took a hand. The loiner in the second brought in Terry, and the only runs of the game for the Sox. The score:

QUINT GETS LETTERS

Virginia Basketballers Profit by Recent Change of Cage Game to Major College Sport.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 19.—The General Athletic Association of the University of Virginia has awarded letters to the following members of the basketball squad: Charles W. Strickling, Huntington, W. Va.; Wellington E. Stickley, Woodstock, Va.; J. Malcolm Luck, Roanoke; Charles J. Churchman, Staunton; James L. White, Macon, Ga., and Andrew Dittrich, Brooklyn.

The student body recently voted overwhelmingly in favor of making basketball a major sport, and the players named above will receive the "V" for their reward, in the place of "B. V. B."

LOCAL FANS TO REWARD PLAYERS FOR GOOD WORK

Advertisers Club Finds Eight Concerns to Donate Articles for Special Feats Opening Day.

Every member of the Richmond team will have an opportunity to get some sort of reward on Wednesday at the opening of the International League season when the Billsmiths stack up against the Champion Bisons. A committee from the Richmond Advertisers' Club, which has charge of the arrangements incident to the game, is working on the proposition of having merchants donate prizes for special feats, and is very successful in getting them to do so.

The committee will designate what the articles will be awarded for. In a few
