LOWLY ATHLETICS BEAT CHAMPIONS SECOND TIME

Mackmen Take Advantage of Foster's Wildness and Defeat Red Sox.

TWO EXTRA INNING GAMES

New York Beats Washington in Eleventh—St. Louis and Cleveland Battle to Fifteen-Inning Tie. Rain Prevents Other Game.

PHILADELPHIA, April 22.—Foster's wildness and timely hitting by Oldring and Strunk enabled Philadelphia to defeat Boston again to-day, 8 to 2. Shore took Foster's place in the third inning and was taken out for a pinch-hitter in the seventh, Pennock finishing the game in good style. Nabors kept Boston's hits scattered.

YANKS FINALLY WIN

WASHINGTON, April 22.—New York beat Washington, 3 to 2, to-day in a thrilling eleven-inning game. The visitors got only five hits off Harper, but 8 of them figured in the scoring. The Yankees went hitless from the fourth to the eleventh, when Nunamaker singled. Maisel got a Texas leaguer and both scored when Baumann, hitting for High, got a two-bagger.

LONG GAME ENDS IN DRAW

ST. LOUIS, April 22.—Although the sun was shining, Umpire Hildebrand stopped the Browns and Indians in the fifteenth inning of a great battle today with a 1-1 score. "This game is called on account of darkness," Hildebrand said. Jones and Fohl made loud protests, but the umpire hurried from the field. A balk by Davenport gave the Indians their only score. Smith opened the second with a single, and Gandil sacrificed. Davenport inserted a balk, advancing Smith to third, and on Turner's roller to Sisler the run scored. Klepfer blanked the Browns for eight innings. In the ninth Sisler singled, Marsans sacrificed, Pratt grounded to Gandil, who plunged into the bag and Sisler raced across the plate from second. In the seven innings Plank pitched he gave but two singles. Score:

PREPARE STADIUM FIELD FOR BANNER TRACK MEET

will be run, with the exception of the hammer throw, which will be eliminated, because of the danger. The 220-yard dash will be shortened into a 200-yard dash, because of the length of the straightaway.

Negotiations with Virginia Military Institute for a dual meet on the stadium field are now being carried on, and, in all probability, it will be staged here on May 20 or some other approximately near date. Richmond College and V. M. I. have staged some hard-fought battles in both football and baseball, and a dual track meet with the Cadets would be received with no small degree of pleasure by the friends of the two colleges.

The Spider track squad has gained a lot of honors this year, and is a formidable team in the field. Dobson has developed a good team from a mediocre squad until now it has assumed a bright aspect, and should prove a good advertisement for Richmond College.

ELON BEATS CADETS

Virginia Military Institute Loses Light Hitting Game—Both Made Big Score in First Inning.

LEXINGTON, VA., April 22.—In a fairly snappy game of ball played here this afternoon, Virginia Military Institute was defeated by Elon College, score 5 to 4.

Both nines had their rallies in the initial inning, the visitors scoring five runs and the home team three. With one exception, the remainder of the game remained scoreless.

Several times V. M. I. had excellent chances to tie the score, but failed. In the eighth inning, with second and third base occupied and one man down, things looked dark for Elon. However, Beard tightened up and fanned the next pair of batters.

Both teams hit safely six times. Massie pitched a good game for the cadets, and no fault could be found with the visiting team's slab artist.

Marshall, of V. M. I., got the longest hit of the game, a three-bagger, and he also made two beautiful catches in center field.

GOOBERS DEFEATED BY RICHMOND INTS

Gleason. Eibel grounded out to first, ending the inning.

Gleason worked well in the fourth. Henry grounded out. Poh made his second hit, but Hudgins lifted up a fly to Hendryx and Marx struck out. Geddes took the place of Marx and only three Richmonders faced him. Bankston singled with two out, but went out trying to steal.

GOOBERS FINALLY GET TO GLEASON FOR COUNTERS

The Goobers got to Gleason for runs in the fifth. Irmscher walked. Goolby flew out to Burch. Allen singled to right. He scored on a single to left by Moorefield. Ritchie scored Allen and Moorefield with a swat to left. He went to second when Burch threw to the plate. Henry flew out. Poh walked, but Hudgins hit up to Hendryx.

Richmond got back two runs in this frame. Nye was safe on an error by Irmscher, who made a bad peg at first. Reynolds flew out to center. Clemens, pinch-hitting for Gleason, hit to left, putting Nye on third. On an attempted squeeze play, Hendryx failed to connect and Nye was off the bag. Hudgins threw to third, but Marty rushed in. Clemens stole second. Hendryx doubled to center, scoring Clemens. Burch doubled to center, but Hendryx was caught at the plate. Eibel then flew out.

The Goobers got three on in the sixth, but failed to count. Ross went in for Gleason. Geddes got to first on an error by Kelliher. Irmscher walked. Geddes was forced at third by Goolby. Moorefield drew transportation, but Ritchie popped.

Richmond piled on four more runs in the sixth. Four singles and a double was the crop of hits. Arragon singled with one out. Bankston followed with one to the same garden. Nye got a similar blow, scoring Arragon. Reynolds forced Nye at second. Ross then hit through Poh, putting two runs over. Hendryx doubled to center, bringing in Ross. Burch ended the inning with a fly to Poh.

Only three Ints got on in the seventh. Richmond got a man to second, Kelliher being hit by a pitched ball and stealing a sack.

In the eighth and ninth the Goobers were speedy outs. The Ints also went out in order in their end of the eighth, the men not trying to hit the ball.

NO INTERNATIONAL SPORTS

SWEDISH TEAM WILL NOT COME TO THIS COUNTRY

Intersectional Contests Will Be Best Substitute—Tennis, Polo and Rowing in Limelight.

NEW YORK, April 22.—With the refusal of the Swedish athletic authorities to send a track and field team to this country during the coming summer, the last chance for international sport competition in 1916 has faded. As a result followers of various lines of amateur sport are turning to intersectional contests as the next best substitute, and there appears to be excellent prospects in this direction. For this reason the performances of individual and grouped athletes are being watched with far more than usual interest. This is particularly true of Pacific Coast contestants, for it is from this section that the largest invading forces are expected in the East this season.

California will send its star tennis players on another tour of the Middle West and East; will be represented in the inter-circuit polo tournament and the leading colleges of the far coast will enter track teams, tennis teams and crews in the principal Eastern competitions this spring and summer. The first test will come when Stanford and possibly California, compete in the intercollegiate championship games to be held in the Harvard University stadium at Cambridge, Mass., on May 26 and 27. Stanford has already stated her intention of entering a team. California, which holds membership in the I. C. A. A. A. A., did not compete in 1915, and must send athletes to the games this year in order to retain her standing under the two-year rule.

In the recent dual meet between these two varsity track teams at Stanford, the latter combination captured eleven out of fourteen firsts, but the California contingent made a game struggle for the point honors by taking many seconds and thirds. The performances were not as a rule, however, sufficiently startling to warrant the belief their either team could win first place in the coming intercollegiates, when the array of talent at Cornell, Pennsylvania, Harvard, Princeton, Penn. State and other Eastern colleges is considered.

Comparing the performances at this dual meet with those at the intercollegiates held at the University of Pennsylvania field last June, it is seen that two are better and three are equal. Of the other eight on the I. C. A. A. A. A. program, the Western records do not approach the time or distances made by the winners at Franklin Field. In Murray, Horton, Sisson and Coughey, Stanford has a quartet of athletes who appear capable of holding their own against the best of the intercollegiate contestants this spring. The meet will in all probability be won, however, by the team which places the greatest number of men in second, third and fourth places, and, owing to the expense of bringing a large squad from the Pacific Coast to Cambridge, the chances of Stanford or California winning is reduced to a minimum.

The possibility of victory for either Washington or Stanford in the intercollegiate regatta at Poughkeepsie on June 17 is considered far greater, since Stanford gave a splendid exhibition of rowing skill and endurance in winning second place in the four-mile race a year ago. Five of the eight veterans of that race are again in the shell. Although defeated by Washington recently in a three-mile race, Eastern rowing authorities believe that either or both crews have a fine chance of finishing well up among the leaders, if the trip to the Hudson is made as prosoped.

There is also a chance that a Pacific Coast varsity football team may be seen in an intersectional game against one or more Eastern elevens, either this fall or in 1917. A group of New York football men are endeavoring to arrange for such a game, and stand ready to finance the trip in order to bring the eleven of California, Washington or Washington Aggies, to New York for a game with one of the leading elevens of the East, if the consent of the Western university faculties can be secured.

Great Foreign Fighter Here.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Dan McMetrick, the light manager, has brought to this country, Albert Badoud, who has won the French, Swiss, Belgian and British welterweight titles, to challenge the best welterweights in this country. Badoud has a remarkable record. He is particularly anxious to meet Ted Lewis and Mike Gibbons.

UNION TO MEET HAMPTON

NEGRO COLLEGES TO PLAY TO-MORROW AT HOVEY PARK

Championship of Colored Intercollegiate Athletic Association at Stake. Both Teams in Good Shape.

The annual struggle for the championship of the Colored Intercollegiate Athletic Association will take place in Hovey Park to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, with the varsities of Hampton Normal and Industrial Institute and Virginia Union University as participants. These two aggregations seem equally proficient in every department of the game, and a stiff contest is expected.

Union has succumbed to the furious onslaught of the Hamptonians in the last four engagements between these two schools—its stickmen discovering that Hampton's twirler, Wright, gave too many commutation tickets in the form of strikeouts. The visitors also have a demon receiver, Hill, who never allows an opponent to poach the second sack.

Professor Robinson, faculty athletic director, promises to smash the Hampton jinx with a decisive victory for Union. Hucles, stellar keeper of the midway station for the past two seasons, has sufficiently recovered from recent injuries to resume duties at his old post, and Hall, on third, will certainly make it unsafe for rambling pills in his territory. As these were the only vulnerable points in the batting order, Union is due a victory to-morrow.

This is how they will lineup:

REGRET IS FAVORITE

Unbeaten Filly Picked as Winner at Kentucky Handicap—Won Last Year Against Big Field.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Harry Payne Whitney's unbeaten Regret will probably be the favorite in the big Kentucky handicap which will be run at Douglas Park (Ky.) on May 30.

The speedy filly, which won the Kentucky derby last year, is being groomed especially for the $15,000 purse race next month. Just now she looms up as the class of the field. Of course, she will be pitted against the fastest youngsters in the running game, but outside of Water Blossom, the great Kentucky filly, she ranks as the peer of her rivals for the first place honors.

Water Blossom, however, may force Regret to her absolute limit. The Blue Grass whirl wind is in perfect condition, and her speed is on the increase. She is game to the core, has wonderful endurance powers, breaks fast, and is a wizard in the stretch.

Should Regret romp home a winner in the derby, it is likely that she will be retired at once to the stud, with the prestige of having won the two blue ribbon Kentucky events.

Will Protect Diamond.

ST. LOUIS, April 22.—"Skip" Britton is preparing for a rainy day. The genial president of the Cardinals last night announced that he had purchased from a Detroit firm a tarpaulin to protect the Robison Field from rain.

The new cover is 170 feet long and 165 feet wide. It will cover the infield and a portion of the outfield.

GENERALS DROP ANOTHER

PENN STATE WINS EASILY FROM WASHINGTON AND LEE

Score Five Runs in Fifth—Losers Outhit Visitors—Game Dragged Along Nearly Three Hours.

LEXINGTON, VA., April 22.—Penn State scored five runs in the fifth inning on a combination of three hits and several fielding and pitching faults, and defeated Washington and Lee handily, the final score being 9 to 3.

Davis pitched strongly for the Pennsylvanians, being effective in the pinches and fanning ten batsmen.

Washington and Lee outhit the invaders, but did not make the raps count. Barrett knocked a home run in the eighth inning. Bryan, who opened for the Generals, pitched steadily until the fifth inning. The first two runs scored by Penn State were procured without a hit. The game dragged, two hours and fifty minutes being consumed in playing it. The score:
