SPORTS — BISON HERD DROPS SECOND GAME TO BILLSMITHS — SPORTS

SECOND GAME CAPTURED FROM BISON CHAMPIONS

Billsmiths Uncork in Last Frame and Break Knot, Taking Pretty Contest, 3 to 2.

LOCALS MAKE THREE ERRORS

Miscues, However, Fail to Count in Outcome—Tight Ball Played From Fifth Through Ninth—Mayor Fuhrman Sees His Team Defeated.

Going into the ninth with the score badly tangled, the Billsmiths yesterday afternoon unloosed the blows that won, and again forced the champion Bisons to lower their colors. Mayor Louis P. Fuhrman, of Buffalo, arrived during the second inning, but, in spite of his presence, the Herd went down in defeat, 3 to 2.

It was a pretty contest, taken from all angles. The fielding was sharp at practically every point. While Richmond made three errors, none counted in the result, and the one miscue of the Bisons probably only changed in manner in which the ultimate result was achieved.

With the weather considerably better than on the opening day, the teams battled fiercely for the game. Richmond tallied first in the second inning, but Buffalo took the lead in the fourth. In the fifth the count was knotted, and from that time until the ninth the battle was nip and tuck, with neither team being able to get men around the circuit.

Sacrifice Fly Ends Game.

Verbout and Cooper were the opposing slabbists, and both kept their hits fairly well scattered. Two passes, followed by a long swat for three sacks, marred the work of Verbout. A double and single in a row gave Richmond its first tally, and a double, sacrifice and single brought in the tying run. A single, error and sacrifice fly untied the score and ended the game.

To Tim Hendryx went the honors of the day. Hendryx found his batting eye, and single-handed made half of the hits for his team. Three singles and a double was his crop out of five times at bat. The other hits were scattered between Kircher, Kelliher, Nye and Verbout.

For the visitors, Kopp led the hitting with a triple and single in four trials. The other three hits were made by O'Neill, Cooper and Jackson. Each pitcher walked four, Cooper passing two intentionally. Cooper, however, hit three and made two wild heaves. The visit of the Buffalo Mayor was unexpected. Mayor Fuhrman was in Washington on business, and came here before returning home. He will probably remain until the Bisons start North. He was attended at the game by President Gerry Simon, of the Buffalo club.

Both Hit in Second.

Cooper and Verbout went well in the first frame. Richmond only stuck three up in its end, but Buffalo got two on, through an error by Kircher and a walk. Two were out and the side was retired easily.

In the second both teams hit, and the Climbers scored in their end. Jackson started this frame for the Bisons with a double to the fence, between right and center. Haley sacrificed him to third. While off that station, Bill Reynolds slipped a fast throw to McDermott and Jackson was caught well off the sack. Kopp singled, beating out an infield hit. Cooper ended the inning by fanning.

The Billsmiths scored with two down. George Kircher doubled to left and scored on a Texas leaguer by Nye, who was able to replay to stretch his hit to a double.

Marty Nye executed a pretty double-play, which blanked the Herd in the third. O'Neill singled to center, with one out. Hummel then lined out to Nye, which he stabbed with one hand. O'Neill had sprinted to second and was an easy out at first. The Billsmiths filled the sacks, but did not count in their end. Cooper hit Reynolds and McDermott and Tim Hendryx got a single. The outs were sprinkled between, and nobody counted.

Buffalo registered in the fourth, walks being responsible. Channell was passed. McDonald sacrificed him to second. Jackson got transportation. Haley fanned and Kopp then landed for a three-base blow to left, scoring Channell and Jackson. Cooper ended the inning by striking out.

Score Knotted in Fifth.

With men on second and third, Richmond failed to get back the runs. Bankston walked and Kircher was hit by a pitched ball. Nye attempted to sacrifice, but his bunt was fielded and Hummel caught it. Both runners advanced a peg on a wild pitch, but Reynolds struck out and Verbout lifted up a high infield fly to O'Neill.

Richmond threatened in the fifth. Buffalo had been unable to work men around, although O'Neill got to first when he was hit by Verbout. He was forced out a second by Hummel, making a long chase, and Bankston pulled the third out in Channell off the fence. Tim Hendryx then earned a run. Tim Hendryx lofted off with a two-base knock to left. Al Burch sacrificed him to third, and McDonald got O'Neill. McDermott grounded to Nye, and Kelliher landed on a fast pitch for a single. Hendryx tried for home, but was forced at second, but Bankston came home.

Neither scored in the sixth. Cooper was particularly effective, fanning two in this frame. A hard hitter, let one Bison get on in the seventh, but the error did not aggravate the situation.

Richmond loaded the bases in this inning and then failed to register. Hendryx drove one over third. Al Burch advanced them both, station to station, as McDermott was walked, filling the bassocks. Mickey Kelliher struck out, and Bankston drove a liner which Hummel knocked down and recovered in time to make the out unassisted.

Neither team scored in the eighth. Only six batters came up in the entire chapter.

The teams entered the ninth stacked up. Haley lifted up a foul which Reynolds dropped. The batter, however, grounded to Kircher. Kopp went out to Nye. Cooper singled to left. Lavan grounded to Nye, ending the inning.

Richmond came into the ninth with the blows needed to win. Hendryx landed a murderous swat which just grazed Cooper and continued its way. Kopp bagged the grounder and Hendryx got to third. Cooper then purposely walked Burch and McDermott, filling the bases. Clemens was then sent in to hit. Cooper having known Kelliher too long as a member of the Petersburg team, for safety. Clemens hit to left for an out, but Hendryx scored the winning tally.

GRAYS TAKE OPENER

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

PROVIDENCE, April 27.—The International League season was opened in this city to-day, the Grays scoring an 8-to-1 victory over the Rochester team. A crowd of 15,000 fans attended.

The usual opening-day festivities prevailed. Mayor Gainer pitched the first ball, Lieutenant-Governor San Souci making an attempt to hit the sphere.

The game went along even for five innings, but in the sixth the Grays mixed hits with errors and scored five runs, putting the game on ice. The score:

TAKES SPIDERS' MEASURE

John Marshall High Defeats Richmond College and Evens Up For Past Losses.

The John Marshall High School baseball nine yesterday evened up with Richmond College, when it defeated the Spiders by the score of 6 to 3. The game was played on Stadium Field. The batting of Schaub, Sab and the fielding of Lawrence, at third, featured for the Marshallites. Lingan's slap of a hot line drive from Stumpf's bat was the fielding feature for the Spiders.

Batteries, John Marshall—Pettway and Stumpf; Richmond College—Cox, Knight and Blankenship. These teams will play again to-day.

TARHEELS TAKE OPENER

PRETTY GAME IS LOST BY NORFOLK, 1 TO 0

Portsmouth Takes Fourth Straight by Defeating Hopewell in Stubborn Contest.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., April 27.—Norfolk lost a beautiful ball game to Rocky Mount this afternoon, the Tarheels taking the opener—a twirling duel between Magalis and Pope—by a 1-to-0 score.

The Tar left-hander was hit safely seven times, but kept them well scattered. He was wild, however, and a free pass contributed to the winning tally. Pope, for the Carolinians, let the crew down with but five bingles, none of them bunched sufficiently to put a runner over the pan. He fanned eight.

Norfolk is credited with three errors, none of which contributed directly, however, to their defeat. Rocky Mount played errorless ball. Sharp fielding by the Tars, coupled with the splendid headwork of Morpeth, broke a Tarheel rally in the sixth. In the eighth, Goosetree was passed and sacrificed. He came home with the winning run on Eisel's double to right.

The game, fast and crammed with baseball of the gilt-edged variety, pleased a fair crowd. The score:

TRUCKERS' FOURTH WIN

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

HOPEWELL, VA., April 27.—The Truckers won their fourth straight game to-day by defeating Hopewell, 3 to 0. The game was stubbornly fought throughout, but Hirsch's wildness in the first inning, when he walked three batters, gave the visitors a lead which the Puffs could never overcome, and two other runs were made by clean hitting in the sixth and ninth, respectively.

Cueto, the Truckers' Cuban center fielder, quit the team at Petersburg to-day because, of his quarters at the Cockade City Y. M. C. A. not being to his taste.

Hopewell had several chances to score, but every break of the game went against them, and on one occasion, with the bases filled and one out, Rowe and Hirsch fanned in succession. The score:

BUILDERS DROP OPENER

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., April 27.—By far the largest crowd that ever witnessed a ball game in this city this afternoon saw Newport News celebrate the opening of the 1916 Virginia League season here by going down to defeat befor the Petersburg club, 7 to 6.

Luck broke against the Builders, as on every occasion when Gardinier showed traces of wildness, his supporting cast went to pieces. Three passes and two muffs gave the Goobers three runs in the third without the aid of a hit. Three hits and two passes gave them four more in the seventh.

The Builders scored two in the opener on a pass and two hit batsmen, followed by a single. The others came on long hits. In the ninth, with two out and two on, Walters tripled, but died at third when Allen grabbed Ingerton's long drive.

A unique feature of the opening was the tossing out of the first ball from an aeroplane, which swooped down to within 150 feet of the heads of the crowd. The ball was tied to an American flag, and as it descended, the flag fluttered open, presenting an inspiring sight. The score:

V. M. I. DROPS GAME TO SOUTH CAROLINA

Slow Contest at Lexington Marred When Massie, Cadet Twirler, Is Spiked and Retired.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LEXINGTON, VA., April 27.—The University of South Carolina defeated V. M. I on the local diamond this afternoon by the score of 8 to 3. The game was slow throughout, and errors were frequent on both sides. Massie, the local hurler, was spiked while defending home plate in the third inning, and the wound necessitated his retirement in the fourth inning. Up until this time he had pitched an excellent game, and Bucher, who relieved him, pitched well, but was poorly supported.

Newton occupied the mound for the Carolinians, and held V. M. I. batters to four hits. South Carolina scored three runs in both the third and sixth innings. In the latter round the tallies were made on a home run by Newton with two men on bases. Carolina also counted in the fourth and seventh innings. V. M. I. registered three times in the fifth, due, in the most part, to errors.
