HUSTLERS HAMMER AWAY AND MAKE IT TWO IN ROW

Out of Fifteen Hits Rochester Scores Ten Men, While Richmond Puts But Three Across.

GLEASON MAKES ASCENSION

Blows Up in Fourth and Is Relieved by Rhoades, Who Holds Visitors Fairly Well Until Ninth—Fautsch Makes His Appearance.

Nobody dreamed it could be done, but Tommy Leach's hustling Hustlers yesterday made it two straight from the Billsmiths—and it was no scratch victory. Indeed not, for those Rochester clubbers hit the ball for singles, doubles, triples and a home run, all of which resulted in ten markers, against which the Richmonders could only show three.

Gleason and Rhoades were the victims. The Colonial League kid was given a severe lacing for a little more than three innings. Billy Smith was lenient with the boy, and allowed him to sow his wild oats, but when Jake Jacobson lifted one far above the right-field fence, with the bases choked with runners, his patience ceased to be a virtue, and Dusty was sent in to stop the slaughter.

Rhoades succeeded fairly well in his purpose until the ninth, when three registers were made by the Hustlers. Rhoades also contributed a piece of baseball seldom pulled in any league. After making what was a clean single to right field, he got tangled in the paths, and before he arrived at the first station Sloan had sent the ball there from deep right.

Bugs Caught Napping.

Bugs Hersche was the slab performer for the victors. He did not have to pitch hard, as he had such a comfortable lead that he could loaf on the job. Eight hits were made off him, but he scattered them evenly through the game, and they came generally when no runners were on the bases. Bugs also pulled a stunt noted chiefly for its rarity when he ran past first when Fautsch made a bad peg and loafed back after Elbel recovered the ball, forgetting in his fine conceit that he was supposed to roost on the bag after getting there.

The new infielder, Fautsch, arrived in time to get in action. While it is hardly fair to judge a man by his first appearance, it is the consensus of opinion that he will not do for the International League. He may, however, get limbered up, but he did not handle himself any too well yesterday. Two miscues were made off him. He redeemed himself for these, however, by driving out two singles, one of which scored two runners in front of him.

Hitting Not Consistent.

Although defeated, Richmond played a good fielding game with the exception of the two miscues by the latest acquisition. Two more double plays were added to the long list, swelling it to fourteen in ten games, which is an average hard to beat. Clemens pulled a pretty catch in left, and Elbel also gave a nifty demonstration at first on several occasions. Marty Nye worked easily, and figured in both double plays. He almost succeeded in his bluff at second, when a short fly was sent up with a man on first. Alert coaching was the savior of the runner, who started for the base, and would have been caught flat-footed.

The Richmond team could not hit consistently. McDermott got two in four attempts. Fautsch did the same, but the others were scattered. Bill Reynolds fooled everybody with his long swat for three bases. Bill also fooled several base runners, who attempted to pilfer second, while he also picked one man off third. McDermott making a beautiful tag on the sliding runner.

Hustlers Draw First Blood.

Siglin continued hitting at the hot pace he set last week. He got a three-bagger and two doubles in four times up. Jacobson, besides his home run blout, singled once in four attempts. Sloan got a single and a double. Hersche got a pair of doubles in his three trials.

Rochester scored first in the second inning, when a three-bagger by Siglin, a pass, sacrifice fly and a double by Hersche put two runs over. In the fourth the Hustlers lengthened on Gleason. McAuley singled. After Hale had gone out on a pop fly, Hersche again connected for a long swat. Farrell forced McAuley at home. Babbington was hit by a pitched ball. Jacobson then dropped the ball into the eighteenth hole of the Hermitage Golf Club course, clearing the sacks.

Rhoades Replaces Gleason.

Rhoades replaced Gleason, and he was tapped for one run in the fifth. Holke doubled to center, and scored on a single by Siglin, after Rhoades had fumbled a wild heave.

In the ninth three more runs were made off Rhoades. Sloan singled. Holke scored him with a two-base blow. Siglin was hit by Rhoades. Both advanced a base on an infield out, and scored on a single to left by Hale.

Richmond scored one in the third inning. Reynolds tripled to center and tallied on an out at first. In the sixth two more runs were made. McDermott lead off with a single to right, and scored on a double to the same spot by Clemens. Fautsch brought Clemens home with a single to center.

Leverenz, Hjelke or Brown will do the twirling to-day for Rochester. If the Billsmiths start hitting, Ritter will go in to pitch. Ross will be on the mound for Richmond.

NEWARK DEFEATS ROYALS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NEWARK, N. J., May 8.—Newark again defeated Montreal to-day, hitting Fullerton's offerings for a total of five runs, while Cy Pich held the visitors to a single tally. Martin's double, two errors and a double steal gave Newark three runs in the second inning. In the seventh, singles by Callahan and Witter, Milan's sacrifice and Callahan's double accounted for two more. The score:

HERD BOWS TO ORIOLES

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BALTIMORE, MD., May 8.—George Twombly's home run in the seventh inning, scoring Bates ahead of him, enabled Baltimore to take the final game of the series with Buffalo here to-day, 12 to 10. Twombly also clouted the ball over the fence in the fifth frame, putting the Orioles in the running.

The game was featured by heavy hitting, no less than nine extra base hits being made.

Sam Crane, the former Mackman, played his first game as an Oriole, and his debut was a most auspicious one, figuring in two fast double plays and also getting a hit. The score:

CREW SNATCHES VICTORY

TRIPLE IN NINTH EARNS WINNING RUN

Win Clark Makes Fatal Error, and Norfolk Takes Measure of Hopewell.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., May 8.—When Win Clark sent Steve Gaston to the mound to replace Crabble in the ninth inning to-day, he made the mistake of his life. The score at that time was 6 to 4 in favor of Hopewell, and Norfolk had the bases filled with none out. Gaston served one up to Bruce, the former V. P. I. outfielder, and the youngster laid against the pellet good and hard. When it landed it was against the fence in deep center field, and three runners who were on the sacks crossed the plate before the ball was returned, while Bruce was perched on third base. The blow was enough to defeat the "Bombs". The score was 7 to 6.

With two runs behind when they went to bat in the last frame, and half the fans leaving the park in despair, Crabble passed Newton. Whitted singled. Hartsell bunted, and when Barnett dropped Crabble's throw to first, all hands were safe. Then it was that Crabble was derricked and Gaston sent in to take up his task. The game was a weird one, marked by loose playing by both teams, and the banishment of "Gene" Steinbrenner, in the seventh. "Stein" had made three hits in the afternoon, and in turning second in the seventh claimed that McMahon tripped him. When he continued his argument he was chased.

Magalis started the game for Norfolk, but was retired when Kraft was sent in to pinch hit for him in the fifth. Springman replaced Magalin in the sixth, and Hopewell scored five runs before he was replaced by Nicks, who held the "Powder Puffs" safe for the remainder of the game. The score:

GOOBERS DOWN TARHEELS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., May 8.—For sixteen frames the Tarheels and Goobers were at each other's throats in to-day's opener, to have Petersburg finally annex a victory by a score of 5 to 3.

The game was a pitchers' battle, in which Poole and Applegate shared about equal honors, and would have evidently ended in a tie had not the support of the Champions' flinger wobbled, and the game was dropped. The score:

SLUGGING FESTIVAL

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., May 8.—In a baseball game of the vintage of 1886, Portsmouth celebrated its first appearance in the city this season by defeating the Shipbuilders, 16 to 9. The locals outhit the visitors, but the Pirates combined hits with miscues of the Christians to good advantage. A freak triple play was registered in the fourth, when the locals had the bases full and nobody out. Pahlman popped up a fly, which Reynolds went after on fair territory. The runners held their bases, thinking Umpire Kennedy would call an infield fly, but he did not for some unexpained reason. Reynolds dropped the ball, then picked it up and threw to second, and the umpire called all three out. The Builders protested vigorously, but Kennedy refused to allow their claim that it was an infield fly and no one but the batter was out.

The batting of Walters and Gandy and the throwing to second of Lake, who headed six would-be stealers, featured. Gandy hit a homer with the bases full in the seventh. Hamilton started the game, and the side should have been retired in the first without a run. All seven of the tallies came after two were out on muffed flies, a pass and two doubles and a single. CUBS AND PIRATES DIVIDE

SPLIT DOUBLE BILL ON CHICAGO GROUNDS

Wheezer Dell Pitches Second Shut-Out for Brooklyn, Triumphing Over Alexander.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHICAGO, May 8.—The Cubs and Pirates split even on a double-header this afternoon, the locals taking the first game, 2 to 1, and the visitors the second, 6 to 4. A home run by Williams, after McConnell had singled, won the first game, which was a pitchers' battle up to the eighth inning. Mamaux allowed out four hits in the second, Schultz's error being responsible for two of the four runs scored by the Cubs. Chicago used four pitchers and gave them poor support. Score:
