DEATHS.

NORWOOD.—Died, at her home, 108 North Fifth Street, at 6:20 P. M., May 20, ELIZABETH BLOUNT NORWOOD, daughter of the late Rev. William and Winifred Blount Norwood.
Funeral from St. Paul's Church MONDAY AFTERNOON at 4:30 o'clock. Interment private.

IN MEMORIAM.

WITTKAMP.—In sad but loving memory of our dear father, BERNARD WITTKAMP, JR., who died one year ago to-day, May 22, 1915.

In the graveyard softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we love so dearly,
In the lonely, silent grave.

Home that once was bright and cheerful
Now is always sad and drear;
Loving hearts that once were happy
Now are always aching here.

All is dark around our dwelling
And we almost see thy face;
But we look around with sorrow
When we see thy vacant place.

We did not want to part with him
But God knew what was best;
But some day we hope to meet him
In that sweet land of rest.

BY HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.

BLACKSTONE DELEGATES WILL GO UNINSTRUCTED

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BLACKSTONE, VA., May 21.—Delegates to the Democratic State Convention at Roanoke were elected at a mass-meeting held yesterday. They go uninstructed in the matter of a national committeeman, but as it is understood that Congressman Watson, whose home is in this county, and who will head the delegation as delegate-at-large from the county, is favorable to Glass, it is expected that the delegates from this county will vote with him on this question.

Resolutions indorsing the administration of President Wilson and the course of the two Virginia Senators and Representative Watson were adopted unanimously. Except on different motions looking to instructions, the meeting was harmonious.
