NERVE-WRACKING GAME WON BY BILLSMITHS

Both Sides Go for Regular Time and Score But One Run, Then Crack Down for Regular Free-for-All Smash-Up Affair.

Fans who braved the threatening elements and hied themselves to Broad Street Park yesterday afternoon, were amply repaid in thrills, if thrills were what they were looking for. A tight-wad game for nine innings, a heart-sickening tenth inning for the visitors, and then a rejuvenating tenth inning for the locals tells the story of that wonderful baseball game yesterday afternoon. Providence got three runs and Richmond got four.

"Providence was with us!"

Well, they started off kinder regular-like and neither side could do anything until the fourth session. Then Rehg tore off a hit for a couple of bags and was sacrificed to third by Powell. Humphreys really could have caught Rehg at third, but he retired the batter at first instead. Shean lifted a sacrifice fly to Bankston and Rehg scored.

Hendryx came to the bat, first man in the fourth for Richmond. He promptly knocked a home run and tied the score.

From then on it was pretty much of the three up, three down variety until the game started off in the final session. Humphreys, who had pitched a magnificent game of ball until this time, holding the visitors to three scattered hits, wrenched his bad knee after two were out in the ninth inning and had to retire when he allowed another hit and saw that he was in no condition to continue. Leake retired the side without further scoring.

That tenth inning was a whole baseball game by itself. The first nine innings had been a regular baseball game, too.

In the tenth, after one man was down, Brainard singled and then stole second. Blackburn scored him with a hit good for a couple of sacks. Richmond fans groaned. Yelle was safe when Arragon, on a hard chance, threw on the bounce to Kelliher. Yelle took third. Baumgartner, who had failed to connect up until this time, singled and brought Blackburn over. With two runs to the good, things looked bad and the fans began to get ready to leave.

"No chance!" they said.

Reynolds stood and watched Baumgartner throw four bad ones and O'Donnell, who was pinch-hitting for Leake, duplicated the feat. Baumgartner threw a couple of bad ones to Priest and then he was jerked. Schultz took his place on the mound. Priest received the signal to sacrifice, and when Blackburn ran out of his position at first to take the play, the effort went over his head in the shape of a pop-fly, which lit on the base-line between first and second, and Priest was scored a hit. The bases were full.

Kelliher hit a hot one to Blackburn and the doughty catcher proved too strong for a first-baseman by throwing the pellet into the planks at the grand stand. Reynolds and O'Donnell scored. Third and second were occupied.

Hendryx came up, and after looking over a couple that didn't suit him and fouling a couple more, smashed one down the third-base line that would have been good for a couple of bags; but by bringing Priest over from third with the winning run, the game was over and the big fielder was marked a single.

The fans couldn't believe it. The local lads right before their eyes had made three runs, with none down. If it had been necessary there would have been more, for Kelliher was close behind Priest, and Hendryx would have been on second. It was the most wonderful tenth-inning rally seen on the local lot this season.

Richmond went in with a pep at the very start, which indicated that a regular ball game was on tap. It was a pitchers' battle until the final inning, when the two masters, Humphreys and Baumgartner, left the field, and after that it appeared to be anybody's game. Richmond proved the better as to relief pitcher and batsmen.

It looks like a regular double-ended affair to-day, both morning, at 10:30, and this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

HUMPHREYS LAID UP

Richmond's Great Larboard Pitcher Must Retire for Time, With Injuries in Knee.

Speaking of luck, the Climbers haven't any, except the chilled-steel variety. Humphreys will be out of the game for a week or two, no telling how long.

Yesterday he met the Clams and whipped them, and then after it was about over, after he had taken the gartner out of Baumgartner, he wrenched his bad knee—the left one—and had to retire from the game. There is no doubt that Humphreys worked out a wonderful game against the Clams. He held them to three scattered clouts until the ninth frame; then when he made a dive for Powell's grounder to second, he ruined his knee. First made the play an easy out.

The next man up, Shean, doubled. He might have doubled anyway—he might have hit the ball over the fence—but up until that time he had failed in both respects, and the chances are he would have failed again. Even if he had landed that double, Fabrique was up next, and if any pitcher ever had a batter's number, Humphreys has Fabrique's. In three appearances at the bat previous, Fabrique struck out just three times. He also "might" have hit the ball over the fence.

It's not so much the game yesterday, but there are to be more games, and with Humphreys out of the line-up, the Billsmiths are sorely crippled. Fans are hopeful that he will be able to get his hurt knee back in shape in a hurry.

BAKER IS FARMED OUT

Newberry College Youngster Goes to Raleigh in North Carolina League.

Billy Smith, boss of the Climbers, announced yesterday that he had farmed Ralph Baker, the Newberry College short stop, out to the Raleigh club of the Carolina League. Baker left last night for his new berth, and the fans of this city wish him all kinds of luck, and hope to see him here next season.

Manager Smith thinks so much of the youngster that he has an option on him, and Baker will be brought here next year for a tryout. Baker is a natural hitter, but his fielding was not up to the class "AA" standard, and Billy thinks that a season in the Carolina League will do him a world of good.

COHN WINS GRAND PRIX

Race Run in Front of King of Spain Made Prominent With United States Flags.

SAN SEBASTIAN, SPAIN, July 2 (via Paris, July 3).—The Grand Prix 70,000 pesetos (approximately $14,000) was run here to-day in the presence of King Alfonso and a vast crowd of enthusiastic sportsmen, and was won handily by J. D. Cohn's Teddy, ridden by Bliss. Spirt was second and W. K. Vanderbilt's Meigs was third.

The race takes the place of the famous classics of the Continental turf, the Grand Prix, usually run in Paris, but suspended on account of the closing of all French tracks during the war.

Some of the best starters in Europe participated in the event.

The course and the grand stand, which had been prepared under American supervision, displayed a number of American flags, and in the royal box the American and Spanish colors were mingled.

Pirates Swap Players.

PITTSBURGH, July 3.—The Pittsburgh National League club has purchased B. Compton from the Boston Nationals, and has traded Edward Barney to the Louisville American Association team for Floyd Farmer. It was learned here to-day. All are outfielders.

Two Games To-Day

There will be two games with the Providence team to-day, the first at 10:30 o'clock this morning, the second at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Great crowds are expected to attend both games.

ORIOLES FLY UPWARD

BALTIMORE, July 3.—Jack Dunn's Orioles kept up their winning spurt to-day, when they twice spanked the Indians. The scores were 5 to 3, and 5 to 4. Crowell won his third straight game since being sent here by Connie Mack in the opener, holding the visitors to four hits. Sherman was effective in the second game until the ninth, when the Braves hammered him for three runs. Manager Tenney, as a pinch-hitter, made a clean single during the rally. The scores:
