Commissioners' Auction Sale of Farms and Lots in Henrico County, Virginia

In execution of a decree of the Circuit Court of Henrico County, in the chancery cause known as George Jordan, who sues, etc., against Mollie R. Casselman, administratrix, et al., entered on the 10th day of July, 1916, we shall, as special commissioners, appointed by said court, offer for sale at public auction, in front of the courthouse building of the aforesaid court, at the corner of Twenty-second and Main Streets, on THURSDAY, JULY 27, 1916,

at 12 o'clock noon,

the following property, in the order named:

(A) Two certain lots, known as lots Nos. 4 and 5, in block A, section 1, in the plan of Highland Springs, as recorded in plat book 6, in the clerk's office of the Circuit Court of Henrico County, fronting 40 feet on the west or northern line of Beach Street, and running back between parallel lines about 120 feet to the south or eastern line of Bridge Street, and fronting on said Bridge Street about 40 feet.

(B) A tract of land containing about 25 acres, more or less, with improvements thereon, in the lower part of Henrico County, about 15 miles from the city of Richmond, on Willis's Church Road; conveyed to Lawrence Casselman by Archie P. Ratcliffe, by deed dated April 10, 1913, and described in the said deed as adjoining the lands of Thomas Guy on the west, L. A. Gleghorn on the north and E. L. Hare on the south and east.

(C) That certain farm known as Elmwood, consisting of 135 acres, more or less, about 8 miles below the city of Richmond, Va., in Fairfield District, Henrico County, with all improvements thereon, consisting of nice dwelling and necessary outbuildings, and lying near the road from Fair Oaks to Hanover, with a 20-foot right of way leading to the said road, and shown on a map in D. B. 171-A, page 440, in the clerk's office of the Circuit Court of Henrico County.

(D) A tract of land containing 173 acres, more or less, in Henrico County, fronting partly on the road leading from Fair Oaks to Hanover, with dwelling and sundry outbuildings. This property adjoins that of Elmwood, just mentioned, and a plat of same may be found in plat book 9, page 19 1-2 and D. B. 171-A, page 440, in the clerk's office of Henrico Circuit Court. Both of the above described properties (C and D) have much low land, well watered, and in every way particularly adapted for dairy purposes.

(E) That tract of land in Varina District, on the New Market Road, Henrico County, consisting of 73 68-100 acres, more or less, about 9 miles from the city of Richmond, with dwelling and combination barn, stable and other outbuildings. This property lies upon the Four-Mile Creek, and is well watered.

(F) A tract of land consisting of 96 59-100 acres, more or less, lying on the Central or Darbytown Road, near Willis's Church. The property has a dwelling and usual farm improvements, and runs back to a branch. A description and accurate survey of this property may be found filed with the papers in the ended suit of Whitlock vs. Melton, in the files of the old Henrico County Court. This is the same property conveyed to Lawrence Casselman by F. S. Harkless.

TERMS: One-third cash, balance at six and twelve months in equal installments, purchaser to execute negotiable notes bearing interest from the date of conveyance of sale for the deferred payments, with right of purchaser to pay whole amount in cash, if he shall so elect, title of the property to be retained by the court until the whole purchase money is paid and a deed directed to be executed to the purchaser.

containing eleven rooms and the usual conveniences, all in A1 condition, having a frontage of 28 feet by a depth of 124 feet to an alley.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust, dated 4th day of March, 1916, of record in the clerk's office Richmond Chancery Court, in D. B. 236 page 434 default having been made in the payment of the debt thereby secured, and being requested so to do, we will sell, by auction, upon the premises on WEDNESDAY, THE 26TH DAY OF JULY, 1916,

at 6 o'clock P. M.,

the property located as above.

We wish to impress homeseekers with the attractiveness of this property as well as the boulevard upon which it is located, it being the pride of the East End. By consent the terms will be: one-third of the purchase price in cash, the residue at six and twelve months for negotiable notes, with 6 per cent interest added, secured by a deed of trust upon the property, or for all cash, at the option of the purchaser.

EDWARD S. ROSE,
WILLIAM S. ROSE,
Trustees.

EXECUTORS' AUCTION SALE OF THAT VERY DESIRABLE VACANT LOT, SITUATED ON THE SOUTHWEST CORNER OF CARY AND TWENTIETH STREETS.

As Executors for the late John O'Hagan, we will sell at Public Auction, on the premises, on TUESDAY, JULY 25TH, 1916,

AT 4 O'CLOCK P. M.,

that very valuable business lot, which fronts eighty-eight (88) feet on the southside of Cary Street, and runs back southwardly along the western line of Twentieth Street a distance of one hundred and twenty (120) feet to Dock Street, upon which it also has a frontage of eighty-eight (88) feet, and in addition has railroad trackage on both Cary and Dock Streets. It is also close enough to the dock to load and unload without extra drayage charges. This property is an ideal manufacturing site.

TERMS: One-fourth cash, balance one, two, three, four and five years, secured by deed of trust, bearing 6% interest, or all cash.

JOHN J. BLAKE,
FRANK H. NOTT, Executors.
