IN MEMORIAM.

CHRISTIAN—In sad but loving remembrance of our darling mother, ROBERT CHRISTIAN, who died two months ago to-day, July 10, 1916.
Dear little Robert, we miss you so.
All through the day, wherever we go;
All through the night, how lone one it seems;
For the little voice wakes us out of our dreams.
We miss thee all through the weary hours,
We miss thee as others miss sunshine and flowers.
Day time and night time wherever we go,
Dear Little Robert, we miss you so.
By his aunts, LOTTIE, EVA, ANNIE.
CHRISTIAN—In loving remembrance of my dear grandson, ROBERT CHRISTIAN, who departed this life two months ago to-day, July 10, 1916.
Two sad months since you left me,
Whom I loved and cherished dear.
Can I help but feel lonely
When I do not see you here?
No more your kind and loving face
Shall meet the aloneness of home;
Yet in love I see you here,
While in sorrow I am alone.
It was so hard to part with you,
Oh so hard to see you die.
But I hope some day to meet you;
Some sweet day bye and bye.
By his devoted grandmother,
MRS. LIPSCOMB.

WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND!

At this time of year the "FOR RENT" Column of the T-D is the best friend you have---a man's best friend is one who helps him out of troubles and worries and does him favors.

The little ads in the T-D Columns have done more favors for people than a few---they are always reliable and on the job when you need them.

If you still have an unsolvable renting situation let these little friends help you out.

Their service is worth a thousand times the cost many times. Try 'em and see---the man at any of the T-D Want Ad Agencies will tell you all about it.
