REACTION AT CLOSE OF LIVELY SESSION

Volume of Trading During Day Reaches Nearly 2,000,000 Shares.

PROFESSIONALS ARE ACTIVE

Numerous New High Records Recorded—General Motors Sell at Unequaled Price of $750 a Share. Industrials Earning Heavily.

BY BROADAN WALL.

NEW YORK, September 14.—Stocks closed in the midst of a reaction in Wall street after another lively session in which numerous new high records were made. The volume of trading reached nearly 2,000,000 shares. The public was present in large numbers, but most of the business was done by professionals, and particularly by big operators who before this year always traded in London or Paris. Personal influence in the market were utterly unprecedented, for the record prices that to well informed traders and others, are being recorded as a matter of routine are being reached daily at that.

Bethlehem Steel, which is earning about $1 a day per share on every share of its stock, advanced twenty-five points thereon, while Motors soared at twenty-five days, Motors soar at the unparalleled price of $750 a share, a price never before touched by any stock on the New York Exchange, except Southern Pacific in the boom of 1901. United States Steel sold at nearly the highest point of 1907.

CRUCIBLE STEEL AND MIDVALE SHOW ADVANCES

Crucible Steel and Midvale, which are selling munition concerns under present conditions, made new high records for the year. Baldwin Locomotive and American Locomotive and Brooklyn Rapid Transit, American Can and Bethlehem Steel, among others, were well purchased. Consolidated Gas was made a record high on the news of the sale at a high level of its subsidiary in the afternoon carried up to 146.

Among the liquid munition stocks Industrial Alcohol, Atlas Powder, but the business in Du Pont Distillery suggested action soon to take up that class of shares, although the opinion is held that the recent reorganization of the company, at least for the near future, is unfavorable to Stale and Cuba Cane. Among the less widely traded in issues, Cuba Cane was in active demand, hardened its position to close fractionally within sight of the highest price of the year.

Profiting by the excited over the action of Judge Gary in the Steel dissolution suit, which has posed unfavorably for the tobacco trust, the last week, Tobacco Products made a sharp recovery on the publication of the decision, although information that the prosecution intends to appeal from the decision is held to be responsible for the close. Even after the decision in the suit, Tobacco Products was one of the most active issues of the day.

ATTENTION IS PAID TO MARINE STOCKS

In view of the exceptional earnings of the marine companies, it was no unusual thing for the shares of these companies to be in demand. Atlantic Gulf and Pacific Steamship, United Fruit, Atlantic Gulf and West Indies Steamship, Atlantic Gulf and Pacific Steamship
