DETROIT CROWDS BOSTON

TYGERS TAKE GAME FROM YANKEES BY CLOSE SCORE

Both Teams Fail to Deliver Necessary Hit While Runners Are on Bags.

DETROIT, September 15.—Detroit took the final game from New York to-day, 4 to 3, in which the hitting of Bush was a conspicuous feature. Both teams, however, failed to hit, with men on the bags, Detroit failing twice, with runners on third, and New York three times, with men on second. The score:

BIG LEAGUES DRAFT MEN

VIRGINIA LEAGUE HARD HIT AND CONNIE MACK THRIVES

Field Has Been Pretty Well Picked Over, but Few Good Ones Still Remain.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, September 15.—A total of seventy-four minor league players were drafted by the different clubs of the National and American Leagues at the meeting of the National Baseball Commission here to-day.

Of this number the American League obtained forty-seven and the National twenty-seven. These latter figures do not signify that the American League was proportionately more lucky in the draw than the National, but that President Johnson's organization is a large majority of the drafts the Philadelphia Americans alone making an effort to obtain twenty-six youngsters through this method of baseball procedure.

Of the twenty-six that Connie Mack attempted to get twelve were forthcoming to him when the drawing of lots had been completed. He was surpassed, however, by the Chicago Americans, who obtained fourteen players. Next in point of number came the Cleveland Americans and the Chicago Nationals, with seven each, while the New York Americans corralled five, Cincinnati, Brooklyn and the St. Louis Americans each obtained four, while Detroit, Boston Nationals and Pittsburgh came away with three each. The New York Nationals, St. Louis Nationals, Philadelphia Nationals and Washington each received two, while the Boston Americans retired from the meeting room at the end of the draw without a single player.

That the minor league field has been picked over rather thoroughly for good material through the process of purchase was indicated by the fact that in no individual case was there an exceptional scramble for petition, the majority of the players being drafted by a single club.

At the beginning of the meeting it was announced that the major league clubs would be permitted to take five days in which to select their players from the class A and class AA clubs. Directly following the drawing of lots, however, this decision was changed and a ruling was made that the selections would have to be made to-day. This rule was complied with with five exceptions, Cleveland being undecided who they will take from Indianapolis and Baltimore; Chicago Americans being undecided relative to Montreal and Richmond, Va., and Washington announcing that they would choose later from St. Paul.

Every major league team was represented at the meeting, while numerous minor league magnates also put in an appearance.

Among the drafts were the following:

Gardiner, Newport News, St. Louis Nationals.

Henry, Petersburg, Va., Chicago Americans.

Lake, Newport News, Chicago Americans.

Ray, Newport News, Chicago Americans.

Teague, of Rocky Mount, Chicago Americans.

The commission finally decided to leave the world series tickets proposition to Chairman Herrmann. If on September 21 Chairman Herrmann believes it would be wise to have the tickets printed in order to save time, he was given the power to notify the management of the three teams who are the leading in the two races, the National and American Leagues, that they were privileged to have the tickets printed.

The commission took up several other minor questions, but announced on adjourning sine die that no decision had been reached.

Cobb Comes Back Strong

Ty Cobb gained five points on Tris Speaker, leading batsman of the American League, to-day when the latter failed to hit in three times at bat while Cobb was getting three hits in four trials. But fifteen points now separate them. Jackson also made a gain when he got two hits in four trials.

Daubert was the only leading batter of the National League to get into the game to-day, and he climbed from third to second place by getting two hits in three times at bat. The standings:

DOUBLE-HEADER WILL END BASEBALL SEASON

Field Events Will Sandwich Two Games in Broad Street Park This Afternoon—Great Throng of Fans and Some Stout Rooting Expected for Final Day.

Rain yesterday afternoon broke up next to the last game that will be played in Broad Street Park by International League teams this season. However, that won't stop the two games to be played this afternoon. Baltimore and Richmond will stage a double-header to begin promptly at 2 o'clock. At the end of the second game the season in Richmond will be over and baseball will be but a memory. A great throng of fans is expected to be in attendance.

Between the games there will be field events for the benefit of the Richmond players. There will be a sack race from second base to home plate. There will be outfield throwing, fungo hitting and a number of other interesting events, all of which will mean a $5 gold piece to the man who can make the record for the team. Five events are offered, and $5 gold pieces will be the rewards.

Between the games there will be the slabbists for the locals, all of which means that Jack Dunn will not get the three games he said he would get from Richmond.

Since the game this afternoon means the end of the International season, and therefore the end of professional baseball in Richmond for 1916, there is scant doubt but that a great throng of fans will be out this afternoon to witness the affray, and that the rooting will be above normal. The locals count strongly on taking both events and thereby ending the season in a creditable manner.
