The funeral will take place THIS (WEDNESDAY) AFTERNOON at 3 o'clock at grave in Shockoe Cemetery.

SMITH.—Died, Sunday, October 8, 7:50 P. M., at her residence, 306 West Leigh Street, MISS LUCIE A. SMITH, daughter of Cecilia J. Smith, and the late Thomas Smith. She leaves two sisters, Nina E. Smith and Florence M. to mourn her loss.

IN MEMORIAM.

SCRUGGS.—The subject of this sketch, ABRAHAM F. T. SCRUGGS, was born in the county of Fluvanna, Va., January 1, 1842. He was reared and educated in the county of his nativity, and under such environments as the time and community afforded he was one of the fine specimens of Virginia manhood. Intellectually he was rather above the average, and by the aid of observation and good books he became well informed on all subjects. When war was declared between the States he at once volunteered and drew his sword in defense of his native State. When Richmond was evacuated he was one of the guards detailed to escort President Davis from the Capital of the Confederacy, and was with Mr. Davis when he was captured. After the war ended and the smoke of battle cleared away he became a loyal citizen of the reconstructed Union and did all he could to bring about civil and financial prosperity. He married Miss Jennie Wood, of Caroline County, Va., and there were born unto them three girls and two boys. One of these sons, the Rev. J. T. Scruggs, is an honored minister of the Baptist Church. After the death of his first wife, Mr. Scruggs married the sister of his deceased wife, Miss Mattie Wood. One girl was born of this union, the baby of the household and the sixth child of the family circle. There are also two grandchildren. These children, with their widowed mother and stepmother, are left to scatter the roses of loving memory upon his grave. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity and was buried at Ashland, Va., with Masonic honors. For a number of years he was justice of the peace at Street, Va., and as a rule his decisions were all satisfactory. He dignified the office with justice and truth to the best of his ability, and this writer never heard of a single case reversed by the upper court. The community has lost a very valuable man and the State a faithful citizen. On the morning of September 24, 1916, our comrade answered the last roll and passed up to the eternal camping ground, where the soldier dreams no more of battle.
