DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

The co-partnership firm composed of Philip Hach and Albert Reeves, heretofore conducting a barbers' supply business in the city of Richmond, Va., at premises No. 311 West Broad Street, under the firm name and style of Hach & Reeves, has been dissolved by mutual consent this 16th day of October, 1916. By agreement, Albert Reeves has acquired the entire interest of his retiring partner, and will continue the business as heretofore, at the same premises, No. 311 West Broad Street. Albert Reeves is entitled to all the assets of the said partnership and assumes all its liabilities up to and including October 16, 1916, with the right to use the firm name for purposes of dissolution.

All persons owing said partnership are requested to make payment of their debts to Albert Reeves, and persons having claims against said firm are requested to present them to him for payment.

We each respectfully request patrons of our former firm to continue their relations as heretofore. Our relations with each other continue on the most amicable terms, and we bespeak your continued co-operation, and thank the trade for their former patronage.

PHILIP HACH.
ALBERT REEVES.

AUCTION SALES—To-Day

BY E. A. CATLIN & CO.,
Real Estate Auctioneers.
22 North Eighth Street.

AUCTION SALE OF

Centrally Located Property

THIRD STREET, NEAR BROAD.

To settle up an estate, we will sell by auction, on the premises, on

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1916,

at 4:30 o'clock P. M.,

that valuable, well located lot with the four brick dwellings and other improvements thereon, fronting about 87 1-2 feet on the east side of Third Street, and designated as Nos. 307, 309, 311 and 311 1-2.

The location of this property makes it very valuable, and it will pay you to attend this sale; it is just the location for several stores with modern apartments above to rent to people of moderate means, or it would make an excellent location for a large up-to-date garage, or for a large fire-proof storage building.

TERMS. The parties interested want all cash, but satisfactory arrangements can be made with the auctioneers, if purchaser so desires.
