GIANT MEETING OF PEACE ADVOCATES

munitions the United States has been a most valuable ally.

We do not believe it meet that any nation should dictate America's diplomacy in this crisis, and the published advice from foreign sources appearing daily in our newspapers as to the attitude we should take in the war, we resent as unwarranted interference. We regard all such acts, together with the inflammatory headlines in the Jingo element of the press, as preconceived and deliberate endeavors to decoy us from our traditional policy of peace and independent nationalism, and to precipitate our now happy nation into the horrors of the most terrible war that has ever stained the pages of history.

Beware of selfish interests. It is the conviction of the Friends of Peace that unless firm action is taken soon, the continued efforts of parties financially interested will, through covert acts, involve this country in the war, against the people's will.

Your organization is respectfully invited to send to the convention as many delegates as possible as the sentiment against war will be measured largely by the number of delegates.

Among those invited to address the convention, are Hon. William Jennings Bryan, ex-secretary of state; Hon. Charles Nagel, ex-secretary of commerce and labor; Senators Hoke Smith of Georgia, Works of California, Hiecock of Nebraska and Clapp of Minnesota; Congressmen Mann of Illinois and Buchanan of Illinois; Congressman Porter and Ex-Governor Pennypacker of Pennsylvania; Martin of North Dakota and "Cyclone" Davis of Texas; Miss Jane Addams of Chicago, and many divines and scholars of national reputation.

Massachusetts in 1789 Passes Temperance Law.

SIGNER OF DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE SIGNS ACT TO ENCOURAGE BREWING.

John Hancock, statesman and major general in our war for freedom, whose bold signature heads the list of imperishable names on the Declaration of Independence, when governor of Massachusetts for the second time signed the following temperance law.

"An act to encourage the manufacture of strong beer, ale and other malt liquors.

"Whereas, the manufacture of strong beer, ale and other malt liquors will promote the purposes of husbandry and commerce, by encouraging the growth of such materials as are peculiarly congenial to our soil and climate.

"And whereas, the wholesome qualities of malt liquors recommend themselves to general use as important means of preserving the health of the citizens of this commonwealth, and to prevent the pernicious effect of Strong Drink:

Be it therefore enacted that all brew houses shall be exempted from taxes for a term of five years after the passing of this act."

John Hancock

FITGER NATURAL BEER FILTERED PURE BY THE KIESELGUHR FILTER.

The purest beer is that beer filtered by the Kieselguhr filter. It is not pasteurized.

The pasteurized bottled beer generally in use cannot be so pure.

Pasteurized beer is heated in the bottles to a temperature that kills the micro organisms, but it is not filtered free from them.

Kieselguhr filtered beer is filtered pure of every yeast cell and micro organism, before the beer enters the bottles. In the scientifically clean bottle, hermetically sealed, it is the purest beer in the world.

The pasteurizing or superheating of beer kills its flavor. The filtering of beer preserves its flavor. Fitger Natural Beer filtered by the Kieselguhr filter (first of its kind in America) is pure and has the full delicious flavor of the natural draught beer as drawn fresh from the wood.
