REPUBLICAN OPPOSITION HOLDS UP HOUSING BILL

Gallinger Declares Provisions of Legislation for Commandeering of Dwellings Lead to Autocracy.

SWANSON DEFENDS MEASURE

Conflict of Jurisdiction Between Shipping Board and Department of Labor Delays Construction at Newport News, Says Harding.

[By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Unexpected opposition from the Republican side prevented passage of the $60,000,000 bill for housing war workers in the Senate to-day, and determined efforts to amend the measure will be made to-morrow.

Republican Leader Gallinger declared provisions of the legislation for commandeering of dwellings was "a step toward a species of autocracy," while Senator Fall, of New Mexico, Republican, said the measure was in response "to the voice of the master."

Senator Swanson, of Virginia, chairman of the Public Buildings Committee; Senator Fletcher, of Florida, chairman of the Commerce Committee, and other Democrats defended the legislation as vitally necessary to expedite manufacture of war materials.

Conflict of jurisdiction between the Shipping Board and Department of Labor, which would administer the $60,000,000, Senator Harding, of Ohio, said, has delayed the Shipping Board's housing plan under the $50,000,000 it was authorized last March, particularly at Newport News, Va., and Sparrow's Point, Md.

Suggesting that the President, instead of the Department of Labor, should be given power to carry out the housing program, Senator Fall said: "I have no confidence in the President's Cabinet members nor in their ability. In my judgment, they have proved themselves absolutely inefficient. I am not going to vote to clothe them with any further power.

"I will vote to clothe the President with absolutely autocratic power. The President stands responsible to the people for the conduct of the war. He shall not hide behind the skirts of Hoover or Garfield, or William B. Wilson (Secretary of Labor) or Baker. The President is the Secretary of War, the Secretary of State and the Secretary of the Navy."

Amusements

"Keep Smiling."

Although it is coming here so late in the season "Keep Smiling," the new musical comedy which will be seen at the Academy Friday, Saturday and Saturday matinee should prove to be one of the theatrical treats of the season. Moreover, local theatergoers will have the privilege of seeing the play before its New York opening, as the company was assembled by Lea Herrick and Julian Alfred, in association with A. S. Stern & Co., for a Broadway presentation. It will be shown in New York early in August, the present tour being limited to four weeks.

English Music Hall Queen at Lyric.

Another great laughing show is promised by Manager Rex for the latter half of the week at the Lyric, commencing with the matinee performance to-day. It is a bill abounding in novelty and comedy. Given prominent place is Josie Heather, the famous English comedienne, who is on her first American tour. Miss Heather is to the British vaudeville stage what Eva Tanguay is to the American. She has been the bill-topper of every classy vaudeville theater in the British Isles.

A comedy novelty on the same bill will be the act of La Veen and Cross, travesty artists, in "Roman Sports and Pastimes as They Were Not," a burlesque of the days of the mighty Caesar. Stanley and Marguerite will offer an amusing specialty. Blackface comedy of the knockabout type, with songs and dances, will be the contribution of Tancan Brothers, and the newest production of ventriloquial art, combined with comedy, will be supplied by Hugh McCormack and Grace Wallace. New motion pictures accompany the vaudeville bill.

SPEAKS AT Y. W. C. A.

Meeting of Unusual Interest Will Be Held Monday Night in Central Building.

A meeting of unusual interest will be held at the Young Women's Christian Association building Monday night at 8 o'clock, when Miss Marietta Smith, the executive secretary, will speak on "The Second Line of Defense." The talk will be repeated Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in order that women of the city who may be unable to attend the Monday meeting may be present Tuesday.

These meetings will mark a new departure in the association work, since hereafter these meetings will be held monthly for volunteer workers in the association and for all women who are interested in the industrial problem from the standpoint of properly housing the hundreds of young women who come to Richmond seeking employment.

National Capital News Cut Short

Happenings at Washington as Reflected in News Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Heads of express companies discussed to-day with the railroad administration a proposal for consolidating the express companies into one corporation, which would be authorized by Director-General McAdoo to conduct all the express business in the country. The corporation would have a capital stock of about $10,000,000, divided among the companies in proportion to the physical valuation of their properties.

Confirmation of the appointment of Baron Burian to be Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister in succession to Count Czernin, has been received at the State Department here from its own agencies in Europe. Burian has been regarded by officials here as more friendly to America in the past than any of the other statesmen of the dual empire. It is realized, however, that his attitude may have undergone a considerable change since the entry of America into the war.

The War Department has enough chaplains in the service and on its eligible list for all present needs, it was announced to-day, and no more applications will be accepted. More clergymen have applied for service than the army could use.

The House adopted to-day the conference report on the agricultural appropriation bill, with the exception of the Senate amendment for $2.50 wheat. Four hours of general debate on the wheat amendment was arranged for to-morrow.

Weather Bureau Reports Crops Hurt.

From the synopsis of the weather report and crop conditions for the week ending April 16, issued by the United States Department of Agriculture for Virginia, the continuous rain for a period of four days, together with a snow which was followed by low temperatures, caused a suspension of plowing and planting and affected fruit in almost all sections of the State. Although it was generally agreed by correspondents from practically all parts of Virginia that considerable damage had been done to the fruit crop no definite percentage could be determined. Warm weather and the past rains are expected to unite in their efforts to push forth the spring crops and make them grow at a rapid rate.

Collection of Books Continues.

Collecting of books for the soldiers by pupils of the high schools of the city goes merrily on. About 12,000 volumes have been collected up to the present time, and have been carried over to the State Library. The books are in an excellent state of preservation, many of them perfectly new. There are volumes of fiction, romance, science, biography, travel, poems, religion—a wide diversity of subject matter which will fill the mental needs of every class of fighting man overseas. The books will shortly be shipped to General Pershing's forces in response to his request for reading matter for the boys "over there."

Delivers Patriotic Address.

At the luncheon of the Tuesday Club in the Railroad Y. M. C. A., State Superintendent of Public Instruction Harris Hart spoke for several minutes along patriotic lines. He said that the flag of autocracy could not stand much longer before the flag of democracy because of the flagrant abuse of princely power, which has caused untold misery and hardship on the oppressed subjects of the Kaiser. He also said it was amazing how the German people, with their educational system and boast for Kultur, could perpetrate the atrocious crimes of which they are guilty.

Potato Demonstration To-Day.

At 11 o'clock this morning the special potato demonstration takes place at Miller & Rhoads' store, near the Sixth Street entrance. Mrs. Stewart Michaux and Mrs. Horace Wellford Jones will be in charge of the demonstration, assisted by members of the Housewives' League in Hoover costumes. The special dishes to be demonstrated are potato biscuit, Pittsburgh potatoes and potato cheese fondue. Potato dishes cooked by John Marshall High School pupils will be exhibited.

Maggie Walker Awarded Verdict.

Suit was instituted yesterday in the Law and Equity Court by J. P. Crobarger against the Virginia Railway and Power Company, in which the plaintiff seeks to recover damages amounting to $1,000.

In the case of Maggie L. Walker against the Standard Accident Insurance Company, instituted to recover the amount of money represented in the policy held by her on her husband's life, the jury returned a verdict of $1,500 in favor of the plaintiff.

Renowned Organist Will Play.

Gatty Sellars, a renowned interpreter of descriptive music, will be heard in a phororgan recital to-night and to-morrow night at the Second Baptist Church. The same program will be rendered here as has been given in Queen's Hall and at the Crystal Palace Music Festival in London by Mr. Sellars. No admission will be charged, and the public is invited.

WILL BUILD STEEL SHIPS AT YARD IN WILMINGTON

Carolina Shipbuilding Company Receives Contract for Eighteen Vessels of 9,600 Tons Each.

[By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Decision to establish a new government shipyard at Wilmington, N. C., with six ways for building steel vessels was announced to-day by the Shipping Board. The Carolina Shipbuilding Company, a subsidiary of the George A. Fuller Company, of New York, has been awarded the contract for the yard and for eighteen ships of 9,600 tons each, to be constructed before the end of 1919. This yard is in addition to that authorized at Wilmington for building concrete ships.

The ships will be of the Isherwood type, having a speed of eleven knots. There are said to be more standard plates in the Isherwood type than in other steel vessels, lending speed to the work of fabrication.

Complete plans for the Isherwood ship, valued at more than $20,000, were presented to the Shipping Board several days ago by the United States Steel Corporation. The Shipping Board had offered to purchase the plans.

Proposals to establish a new yard for building steel ships at Charleston, S. C., will not be acted upon favorably by the Shipping Board, as the result of an adverse report by its experts that the Charleston site was unsuited and involved too great an expenditure.

The ground available for building the yard at Charleston was across the river from the city proper, without railway or power connection with the city. It would have been necessary to build thirty-five miles of railway, expensive dock terminals, and to have extended power lines a long distance at great expense. There also was a doubt as to whether sufficient power could have been obtained for the use of the yard.

Prices asked for the ground sought for the yard were exorbitant in the opinion of the experts who investigated the site.

LIBERTY DAY AT ASHLAND

All Hanover to Unite in Celebration. Service Flag With 271 Stars Will Be Unfurled.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ASHLAND, VA., April 17.—On Friday, April 19, the town of Ashland and all Hanover County will unite in a great Liberty Day celebration and parade, in which there will probably be 2,000 or more participants.

A service flag will be unfurled on which will be 271 stars. As the county's quota was only 191, this is considered an excellent showing.

Hanover's contingent at Camp Lee will be sent to Ashland to participate in the celebration. Hon. Henry T. Wickham, of Hanover, will preside over the ceremonies, and will be introduced by Mayor Andrew Ellis, of Ashland.

Senator Claude A. Swanson will be the speaker of the day, and the program will be opened by prayer by Bishop D. J. O'Connell, of Richmond.

The citizens of the town and county generally beside a large number of visitors are expected to take active part in the exercises.

SAMMY LIVES ON HIGHER PLANS THAN U. S. CIVILIANS

This Is Conclusion of Dr. Daniel A. Poling, Who Made Personal Investigation.

[By Associated Press.]

BOSTON, April 17.—The American in uniform is living on a higher plane than the American in civil life. This is the conclusion of Dr. Daniel A. Poling, associate president and citizenship superintendent of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, who returned to-day after a stay of five weeks with the soldiers of the United States in France.

"The American soldier oversea is true to the finest traditions of American arms," said Dr. Poling. "The stories of wholesale drunkenness and vice, which have greatly disturbed the minds of thousands of people who have given their sons to the nation, are not true."

GARDEN BOOKLETS

State Library Has Supply of Literature Which It Will Distribute to Public.

The Virginia State Library has received from the National War Garden Commission, of Washington, a consignment of its books, "War Vegetable Gardening" and the "Home Storage of Vegetables," and will be glad, while these last, to distribute them to those wishing information on gardening and the storage of vegetables. These books are thirty-two pages, well illustrated, and the consignment received here is the special Southern edition.

This commission inspired the planting last year of over 3,000,000 war gardens in various parts of the United States, the product of which was estimated to be worth $350,000,000. The commission has recently sent organizers throughout the South, and they report an unprecedented interest in all the Southern States in war garden planting. This interest, the commission estimates, will result in several hundred per cent increase in garden planting in the South this year."

National Anthem Halts Court Case

Strains Float Into Window Where Sedition Trial Is Proceeding.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The trial for seditious utterances of five members of the staff of the Masses was proceeding peacefully in the Federal court Tuesday, as became a trial of avowed pacifists, when an unlooked-for interruption occurred. Through the open windows of the courtroom floated the strains of "The Star-Spangled Banner," which was being played by a naval band beside the Liberty Bell in City Hall Park.

For a brief instant everything and everybody paused and listened, and then Josephine Bell, a poetess, indicted for criticizing the imprisonment of Emma Goldman, leaped to her feet. C. Merrill Rogers, business manager of the Masses, was next on his feet. Judge Hand, who presided, rose from his seat and jurymen, lawyers and spectators quickly followed. All stood at respectful attention during the rendition of the national anthem. Then the trial proceeded.

After the jury box had been filled the remainder of the day was spent in reading into the minutes alleged seditious articles printed in the Masses, and proving their appearance and that the Masses circulated about 27,000 copies. Those on trial besides Josephine Bell and C. Merrill Rogers are Max Eastman, editor and publisher of the Masses, Floyd Dell, editorial writer, and Arthur Young, cartoonist.

TAKE MEASURES TO PROVIDE FOR PROSPECTIVE PRISONERS

Red Cross Will Ship Food Packages, to Be Stored at Points Readily Accessible.

[By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Captured American soldiers, arriving in German prison camps, will find American Red Cross emergency food parcels awaiting them if the German government consents to extension of an agreement already in operation at one camp.

It was announced at Red Cross headquarters here to-day that permission has been obtained to store emergency supplies at the prison camp at Tuchel, West Prussia, and that 360 ten-pound food parcels have been shipped there from the Red Cross headquarters for relief of prisoners at Berne, Switzerland. About twenty-five Americans now are prisoners at the Tuchel Camp.

LAY KEEL OF SHIP

Emergency Fleet Begins Work on Twenty-Eighth Merchant Vessel.

[By Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, April 17.—The Submarine Boat Corporation announced here to-day that the keel of a 5,500-ton steel ship, which was laid at its yards at Newark, N. J., at noon, represents the twenty-eighth merchant vessel now under construction there for the Emergency Fleet Corporation. It was stated that as soon as the plant is operated at maximum capacity a complete vessel will be produced every two days.

Production Reduced.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Production of print paper declined in the four weeks ending March 31, as shown in stastistics made public to-day by the Federal Trade Commission. Shipments continued to exceed production, and mill stocks showed a decrease of more than 7,000 tons.

Huns Shoot Down Statue.

LONDON, April 17.—The famous leaning virgin at the top of the Albert Cathedral, now behind the German lines, was shot down by German artillery Tuesday, says a dispatch from British headquarters in France, to Reuter's Limited. It is not known, the correspondent adds, whether the destruction of the statue was an act of vandalism or an accident.
