STOCKS ALMOST BUOYANT WHEN GOOD NEWS COMES

Rumors of Kaiser's Abdication and Split of Central Powers Keep Market in Turmoil.

SATURDAY IS "LIBERTY DAY"

Mexican Petroleum Attracts Most Attention, With Sharp Advance to a New High Level—Steels and Tobaccos Also Advance.

BY BROADAN WALL.

NEW YORK, October 11.—Stocks were almost buoyant at times to-day as traders realized what the news might be before Monday morning. Rumors of the Kaiser's abdication, official news of actual advances on all parts of the battle line, together with expectation of the collapse of Turkey and a split between Austria and Germany, kept the market in a turmoil. Mexican Petroleum attracted most attention, with a sharp advance to a new high level. American International, Marine preferred, the Biscuit stocks and finally the steels and tobaccos joined the advancing column. Rails were strong all day under leadership of Union Pacific, but no great advance was made in that list.

The close was strong at about the best prices. Action of the list during the day was undoubtedly due to covering by shorts, for there has been no appreciable increase in public interest and no detailed news on any stock to account for the advance.

Saturday is Liberty Day, the new name for Columbus Day. It took Christopher Columbus 426 years to gain recognition from the great nation that he made possible. Nobody during all that time ever doubted the destiny of America. This gives hope for the stock market. Somebody may recognize in the time the wonderful bargains that are lying neglected. Judging from the action of the market to-day, it will not take 426 years either. If the war should end now the United States would be left the one strong nation in the world practically untouched by the war. It would have gone into the war just far enough to prove its marvelous strength and display its unappraisable wealth.

WAR HAS BOOSTED THE STOCKS OF AMERICA

Should the war end now the expense to which the nation has been put would be a very moderate price to pay for the business advertising, not to mention the high regard in which the nation is now held as compared with five years ago. The nonsense about the American people being crazy about money has been knocked out of even the Germans. It is the destiny of this nation to dominate the world for the next 500 years, and the world will accept that domination gladly because it will be the kindly leadership of a big brother.

For investors to sell stocks in the leading industries of the world's greatest nation after those stocks have discounted in price the worst features of peace, as stocks have done in Wall Street now, is an action becoming to true Americans.

When American Tobacco rose 3 1-2 points yesterday, Sumatra 3 1-4, Cigar Stores and Tobacco Products 1 1-1 each, Wall Street began to realize that peace could not hurt these issues. But perhaps it did not realize how war has helped them.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, October 11.—Covering and trade buying caused sharp rallies in the cotton market to-day. Quotations were not fully maintained, with the close barely steady at a net gain of 1 to 4 points. After selling off from 30@35 December contracts rallied to 30@40 or 45 points above last night's level, and 15@20 compared with 29@62 the low level of yesterday morning. The market opened steady at declines of 4 points on December but generally 10 to 16 points higher and within minutes soldiers 27 points right after that call with October touching 31.30 and January 30.15. This advance met liquidation, local pressure and scattered Southern selling under which prices soon turned easier. The selling was encouraged by continued favorable weather.

Spot cotton quiet; middling, 32.60.

NEW YORK, October 11.—Port movement: Middling, 32.60 bales; stock, 77,321 bales. Minor ports—Receipts, 2,322 bales; exports, 1,569 bales; stock, 16,103 bales.

Total to-day at all ports—Receipts, 21,558 bales; exports, 7,962 bales; stock, 1,035,677 bales.

Total for week at all ports—Receipts, 172,099 bales; exports, 210,748 bales.

Total for season—Receipts, 1,641,788 bales; exports, 756,249 bales.

NEW ORLEANS, October 11.—Comparatively small price changes were recorded in cotton to-day, although the market moved both below and above the level of yesterday's close. The double holidays following the close to-night made for quiet trading, and business was all the more restricted because of the uncertainty in the political situation. The net change for the session was insignificant, a rise of 1 to 5 points, inclined to go lower on the opening, the market was soon at a loss of 15 to 25 points, chiefly as the result of liquidation of long contracts. Buying increased on this soft spot and a quick recovery resulted.

Spot cotton steady and unchanged. Sales on the spot, 944 bales; to arrive, 190 bales. Good middling, 31.75.
