AIR PRICE COMMITTEE HOLDS PRIVATE SESSION

fts Behind Closed Doors and Discusses Question of Policy and Procedure.

ETAILS NOT GIVEN OUT

ublic Barred From Meeting, but It Is Understood That Colonel Keiley Left Letter to Be Read Bearing on Investigations.

Richmond's fair-price committee met esterday afternoon in executive session on in the courtroom of the Corporation Commission. Those present ere: Chairman Grayson Dashiell, rs. J. R. Anderson, Thomas B. Morton, R. W. Merchant, E. B. Schmidt, ugh Antrim and Mrs. Stuart Michaux. When reporters appeared before the eeting convened they were told that e session would be behind closed oors.

Questions of Policy Discussed.

This was done. It is understood that e meeting lasted one hour and a half nd was concerned principally with e question of policy and procedure the work to be undertaken. Mem-ers of the committee declined to go nto any further details last night hen asked what action the committee ook.

Before leaving Richmond yesterday, olonel Keiley left a letter addressed Chairman Dashiell to be read to the ommittee. In this letter he declared hat too great stress should not be aid on the necessity of punitive meas-res which would be provided for in he Anti-Profiteering Act now before ongress. He urged the committee to roceed at once with an investigation determine fair prices and make the st known as soon as possible.

Favors Fair Profits.

Colonel Kieley also stated that he as in favor of determining fair rofits instead of fair prices, a view hich met with approval at a meeting f the subcommittee in his office hursday afternoon. His idea of the rovince of the committee was the onservation of the right of the people nd their protection from improper rofiteering and not an arbitrary ourse which would be destructive of rade, he concluded in his letter.

Marshall Begins Culling Material.

Practice is still in the elementary stage, but Coach Marshall is gradually tightening up on his men and is beginning to call his varsity material for the coming season. The deciding factor in any battle, physical conditions being equal, is, of course, the spirit of the men. The Randolph-Macon men have that, and they have it in overflowing abundance. When it comes to real all-wool and yard-wide pep and enthusiasm, the Yellow Jackets have it, and what it takes to go out after the bacon and make a hefty stab at bringing it home the Jackets have it!
