SPIDERS MEET MARYLAND

RICHMOND COLLEGE STARTS GRIDIRON SEASON OCTOBER 2

Coach Dobson Says Arrangements With Marylanders Practically Completed. Other Big Contests Booked.

Richmond College practically is assured of opening the 1920 gridiron season at Boulevard Field next fall in a game with the Maryland State College. Such was the announcement made by Frank M. Dobson, director of athletics at Richmond College, last night. Dobson's announcement came at the close of a perfect day for Richmond sport followers, for the director earlier in the day had announced that Virginia Polytechnic Institute and Wake Forest would battle the Spiders in this city November 8 and 15, respectively.

Has Excellent Record.

In making the announcement regarding the Maryland State game the coach made it plain that while the game with the Marylanders was not a "sure thing," he was in a position to state that arrangements had been practically completed for the staging of the affair. Maryland State this last year had an excellent record against university teams. She defeated the University of Virginia on Lambeth Field and held the strong Virginia Polytechnic Institute aggregation to a 6 to 0 score in Maryland. Maryland State also played Yale and made a creditable showing against the Eli.

Having virtually completed arrangements with the Maryland college, Richmond College will furnish this city with real football games next fall. Coach Dobson came forward with the announcement several days ago that Davidson College would meet the Spiders here October 23.

Last night's announcement will give this city four big gridiron battles, and in addition the teams of the Eastern Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Association will be met. With the teams of the organization traditional favorites here 1920 should be a bang-up season for Richmond in the way of football battles.

Other Negotiations Complete.

Not content with having arranged four games Coach Dobson is making arrangements for more gridiron battles for Richmond. Negotiations are on for games with Washington and Lee and Johns Hopkins Universities. Coach Dobson is optimistic over the prospects of bringing these eleven here and expects to announce in a few days that these games are assured. Wake Forest and Davidson both are North Carolina colleges and the tinge of interstate competition will create additional interest in the games.

Dates Set for Games.

Arranging of these games more than likely will cause considerable comment as to what effect the step taken by the Spiders will have upon their schedule with the teams of the Eastern Virginia Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association. The organization is composed of Richmond College, Hampden-Sidney, Randolph-Macon and William and Mary, and for the last several years each team has met the other twice on the gridiron. The two-game proposition has met with the disapproval of athletic authorities at William and Mary and Richmond College, who advocate one game, and this matter will be threshed out at the meeting of the directors of the association in January, 1920. In view of the fact that the Williamsburg and Richmond authorities have come out and stated their positions in the matter, this topic will be of the most vital importance to the association.

Will Not Play Virginia.

In announcing the booking of the big games Coach Dobson made the statement that the Spiders will not play the University of Virginia. The local college was offered a date on the Orange and Blue schedule, but this was canceled, in view of the fact that satisfactory arrangements could not be made. The Spiders made overtures to the university athletic authorities for a game at Stadium Field, Westhampton, but these fell through.

When Tech journeys to Richmond for a game next fall it will be the first time in many years that the Orange and Maroon have played before a local audience. For several years Tech appeared here annually battling University of North Carolina and other teams, but not in recent years have the Blacksburg boys been seen here. Washington and Lee will not be new to this city. The generals played here last in 1917, when they were defeated by Washington and Jefferson at Boulevard Field. In closing with Wake Forest and Davidson College, Coach Dobson brings these teams here for their initial visit. Both eleven's are rated high in football circles of North Carolina and South, and these games should attract considerable attention, and be well patronized. Should Johns Hopkins and Maryland State be induced to come here, it will mark the first appearance of either school on a local gridiron.

Richmond College's tentative 1920 schedule, assuming that the Spiders will play one game with each of the teams in the Eastern Virginia Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association, follows:

October 2—Maryland State College at Richmond.
October 23—Davidson College at Richmond.
November 6—V. P. I. at Richmond.
November 13—Wake Forest, at Richmond.
William and Mary (date not determined).
Hampden-Sidney (date not determined).
Randolph-Macon (date not determined).

BRITAIN CAPTURES FIRST

Joey Fox, Englishman, Outpoints Joe Lynch in Initial Boxing Exhibition.

[By Universal Service.]

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 22.—The honors went to Britain in the first of the bouts at the Newark Sportsmen's Club tonight, Joey Fox, the English featherweight, outpointing Joe Lynch of New York, who recently battled with Jimmy Wilde, English champion. Fox had Lynch missing frequently but it was a live bout throughout. In the last round Fox dropped Lynch for the count of four. The bell rang just as the New Yorker rose.

There was great enthusiasm among the fight fans when Frank Moran staged his heralded "come back" in the heavyweight division. His "Mary Ann" worked with speed and accuracy.

Sergeant Burke, one of the best heavyweights developed in the American army, was the victim of the blonde haired batter who finished the set-to in the fast time of one minute and fifty-six seconds. It was a right to the chin which carried the warrior's waterloo.

Mickey Donley, of Newark, wrested the honors from Joe Benjamin, California lightweight, on points. For the first six rounds Donley flipped the scale heavily in his favor with a vicious left jab, but in the seventh Benjamin came along furiously and captured the session. In the eighth Benjamin attempted to even up matters, but Donley was game and more than held his own.

Jack Sharkey, of New York, who recently earned a decision in Milwaukee over Jimmy Wilde, the British flyweight champion, had an easy time in his bout with Patsy Johnson, the Trenton bantam. Jack drove him all over the ring, and repeatedly had Patsy on the verge of a haymaker, but the Trenton lad was facile at covering up. The fight went the entire eight rounds, with Sharkey showing his superiority at every turn.

Browns Sell Former Yank.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Dec. 22.—Nick Cullop, left-handed pitcher, has been purchased by the Salt Lake baseball club from the St. Louis Americans, it was announced today. Cullop formerly was with the New York Yankees.

Large Amount Offered For Star of Cardinals

[By Associated Press.]

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 22.—Seventy thousand dollars and four players have been offered to the St. Louis National League baseball club for Roger Hornsby, according to President Branch Rickey, of the club, in a signed statement here today. He added that the offer was refused, and that Hornsby is not for sale. President Rickey would not divulge the name of the club that made the offer.

HAMPDEN-SIDNEY QUINT HALTS PRACTICE FOR EXAMS

Scholastic Work Makes It Necessary for Team to Quit Until After Holidays.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

HAMPDEN-SIDNEY, Dec. 22.—Fall term examinations have caused a temporary let up in the basketball practice of the candidates for the quint of Hampden-Sidney College. Coach Younger announces that the no more "official practice" will be held until the students return to college after the Christmas holidays. The coach's announcement has not entirely stopped basketball amongst the Tigers. Each afternoon several candidates for the team visit the gymnasium and impromptu games are staged. The men believe that by using this time for practice they may be in better condition when the squad is called together after the New Year.

Charles A. Stevens, of Richmond, Va., is manager of the Hampden-Sidney quint, and has booked games with several important teams, including games with Washington and Lee and Virginia Military Institute in Lexington. The schedule follows:

January 5—Farmville Athletic Club, at Hampden-Sidney.
January 10—Raven Athletic Club at Hampden-Sidney.
January 12—Lynchburg College, at Lynchburg.
January 13—Washington and Lee, at Lexington.
January 14—V. M. I., at Lexington.
January 17—Union Theological Seminary, at Hampden-Sidney.
January 20—Lynchburg Y. M. C. A., at Lynchburg.
January 22—Roanoke College, at Salem.
January 24—Lynchburg College, at Hampden-Sidney.
January 28—Farmville A. C., at Farmville.
January 31—Medical College of Virginia, at Hampden-Sidney.
February 5—Roanoke College, at Hampden-Sidney.
February 7—Richmond College, at Hampden-Sidney (championship).
February 10—Randolph-Macon, at Ashland (championship).
February 14—William and Mary, at Hampden-Sidney (championship).
February 17—William and Mary, at Williamsburg (championship).
February 18—R. C., at Richmond (championship).
February 20—Davidson College, at Hampden-Sidney (pending).
February 26—St. Johns University, at Hampden-Sidney (pending).
February 21—R. M., at Hampden-Sidney (championship).
February 24—Farmville A. C., at Farmville.
February 27—Wake Forest, at Hampden-Sidney.

REID AND VUNCK WINNERS

SPECIAL MATCH AT PIETSCH ALLEYS WON BY FORTY PINS

Jake Rowsey Off Color, Rolling Lowest Score—Duck Pins at Palace.

Reid and Vunck last night demonstarted that they have few superiors when it comes to spilling tenpins in a doubles match. This pair defeated "Mike" Deasy and "Jake" Rowsey by the margin of forty pins in a six-game tenpin match on the Pietsch Alleys. In the number of games won and lost the match resulted in a tie, each team winning and losing three times, but victory was determined by total pins, and the first named pair was victorious with a score of 2,248. Deasy and Rowsey enmassed a total of 2,208 pins in the six games.

Deasy Rolls Consistently.

Deasy, Rowsey's partner, gave a great exhibition of consistent bowling, finishing above the 200 mark in three of the six games, and making high score of 226 for the night in one of the matches. Deasy's total was well above that of any of his opponents. He incidentally made six consecutive strikes in the last game. "Jake" Rowsey was off color and rolled the lowest score of the evening, 121, in the first game. However, "Jake" improved gradually and was getting in shape when the sixth game closed.

Special Match Friday Night.

Interest now is centered in a match between the winners of last night's affair and the Whitman's team. Whit and his son Ray will roll Reid and Vunck a series of games Friday night, commencing at the Palace runs at 8 o'clock and finishing at Pietsch Alleys. Whit makes his initial appearance in this exhibition, while Reid will bowl his last game. Reid expects to leave town, and will leave a hole in the line-up of the Cook Printing Company team, which is leading the City League at this time chiefly through the consistent work of Reid. He has an average of 194.10 pins in twenty-four games.

Results of last night's match follow:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	Totals.
Reid	124	166	178	192	196	214	1154
Vunck	123	157	168	204	198	184	1094

SPECIAL MATCH AT PALACE WON BY E. AUSTIN, KRAUSE AND COSBY

E. Austin, Krause and Cosby last night won the special duckpin match from Butler, Rawson and H. Austin at the Palace Alleys, by the comfortable margin of 115 pins. Cosby rolled the highest score for a single game, and his number of pins for the three games was more than any of his opponents.

The scores follow:

	1	2	3	Totals.
Butler	84	87	87	258
Rawson	83	85	91	259
H. Austin	82	88	71	241
Total				758
E. Austin	86	79	111	276

PAIR OF STARS WILL RETURN

Jamerson and Offerdinger, Forward and Guard Respectively, Will Play for Hill City Quint.

LYNCHBURG, VA., Dec. 22.—H. Carroll Jamerson, for a number of years star right forward of the crack Lynchburg basketball quint, who played last year on a Holyoke, Mass., team, has returned to Lynchburg and will take his old place with this year's five. Theodore Offerdinger, the aggressive guard of the same team who retired from the game several seasons ago, has been induced to return. The outlook for an unusually clever aggregation now seems certain.

BOSTON'S GREAT DRY DOCK IS PLACED IN COMMISSION

Battleship Virginia Has Distinction of Being First Craft to Test New Enterprise.

[By Associated Press.]

BOSTON, Dec. 22.—The Commonwealth Dry Dock, largest of its type on the Atlantic Coast, and capable of accommodating the largest vessel afloat, was placed in commission here today.

The battleship Virginia was selected for the distinction of being the first to test the dock, and due ceremony attended the opening, with men prominent in naval, State, city and commercial life present.

The dock cost the State $3,000,000 to construct, and was recently sold with a large tract of adjoining land to the United States government for $1,100,000. It is 1,170 feet long and 114 feet 9 inches deep. The depth over the sill at low water is thirty-five feet.

Next Games.

Monday night at Blues Armory—Federal Reserve vs. First National, National State and City vs. Broad Street.

Bank basketball among the men employees of local financial institutions started in earnest last night with two games in the gymnasium of the Blues' Armory. The quint of the Federal won from the Broad Street Bank team by the score of 45 to 7, while the Merchants' National was defeated for the first time since the championship games began, by the score of 19 to 16, by the American National quintet. Both were scrappy and hard-fought contests throughout, and a large crowd was present to spur the teams on.

Merchants' National and the American National furnished a "real" game, the latter team finally winning by the score of 19 to 16. At the opening of the second half the Merchants were leading, 14 to 11, but American fought hard and overcame this lead, winning by the same margin their opponents held them when the first half ended. Solon, one of the mainstays of the Merchants, was forced to retire when the first half was completed, owing to an injury.

Lack of practice resulted in the defeat of the Broad Street Bank quint at the hands of Federal Reserve by the score of 45 to 7. In the last game the work of Thompson, Bruton and Franck stood out prominently. The first of the trio made a total of twenty-five points, while Bruton scored eight, Franck, playing at guard, put up a good defensive game. Knox and August featured for Broad Street by scoring all the points their team made. The line-ups:

Summary: Goals from court—Bruton (4), Thompson (11), Siler (3), Franck (5), Knox (1), August (12). Goals from foul—Thompson (3), Knox (1).

[By Associated Press.]

CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 22.—President W. H. Walsh today announced that the South Atlantic League season would open April 22, and close September 11. The schedule will be so arranged that clubs will not be at home or on the road for more than six days at a time. Opening games will be played at Charleston, Greenville and Spartanburg, while Charleston, Columbia and Greenville will get July Fourth games. Augusta will play at Augusta on Georgia Memorial Day, Charlotte at Charlotte Mecklenburg Day and Augusta, Charlotte and Columbia at home Labor Day. Umpires Blackburn, Shuster and Browne have been signed.

TRIPLE TIE STILL EXISTS

Reed, Williams and Bowman Are on Even Footing for Billiard Prize.

Bowman defeated Williams, 100 to 76, in their triple tie for second prize in the pocket-billiard tourney at the Grand, and by so doing threw the three players, Reed, Bowman and Williams, right where they started, each having won and lost a game. Last week Reed defeated Bowman, 100 to 85; Williams defeated Reed, 100 to 86.

It was decided after the match that the three players would only play fifty points, instead of 100, as the rules of the tourney called for.

Williams defeated Bowman, 50 to 42, in this engagement. Tonight Daly and Gilliam meet in the tie for third place, as do Reed and Williams.

PLEA MADE FOR ARMORIES

ARTHUR VAN BUREN ASKS THAT CITY TAKE ACTION

Tells Recreation Committees Lack of Floors Hampering Development of Richmond's Young Men.

Speaking before the executive committees of the Richmond Playground and Recreation Association and the War Camp Community Service and others interested in recreational activities at a meeting held in the Army and Navy Community Club last night, Arthur Van Buren, president of the Richmond Amateur Athletic Federation, made a plea for the use of the armories for the staging of basketball games.

He declared that there were now absolutely no facilities for winter sport in Richmond because of the unwillingness of city officials to throw open the armories for basketball games and track meets. This was a distinct drawback to the physical development of the young men, he said.

Following his short talk, a motion was carried calling for the appointment of a committee from the body to see the Mayor and endeavor to secure the use of the armories. This committee will be appointed today by Judge J. Hoge Ricks, who presided at the meeting last night.

Mr. Van Buren told of the long and fruitless struggle of the Richmond Amateur Athletic Federation for a place to stage basketball games in the winter months. In the course of his talk, he criticized the policy which allowed the armories to be used for dances and kept them from use for athletic purposes.
