LOUISVILLE AGOG OVER 1920 KENTUCKY DERBY

Huge Throng Arriving to Attend Biggest Racing Event of 1920 Season.

[By Associated Press.]

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 7.—Twenty-two 3-year-old thoroughbreds, twenty colts and two fillies, considered the best on the American turf, today were declared fit for the Kentucky derby. Those whose owners accept the issue will attempt to negotiate a mile and a quarter at Churchill Downs tomorrow afternoon for a stake carrying $30,000 in added money, the richest 1920 turf prize in the country.

Expectations today were for a record-breaking attendance, predictions reaching as high as 60,000 spectators. Already hotels were reported taxed to capacity, with inability to heed requests for even cots in the corridors. Additional throngs are reported on the way in special trains from New York, Chicago, New Orleans and a number of other points.

At the race track the number of pari-mutuel betting machines under the greatly enlarged grand-stand, has been increased to 105, and will provide what is believed to be ample facilities for the speculative public which, with approximately half that number, wagered $872,000 on the 1919 derby.

The race itself, a large preparation of turfmen continue to assert, will be the most open in its history. Forecasts for showers tomorrow and the consequent uncertainty of track conditions added to their perplexity in selecting favorites.

Among the twenty-two entries, however, Wildair, Damask and Upset, the Harry Payne Whitney entry, had a very large following and apparently ruled favorite on the day before the race. Donaconna and Unwatch, the George W. Loft pair, were considered next in popular esteem. Blazes, Paul Jones, Peace Pennant and Sandy Beal also had a considerable following, while David Harum, Cleopatra, Prince Pal, Sterlings, Bersaglliere, Golden Broom, By Golly, Heron, Ethel Gray, Patches, Westwood, Simpleton and Kinnoul were not unconsidered.

Unofficial odds ranged from five to one on the leaders to 50 to 1 on some of the other entries.

Heron, according to the entries published today, is given the rail, with Peace Pennant on the outside.

Broad jump—Aaronzen (Hopkins); Matzon (W. & L.); Rinehart (Virginia); Carpenter (Tech); Field (Virginia); Byrd (Tech).

JOHN MARSHALL TO MEET MAURY HERE THIS MORNING

Richmond High School Nine Ready for Invasion of Seaside Tossers.

John Marshall High School has Boulevard Field this morning for its game with Maury High School, of Norfolk. A battle royal is anticipated, as the two prep outfits have been the keenest of rivals for years. They have stood almost matched in all sports up to this year, when the Richmond high school has seemed to get the edge on the "Harbor Boys," and has defeated them in football and basketball.

Nothing is known as to the Norfolk high school's line-up, except that their pitcher and one of their main reliances is Toolin, who played center on the Maury basketball team.

Harrison, of John Marshall, will pitch the entire game, unless the Marshallites pile up such a lead as to allow Coach Billy Hay to give him a rest in the latter part of the game, and put Hudson or Crouch in the box.

COLTS MAKE IT TWO IN A ROW FROM SUFFOLK

Locals Continue Winning Streak by Vanquishing Visitors, 10 to 4.

Richmond romped the Suffolk Cats again yesterday afternoon at Boulevard Field, by the score of 10 to 4 and so far have a clean slate for the week. The victory brought the Colts' string of victories to five in a row, as the locals walked over Portsmouth three times during the first half of the week.

Yesterday's game proved to be a free-hitting contest and one that the fans appeared to enjoy thoroughly. The local club had the best of the affair in hitting, and garnered a total of fifteen hits off "Chief" Bradley, Suffolk's Indian pitcher, while the visitors could get but eight hits off "Rusty" Bacon.

Bacon, although not hit hard by Suffolk with the exception of the ninth inning, when the invading hosts scored three runs on four hits, did not appear to be in the best of form. The pitcher was wild and his inability to locate the plate had the fans guessing throughout the battle.

Richmond took a liking to Bradley's slants in the opening frame and scored the first run after two men had been retired. Jim Poole, the hard-hitting first baseman, received free transportation to first base and the lanky guardian of the initial sack crossed the plate when Manager Gooch slammed one to right field and pulled up at third base. Arragon went out on an easy infield roller and the manager was left stranded.

Stuart and Bacon Hit for Circuit.

Luke Stuart, the first man to hit for the Colts in the second inning, repeated his performance of Thursday by knocking the ball over the left field fence. Daughton and Abbott were retired, but Bacon came to bat and hit the hardest drive seen on the local field this season. The pitcher met the ball squarely and it sailed high over the left field fence. It was Bacon's second home run of the season and the third for Stuart.

Suffolk scored its initial counter in the third inning without securing a hit. Street worked Bacon for a base on balls. The catcher and manager took second on Strain's infield out. He went to third when Arragon muffed Bradley's roller. Bacon walked Kelly and the bases were filled. The pitcher found himself and fanned Gartner, but Crow was walked and Street was forced in. A. Poole ended the game by flying out to Holmes in centerfield.

Richmond scored twice in the fifth inning. Poole walked and went to second when Gooch bunted. Arragon scored the first baseman with a single and the Cuban took second on the throw-in. Luke grounded to Davies. Abbott's single scored Arragon and put Stuart on third, but Bacon struck out.

Street Drops Davies' Throw.

Angels Arragon scored Richmond's only run in the "lucky seventh." The Cuban singled and took second when Bradley was guilty of a balk. Stuart hit to Davies, at first base, and Arragon came home. The visiting player threw a Street pitch after touching Stuart, and Arragon would have been caught at the plate had not Street dropped the throw.

Four runs in the eighth inning practically cinched the game for the home team. Abbott and Bacon singled. Baker repeated and Holmes scored Abbott and Bacon with a single. "Jesse" went to third and scored when Third Baseman Crow let A. Poole's throw get by him. Holmes was on third base when Crow recovered the ball and threw to Strain, who covered the bag. Jim Poole scored the final run. He tripled to right field and crossed on Arragon's third single of the day.

Suffolk rallied in the ninth. With one man out, Bradley doubled. Kelly flew out to Daughton, but Gartner doubled and Bradley scored. Crow singled and Gartner scored. Crow went to second on a wild pitch and scored when A. Poole doubled. Mack ended the game by flying out to Daughton.

Today's game will be called at 4 o'clock.

GOOBERS WIN IN TENTH

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NEWPORT NEWS, May 7.—In a beautiful game of baseball, featured by excellent ball playing by both teams, Petersburg this afternoon defeated Newport News in the tenth inning by a score of 3 to 2.

The Shipbuilders played an errorless game throughout, while the Goobers had but one fizzle charged to their list.

To keep the final result ever in doubt, the scores came in by single tallies, each team scoring one in the second and seventh innings.

The ninth found both sides unable to break away, but in the locals' end of the fatal tenth Hendleman stiffened his nearly perfect resistance and made sufficient the one-run lead gained by his teammates.

WILSON WINS ANOTHER

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

PORTSMOUTH, VA., May 7.—Wilson walked away in the second game of the series with Portsmouth today, winning 5 to 4.

McGloughlin pitched his first game of the season for the Truckers and was touched up lively in the first inning, when Wilson practically cinched the game.

Portsmouth outhit the visitors, however, but the local drives were not as timely as those of Wilson.

GIANTS BEAT DODGERS AFTER EXCITING BATTLE

New York Wins Out in Eleventh Inning by Scoring Three Runs.

[By Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, May 7.—The New York Giants won an exciting eleven inning game from Brooklyn here today, 7 to 6.

After Brooklyn took the lead in the ninth by scoring three runs on Benton, a poor fielding play by Olson permitted New York to tie in its half.

The Dodgers then took the lead by scoring two runs in the eleventh only to have New York to come back with three scores on triples by Lear and Kelly, a pass to Burns, Young's single and Schmandt's fumble on Fletcher. The latter play, coming with two out, let in the winning run.
