ST. LOUIS DEFEATS YANKS

RUTH'S TWENTY-EIGHTH HOMER COMES IN SECOND

Babe Walked on Next Three Trips to Plate—Slugger One Circuit Drive Under Record.

[By Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, July 14.—St. Louis defeated New York, 7 to 3. The visitors drove Quinn from the bed in the seventh inning.

On the first pitched ball in the second inning Ruth hit his twenty-eighth home run of the season, and was passed the next three times at the plate. He needs only one more home run to equal his record of last season. The score:

MEMPHIS GOLF LINKS SCENE OF FAST PLAYING

Bobby Jones Continues Good Work, Several Upsets Occur During Day.

[By Associated Press.]

MEMPHIS, TENN., July 14.—Five Western and Southwestern players and three from the Southeast remained as contenders for the championship at the end of today's play in the Amateur Tournament of the Western Golf Association.

"Bobby" Jones, of Atlanta, twice winner of the Southern championship and medalist in the present tournament, Pollack Boyd, of Chattanooga, and Henry Wenzler, of Memphis, made up the Southeastern contingent. The Western players who survived today's two rounds are: Charles "Chick" Evans, former National champion; Chas. Hubby, jr., of Dallas, Bark Wilbur, of Indianapolis; Clarence Wolff, of St. Louis, and James Ward, of Kansas City.

Jones and Evans, regarded as strong contenders for the championship, won both their matches handily. In the opening round Jones defeated Frank Crager, of Helena, five and four, and this afternoon eliminated George McDonnell seven and five. Evans won over R. S. Hickey, of Atlanta, in the morning round, four and three, and Bark Baxter, of Sparks, of Terre Haute in the afternoon, three and two.

Runner Up Eliminated.

One of the surprises of the day was the elimination of Richard Bockenkamp, of St. Louis, runner up to Jones in Medal play. He lost to Wilbur in the morning round, two up. Wilbur defeated Walter Kossmann, of St. Louis, in the first extra hole match of the tournament.

The scores of today's rounds follows:
