LITERARY AND ATHLETIC LEAGUE IS COMPLETED

Nearly Hundred Secondary Schools Qualify for Membership in State Organization.

OTHERS ARE COMING IN DAILY

All Contests Beginning This Year Will Be Conducted Under Auspices of Body—Prize Contests Find Hearty Response.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

UNIVERSITY, VA., Nov. 21.—The organization of the Virginia High School Literary and Athletic League has been completed for the session of 1920-1921. Thus far nearly a hundred secondary schools of the State of Virginia have enrolled in the athletic and literary contests to be held under the auspices of the league. Further responses from the enrollment cards sent out by headquarters are being received daily, and the indications are that before the Christmas holidays the membership will exceed four hundred.

Many of the smaller schools of the State are realizing the advantages offered by membership in this league and have signified their intention of entering the local, county, and state contests. Among those who have already enrolled are Alberne High School, Alberene, Va.; Upperville High School, Upperville, Va.; Appomattox Agricultural High School; Apple Grove High School, Apple Grove, Va.; Ashwood High School, Hot Springs, Va.; Beaverdam High School, Beaverdam, Va.; Bedford High School, Bedford, Va.; Berryville High School, Berryville, Va.; Bealeton High school, Bealeton, Va.; Boyce Agricultural High School, Boyce, Va.; Callao High School, Callao, Va.; Temple Hill High School, Castlewood, Va.; Charlotte Agricultural High School, Charlotte Courthouse, Va.; Chancellor High School, R. Among the larger high schools already enrolled are Charlottesville, Fredericksburg, Bristol, John Marshall, Newport News, Lynchburg, Petersburg, Roanoke, Staunton, Norfolk, Alexandria, South Norfolk, St. Christopher's School of Richmond, Va., Danville High, Virginia Episcopal School of Lynchburg, Va.; Woodberry Forest, Staunton Military Academy, and Fishburne Military Academy.

State in Districts.

Beginning with this year all high school athletic contest will be held under the auspices of the Virginia High School Literary and Athletic League. The State is divided into five districts and each district has a committee composed of principals of the high schools of the district. This committee arranges all schedules of athletic contests within the district and determines the championship in the respective sports. The winners of each district are matched against each other to determine the Eastern and Western championship. The winners of these two championships meet at the University of Virginia to contest for the State championship.

The football contest for this fall has been successful throughout the season in the Western district. The Eastern district, No. 2, was won by Alexandria High School. Newport News High and Maury High have contended for the supremacy in district No. 1. Winners of these two teams is adjudged winner of district No. 1 and will be matched against Alexandria for the championship for the East. The football champions of the entire State will be the winning team in the final game played on Lambeth Field at the university. Basketball schedules for the respective districts have already been arranged and the high schools have begun their local practice. A very interesting and close contest is expected in this athletic activity.

A bulletin for this season containing full information in regard to all literary and athletic contests will be in the hands of all high school principals about the middle of December. The rules and regulations governing each event will be contained in this catalogue. Several new features have been added to the work of the league for this year, including the football contest, and a State oratorical contest in debating for boys. The subject for debate selected for the State contest in debating is as follows: "Resolved, That immigration into the United States should be further restricted." An abundance of material (lengthy bibliography) will be found in the December bulletin.

Times-Dispatch Offers Medal.

The local prize contests have found hearty response from the smaller high schools. These contests are held in each school among the own pupils of that school and the winner of each contest is awarded a medal by the Times-Dispatch, of Richmond, Va. These contests are offered in athletics, debating, spelling, composition, history, etc., and every secondary school, no matter how small or large, is eligible for entrance into these contests. The Times-Dispatch has awarded thousands of these medals since the inception of these contests. Last year alone some schools among the larger ones won over 1,000, while many of the smaller schools ran their total up in the hundreds.

The league is an organization of all secondary schools of the State, and every secondary school has received an invitation to become a member. Professor C. G. Maphis is chairman of the league. Mr. W. W. Coontz has been appointed athletic secretary and all matters pertaining to this phase of the league's work should be taken up with him. The literary end of the organization is being handled by Mr. J. Riddick. High schools should address all communications to the proper secretary if they wish to become members of the league.

VIRGINIA ALUMNI ARE VISITING ALMA MATER

Attend Game With Carolina University and Meetings for Regional Chairmen.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Nov. 21.—More than 5,000 alumni of the University of Virginia and their friends are spending part of the Thanksgiving holidays at the university this week. The dual attraction is the historic Virginia-Carolina game and the special series of meetings arranged for the regional chairmen and national committeemen who are to direct the campaign for the $3,000,000 birthday gift. This gift, known as the Centennial Endowment Fund, is to be collected early next year and presented to the university upon the occasion of her 100th anniversary.

Fund officials are welcoming the forty regional chairmen and national committeemen who are to be guests of the university and occupy special stadium seats at the game. The visiting executives of the fund will be taken through the various class-rooms where they themselves studied for degrees only a few years ago. The deans of the six departments of the university will act as escorts and explain the work of the divisions of which they are in charge.

At the principal meeting of the three-day celebration, the regional chairmen and national committeemen will hear President Edwin A. Alderman, Frederick William Scott and John Stewart Bryan, joint and alternate chairmen of the fund; Armistead M. Dobie, executive chairman, and others, outline the general plans for collecting the $3,000,000 birthday gift.

Nearly all of the fifty places on the national committee have been filled. Senator Carter Glass has accepted the treasurership and will lend to the movement the genius for finance which made his administration of the office of the United States Secretary of the Treasury a success.

Among the Virginia men who will be in charge of the State campaign are: Robert B. Tunstall, of Norfolk; Julian Hill, Richmond; Thomas C. Barringer, Newport News; Floridus S. Crosby, Staunton; Samuel W. Zimmer, Petersburg; W. Allen Perkins, Charlottesville; Virginius Shackelford, Orange; C. O'Conor Goolrick, Fredericksburg; Ewart Johnston, Winchester; Whitwell W. Coxe, Roanoke, and Alfred D. Barksdale, Lynchburg.

The Virginia members of the national committee include Governor Westmoreland Davis, Rt. Rev. D. J. O'Connell, Thomas Nelson Page, Senator Claude Swanson, Congressman Andrew J. Montague and R. Tate Irvine.

The celebration comes to an end on Saturday, when picked representatives of the student body will meet in Madison Hall to receive a special message and instructions from President Alderman. These messages are to be taken home over Christmas holidays and read at "Virginia Night" meetings.

NEGRO PICKS LOCK WITH WIRE AND LEAVES JAIL

Trusty Gives Alarm, and Town Sergeant Rounds Up Prisonbreaker and Two Others.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

DANVILLE, VA., Nov. 21.—By picking the lock on Houston jail with a piece of wire, Edward Wilkins, a negro, opened the door and took with him two other negro prisoners, Esau Gerst, a negro trusty, gave the alarm after they had gone, and, later in the night, the town sergeant, hidden near the railway station, saw two men approaching, both of them talking in an undertone. He halted them and found they were two of the fugitives. They told where the third man might be found, and a squad of officers lost no time in going to the spot and arresting him. All are back in jail.

JUDGE FLETCHER HOLDS DEERING WILL IS VALID

Estate of Million Dollars Admitted to Probate by Rappahannock Court.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WINCHESTER, VA., Nov. 21.—The validity of the will of the late A. Willis Deering, of Rappahannock County, Va., disposing of an estate worth approximately $1,000,000, which has been subjected to litigation for more than a year, has been upheld by Judge Fletcher, of the Circuit Court for that county.

Mr. Deering, who was one of the wealthiest residents of that section of Virginia, left his estate to several nieces and nephews, but other interests attacked the validity of the document. The case was tried twice before juries, each of which disagreed. When called again counsel for the estate demurred to the evidence, and it was admitted to the court on the legal questions involved. Judge Flecher has sustained the demurrer, and has entered an order probating the will as executed by Mr. Deering. Five lawyers represented the various interests.

Increase Is Shown.

ONANCOCK, VA., Nov. 21.—The books of the land assessors for Accomac for 1920 show a total assessment of $10,708,174, an increase of $2,490,713 over 1915. The assessment is one-third of a fair market value. The books show 4,275 acres more given in for taxes than under the 1915 assessment, the total being $256,395. Of this amount 12,210 acres are owned by colored people.

Father and Son Drown.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Nov. 21.—Frank A. Muse, colored, and son, Chester Muse, both of Dunnville, Essex County, were drowned off Muddy Cut during a storm. Their boat was found and the body of the older man recovered. The body of the boy has not been found.

ARREST ALLEGED NAVAL DESERTER, JAIL-BREAKER

Indicted for Offense, Marion Burnett Lends Prison Delivery—Takes Two With Him.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

DANVILLE, VA., Nov. 21.—The local police department yesterday received information from a point in Virginia saying that Marion Burnett, alleged naval deserter and wanted here for jail breaking, was there and asking if he should be arrested.

Burnett was indicted for jail breaking not many weeks ago. A few days afterwards, he led another jail delivery and got away with two others. The police have wired, urging the authorities to arrest Burnett without delay and to hold him until he can be sought.
