Trustee's Auction Sale of Valuable Land at Falling Creek

Chesterfield County, Virginia, immediately on the Richmond and Petersburg Turnpike and the electric car line with valuable mill and water rights.

This is an ideal property for subdivision and is also valuable for residential, farming or commercial purposes.

Acting under a certain deed of trust given by H. D. Eichelberger, dated December 25, 1915, duly recorded in the office of the Clerk of Chesterfield Circuit Court, in D. B. 141, page 438, default having been made in the payment of certain moneys therein secured and being so required by the beneficiary, I shall sell by Public Auction, on the premises, on

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1921,
At 12:30 P. M.,

the above-mentioned property, which is described in said deed of trust as follows:

All that certain piece or parcel of land situated in the County of Chesterfield, Virginia, and more particularly described as follows, to-wit: fifty-seven (57) acres, more or less, together with the mill and water rights thereon and thereunto belonging, it being the tract of land No. 4 as described on a plat surveyed by H. Carrington Watkins, deceased, recorded in D. B. 88, page 358, in Chesterfield County Clerk's Office, and sixteen (16) acres, more or less, lying on Falling Creek, Chesterfield County, Virginia, just west of lot No. 4 above mentioned, said 16 acres, more or less, being more particularly described on a plat annexed to and recorded with the deed from John H. Ingram, Special Commissioner, to the Richmond Mica Company, dated February 19, 1898, and recorded in D. B. 95, page 370, in the Clerk's Office of Chesterfield County, both of said tracts being situated in the said county and being the same property conveyed to the party of the first part by deed from James McPhail and wife.

TERMS: For cash as to so much of the proceeds as may be necessary to defray the expense of executing this trust and to pay all taxes that may be due and payable, including a ratable proportion of the taxes for 1921 and to pay past due notes with interest amounting to $3,447.67, and a credit as to note of $400.00, due December 23, 1921, with interest on same from December 25, 1920, and any residue of purchase money payable in equal payments at one and two years from day of sale for notes with 6 per cent interest. All deferred payments to be secured on the property sold by deed of trust, or all cash as to said residue at the option of the purchaser.

WHAT STYLE HAT ARE YOU WEARING?

It makes no difference if it's an old-style and in a dilapidated condition. My method of making over old hats will restore it to its original style, color and give the appearance of a brand-new fall or winter hat at a very low cost to you.

—LADIES' HATS—

We specialize in remodeling Ladies' and Children's Hats—giving them the utmost in grace, charm and poise.

We've been doing this work for years and our name is on the tongues of all when they think of having that old hat remodeled.
