THE CITY NATIONAL BANK DULUTH, MINN.

ABE POTASH.

of the firm of Potash and Perlmutter, Lyceum theatre, 3 days, commencing Monday, Nov. 1st. Matinees Wednesday.

THE LYCEUM.

"POTASH & PERLMUTTER."
The latest story involving "Potash & Perlmutter" has just come from the front. "Abe" and "Mawruss" had been entertaining the British public for a long time, when the managers decided that one of the best ways to advertise it would be on the buses. Accordingly every bus has had a big sign "Potash & Perlmutter" tacked across the top.

But with the war, a great many of these vehicles have been used to transport the British troops through Belgium, and on one occasion, when a long string of the motes entered a town over there, the natives were all lined up on the sidewalk cheering a wild welcome. They saw the big sign "Potash & Perlmutter" on every bus, and thought they were names of famous English generals.

Suddenly everybody along the line commenced to yell, "Vive Potash! Vive Perlmutter!" after a summer's rest, will return to the Lyceum Theater with renewed wit, vim and wisdom for an engagement of three nights, Monday and Wednesday matinee.

"MUTT AND JEFF IN COLLEGE."
"Mutt and Jeff in College" is the title of the fourth edition of Bud Fisher's cartoon comedy, produced in musical comedy form by Gus Hill, who has signified his intention to offer an entire new play each successive season. It is unlikely that any theatrical production in the history of the American stage has enjoyed success both artistic and financially equal to that which has been continuous since the premier presentation of this play more than three years ago. Tired humanity seeks diversion, with little thought or worry as to its artistic origin. If a play or its actors are able to extract incessant laughter from an audience naturally disposed to be incredulous, that play or actor becomes an unqualified success.

Mutt and Jeff play its yearly engagement to capacity audiences. One does not have to stretch their imagination to any very great extent to conceive just how funny the play will be. Mr. Hill has had an entire new scenic production built at great expense, together with the hundreds of gorgeous costumes necessary to fit the environment. Theater-goers who have laughed at Mutt and Jeff before, perhaps several times, will find this offering so entirely new as to have the effect of being an engagement of two days, commencing Saturday, at the Lyceum.

BOYS' NOBBY FALL CLOTHES FALL SUITS, $2.45 TO $15.
WHAT SORT OF DEAL DOES A NEWCOMER GET?

Colliers: The United States is getting aware of the problem presented by those of other lands who are among us but not of us. President Wilson has made some strong speeches on the subject, patriotic associations are being formed, and pains are taken to make the naturalization formalities more sincere.

These things are all good, but the test of daily contact is still crucial. What sort of a deal does the newcomer get here? The fake officials on the dock, extortionate cab drivers, cheating money lenders, fraudulent employment agencies, and dead-end boarding houses are the least of the evil.

Our two miserable failures in dealing with the immigrant are those of industry and those of law. Lawrence Paterson, editor of the Little Falls, N. Y. paper, has a column in mind as typical of the industrial centers where the newcomer is overworked, underpaid, tyrannously treated and then blamed for lowering American standards of living.

The American standard of living is what these people get. Our business men have set it for them. We have commented repeatedly on the mean and stupid discriminations made against aliens by the statutes of many states. In law matters the immigrant encounters, first, a police officer who does not understand or sympathize with him, and second, a police magistrate put in for political reasons. In New York City recently five garment workers—Austrian, Polish, Italian, and Slovenian—were accused of murder, finally tried, and acquitted. The case against them was little better than a frame-up. Leading New York papers, such as the Times, Tribune, and World, commented at length on the kissing in court when the verdict was announced. They had no word of the fearful injustices which had impinged the lives of the innocents.

In this sort of cruel stupidity at the bottom of the whole hyphenate problem? It is high time that we began to see that the immigrant is neither a joke nor a nuisance, but a human being.

NEW FALL OVERCOATS $10 TO $35 AT THE BIG DULUTH.

COMMON CABBAGE.
Cabbage may or may not be a delicious vegetable, owing entirely to its preparation. In boiling cabbage remember to cook it in rapidly boiling water, uncovered to let the odors pass away and not be absorbed by the vegetable, it is also true that the house will be quickly aired from cooked cabbage if it is cooked in an open dish.

German Cabbage—Cook bacon until crisp, cut in small bits; pour this over a half head of cabbage, chopped, with one small onion, season highly with salt, red pepper, heat vinegar and pour boiling hot over the cabbage. Serve at once.
