CHILDREN'S PAGE | PART THREE

71ST YEAR. RICHMOND, VA., SUNDAY, MAY 8, 1921. PRICE, SEVEN CENTS

SOCIETY

Social interest for the week centers about the annual pilgrimage of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities to Jamestown, which will be held this year on Saturday, May 14. It is a sacred pilgrimage, made each year by the association and their friends, with many distinguished guests from all parts of the country in attendance, to this cradle of the nation, the first permanent English settlement in this country. This journey to Jamestown is made each year to commemorate the arrival of the three ships, "Sarah Constant," "Goodspeed" and the "Discovery," under Captain Newport on May 13, 1607, who set out from "The Downs," London, England, in December, 1606, for the New World.

Jamestown is full of historical memories, as well as many interesting memorials and the journey down the river, which is to be resumed this May for the first time since the war, pass the old homes of Virginia's landed gentry, is always a charming one. The trip will be made on Saturday on the steamer Ocean View, which will leave Nicholson and Fulton Streets promptly at 8 A. M., returning to Richmond the same evening. Luncheon will be served on board by a committee of members of the A. P. V. A. Mrs. A. P. Wilmer is chairman of the executive, assisted by Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss, Mrs. Henry Taylor and Miss Elizabeth Weddell.

Another important event of the week will be the old Dominion tennis tournament at the Country Club of Virginia, which begins Monday, and will last throughout the week. Many well-known men and women are in Richmond for this event. Miss Louise Branch will entertain at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr Branch, several guests for the tournament. These will include: Major Arthur Yerdsen, of the British embassy at Washington, and Leonard Beekman, of New York. The famous Japanese tennis player and member of the Davis cup team, Ichiya Kumagae, will also be among the prominent players here for the event.

Some of the women players will include: the woman's champion tennis player, Miss Ethelyn Legendre, of New Orleans; Miss Elizabeth Bull, of Norfolk; Misses Marie Wagner, Florence Hallin and Mrs. G. Stannix, of New York, and Mrs. David Mills, of Orange, N. J.

The tournament will be quite a social event, with a gay and interested gallery of spectators each afternoon at the club, and the tennis dinner will be held at the clubhouse Friday evening. The informal dance Saturday evening will be an unusually attractive event.

The Richmond Light Infantry Blues will be hosts to a number of prominent guests this week, when they celebrate their one hundred and thirty-second anniversary, May 8 and 10. Invitations have been issued and the celebration will be held in the Blues' Armory.

Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week, the May Festival of the Wednesday Club will be held at the City Auditorium, with brilliant audiences in attendance. Many people from a distance will come to Richmond especially to attend these concerts and the Auditorium will be filled to its capacity on both evenings.

Fashionable society will be much in evidence Wednesday evening for the big Hawaiian fete to be held on the roof garden of the Richmond Hotel. The entertainment is under the auspices of the Open Air School Committee of the Richmond Educational Association, and tables may be reserved through Mrs. Lewis H. Posher. Many prominent women have the affair in charge and the program will be a thoroughly unique one, with a real Hawaiian dancer and other novel features.

Another attractive benefit affair of the week will be the annual lawn fete of the Ginter Park Woman's Club on Friday afternoon, from 4 to 10. There will be a card party on the green in the afternoon and supper will be served from 6 to 7 o'clock. Many new features have been planned for the fete this season, which promises to be a charming event.

BRENT WITT.

Prominent Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Allen Chambers announce the engagement of their daughter, Martha, to Edgar Nash, Jr., of Wilmington, N. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Nash, of Portsmouth. The wedding will take place in June.

In Washington.

Misses Edith White and her sister, Miss Laurie Brooke White, are spending the week-end at Wardman Park, Washington. They are chaperoned by M. and Mme. Claude Langlais. The latter before her marriage was the beautiful Amy Bennett, of Washington.

M. Langlais was a member of the French High Commission at Washington during the world war.

Lieutenant Collyer Weds.

A wedding of great interest to society here and throughout the State is that of Miss Marie Solmons, of Savannah, Ga., to Lieutenant B. D. Collyer, of Farmville. The ceremony took place in Savannah on Wednesday, and Lieutenant Collyer and his bride left at once for a wedding journey. They will later make their home in Washington, where the former is stationed as a pilot with the United States Aerial Mail Service. Mrs. Collyer is an attractive member of the younger society set in Savannah, and is widely related in Georgia. Lieutenant Collyer, who is a graduate of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, served as pilot in the United States air service during the world war, and trained at Kelly Field, Texas. He belongs to an old and distinguished Virginia family and frequently visits relatives and friends in Richmond.

May Day at Hollins.

A number of Richmond guests were at Hollins College for the annual May Day celebration, which was of more than usual interest here, as Miss Mary Bullington, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. R. McC. Bullington, of this city, was May Queen, and Miss Virginia Lee Cox, daughter of J. E. Cox, Jr., wrote and directed the masque. This celebration is always a beautiful affair put on by the Fairies of Freya, portrayed in the Forest of Arden, and the fine natural stage of the college grounds, with its lovely setting of ancient trees and stately buildings, add greatly to the charm of the whole.

"She Comes," was the title of the fascinating little play, portrayed before a large and enthusiastic audience, which included many people from a distance. It was one of the most beautiful May Day plays that has been given in the history of Hollins, since its founding in 1842.

Both Miss Bullington and Miss Cox are members o the senior class at Hollins, and will graduate from the college with honor in June.

Mrs. R. M. C. Bullington and Miss Louise Winston were among those motoring to Hollins last week to attend the annual May Fete.
