TENNIS CLUB TO MEET IN OWN HOUSE FRIDAY

Highland Springs Organization Will Hold Session in New Structure.

The Highland Springs Tennis Club, one of the oldest associations in the city organized for athletic purposes, will hold its first meeting in its newly-constructed clubhouse next Friday night.

Begun in early 1909, the club has had a long history replete with achievements. Since the formation of the organization numerous excellent tennis players have been developed and recreation for many people has been provided.

During the first years of the club's existence the object of the organization was primarily of a social nature, athletic activity being secondary in importance. Now, however, athletic endeavor has supplanted social activity as the chief aim.

In 1920 the tennis courts of the club, which were privately owned, were sold. Recently, however, a vigorous campaign for funds was conducted and a sufficiently great amount was raised to buy new courts and build a clubhouse. The house was finished only a few days ago. A new court is under construction and will be completed within a short time.

Miss Smith and W. H. Deierhoi took a prominent part in placing the club on a sound footing.

President officers of the club are: W. S. Garnett, president; H. W. Wilkenson, vice-president; Miss Essie Fuller, secretary, and W. H. Deierhoi, treasurer.

ROYAL GIANTS OPEN SERIES HERE TODAY

Richmond Giants Oppose Visitors in Five Games This Week—Prominent Players Coming.

The Richmond Giants will open a series of five games with the Brooklyn Royal Giants this afternoon at 4:30 P. M. at Mayo Island Park. The two teams will clash every afternoon this week except Saturday.

The Royal Giants will bring to Richmond two of the best-known colored players in the country, John Henry Loyd and "Stringbean" Williams will accompany the team here and take part in the series, it was announced.

Manager Fry's team has been strengthened by the addition of three new players. The new members of the local aggregation formerly played with the Bacarach Giants, who performed here early in the season.

Thompson probably will start on the mound for the local nine today in an attempt to capture the opening game of the series. His opponent on the mound has not been announced.

FANS WORKING HARD TO SEE WORLD SERIES

Many New Entrants in Evening Dispatch Contest Being Received.

Entrants in the Evening Dispatch "Ten Famous Fans" contest were busy all yesterday getting pledges for subscriptions and promises of support from their friends. Reports received last night indicate that the city is awakening to the fact that a great opportunity to see the baseball classic of the world is being offered free of charge.

To the ten fans having the greatest number of votes to their credit at the end of the contest will be given the privilege of taking a trip to Cleveland, Pittsburgh, New York or in whatever cities the series will be held, with all expenses, including grandstand tickets to the games, hotel bills and railway fare, paid.

Interest in the contest between Dr. Parker, manager of the Church Hill Athletic Club team, and Dr. Bagby, who controls the destiny of the Penn Mutual nine, is claiming the center of attention. Friends of both are hard at work.

Many amateur baseball players are entered in the contest and are struggling hard for a chance to view the great series.

The number of new entrants in the contest indicates that fans realize that it is not too late for a winner to enter. A name filled in the vote printed in today's paper will place your name on the list of contestants. Then it is up to you!

RAIN PREVENTS TENNIS STAR FROM PRACTICING

Instead of engaging in her first round match tomorrow with Eleanor Goss, of New York, Mlle. Lenglen will tune up her strokes and meet the American player Tuesday. If successful, the French champion Wednesday will meet the winner of the match between Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, national champion, and Mrs. Marion Zinderstein Jessup, of Wilmington, Del. If not eliminated, Mlle. Lenglen probably will play two matches Thursday to catch up to the other players.
