NEWS AND HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO RICHMOND SOCIETY

GARDEN PARTIES HOLD ATTENTION OF SOCIETY

Charming Affairs Planned in Richmond—One at Byrd Park Wednesday—Others Take Place Next Month. Women Voters Give Dinner Thursday.

By Elizabeth Witt.

The season for garden parties has opened. Yes, it is a real season. The weather gets into people's bones and all charity organizations, eager to seize on the most "opportune opportunity," take advantage of the feeling and give the emigrants to the out-of-doors an objective. It happens around every holiday. Valentine's Day was celebrated solid red for weeks before and weeks after the actual date, and the city is still stepping on the unfound eggs left from the myriads of Easter egg hunts.

And now the balmy breezes have wafted in the epidemic of garden parties on lawns and porches, in town and out. It is perhaps the most picturesque of entertainments, the garden party. Lovely ladies in soft, dainty light dresses of pale colors and drooping hats, some of the more stately sweeping from booth to table shaded by crisp silk parasols. The thought brings the sound of tinkling ice, the remembrance of tall glasses of gold liquid set on sheer linen, and passed by laughing, young girls. Society is at its best out-of-doors, with the hot house feeling left behind, and so society is always there.

Charming affairs have already been planned. Wednesday afternoon there will be the lawn of the Rueger home, in Byrd Park, decked with garden booths and prettily set tables. June 1, St. Stephen's Guild has set for its celebration of the season, and the Ginter Park Woman's Club will have its annual garden party on June 2. The air is full of them, lovely, airy plans for clear afternoons.

Monday afternoon Dr. James Southall Wilson, of the University of Virginia, will address the Woman's Club, at 4:30 o'clock, on "What Is the Matter With the Modern Novel?"

At 4 o'clock, the College Club will celebrate College Day at the Collegiate School for Girls.

Tuesday afternoon from 4:30 to 7 o'clock, there will be an interesting musicale and reception at the home of Mrs. B. H. Ellington, given by the Commonwealth Chapter of the D. A. R.

Tuesday afternoon there will be a card party at the home of Mrs. F. W. Scott, 909 West Franklin Street, for the benefit of the Memorial Home.

Tuesday night at 8:15 o'clock the annual meeting of the Little Theater League will take place at the "Workshop," 809 1-2 Floyd Avenue.

Tuesday night Shepherd has arranged a program of music at the Strand Theater, at 8:15 o'clock.

Wednesday afternoon society will attend the garden party given by the Richmond Chapter, Hollins Alumnae, at "Idle Hour," Byrd Park, from 4 to 6 o'clock; bridge beginning at 3:30 o'clock.

Thursday night the League of Women Voters will give a dinner at the Woman's Club to hear the echoes of the Pan-American Congress of Women.

Friday afternoon Miss Mary Fraser will review "The Brimming Cup" at the Literary Round Table of the Ginter Park Woman's Club, which will meet in the Ginter Park Baptist Church.

Saturday night there will be the usual informal dance at the Country Club.

Musicale and Reception.

One of the most interesting functions of the week will be the afternoon musical reception on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. H. Ellington, from 4:30 to 7 o'clock. The affair has been arranged by the D. A. R., Commonwealth Chapter, to defray the expenses of their float in the parade during the Virginia Historical Pageant, and it will be largely attended by prominent members of society. Miss Lucy Wilson Duke, chairman of the afternoon, has secured most interesting musical talent. Miss Mary Lackland, violinist, who has just returned from New York, where she has been studying for the past few years under Alexander Block, will give two numbers. Mrs. Howard Cook, soprano, and Mrs. Hamilton Smith, contralto, will sing. Officers of the chapter, together with other society women, will receive, and attractive young girls have been asked to assist in the dining-room. Among those who will receive will be Mrs. E. Lee Trinkle, Mrs. W. J. Payne, chapter regent; Mrs. Benjamin Purcell, Mrs. Warner Moore, Mrs. W. S. Drewry, and Mrs. B. H. Ellington. Music-lovers, as well as those who are interested in the pageant, will be at Mrs. Ellington's on Tuesday. It will be one of the handsomest of the spring season.

Dr. Wilson at Woman's Club.

Dr. James Southall Wilson will speak at the Woman's Club on Monday at 4:30 o'clock on "What Is the Matter With the Modern Novel." Dr. Wilson holds the Edgar Allan Poe Chair of English at the University of Virginia, and is particularly well qualified to speak on this subject, owing to his position, and also as he is a writer of marked ability. At the recent opening of the Poe Shrine, Dr. Wilson represented the University of Virginia and made a delightful address.

Mrs. Charles G. Bosher, the newly elected president, will be chairman, and the speaker will be presented by Miss Margaret Prescott Montague. The hostesses will be: Mesdames S. B. Witt, C. D. Wingfield, Morris Warren, S. P. Waddill, Dana Rucker, Misses Katherine Ricks, Mary Wingfield Scott and Vera Palmer.

On Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock the club will be hosts to the delegates attending the annual convention of the Federated Clubs of Virginia.

At Mrs. Scott's Tuesday.

Tuesday at 4 o'clock, the board of the Memorial Home for Girls will give a card party at the home of Mrs. F. W. Scott, 909 West Franklin Street, for the benefit of the home. This institution was formerly the Female Humane Association, which has a history of nearly a century and a quarter. Mrs. Frederic Scott is chairman of the board and the officers of the board are: Mrs. Lewis Catlett Williams and Mrs. Llewellyn McVeigh, vice-president; Miss Helen Christian, recording secretary; Mrs. Fred E. Nolting, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. T. Seddon Jones, Jr., treasurer. Members of the board in addition to the officers are Mesdames Edward V. Valentine, George Bagby, Thomas Nelson Carter, Spencer L. Carter, M. S. Wallace, Walter Christian, William Ruffin Cox, A. C. Biggs, Frank W. Christian, Walter K. Martin, William A. Powers, Robert H. Talley, Charles R. Robins, John T. Anderson, John Cronly, A. D. Williams, J. Ambler Johnston, Philip A. Arthur, William H. Palmer, Jr., Misses Elizabeth Watkins, Annie Rose Walker, Annie Christian and Miss Bennett.

It will be an attractive affair. Tables may be reserved through Mrs. Scott, Boulevard 16, or Mrs. Charles E. Robins, Boulevard 873.

To Review "The Brimming Cup."

Miss Mary Fraser will review "The Brimming Cup," by Dorothy Canfield, at the Literary Round Table meeting of the Ginter Park Woman's Club on Friday afternoon. The meeting will take place in the Ginter Park Baptist Church, and Mrs. Phillip Browder will be chairman of the afternoon. An informal reception will follow the review.

St. Stephen's Lawn Party.

The lawn party and supper which will be given by St. Stephen's Guild on June 1 will be an attractive affair. It will be given at the home of Mrs. Robert Talley, on St. Andrews Lane. The place is a particularly lovely one for the occasion, overlooking the Country Club and the James River.

Annual Garden Party in Ginter Park.

A most attractive event of the early summer will be the annual garden party given by the Ginter Park Woman's Club, in Pollard Park, June 2, for the benefit of Crippled Children's Hospital. The following chairmen of committees are already at work: supper, Mrs. E. W. Farley; soft drinks, Mrs. C. E. Crawford; candy, Mrs. A. F. Ryland; cake, Mrs. Harper Shelton; flowers, Mrs. Clifton Lee; tobacco, Mrs. T. W. Noble; fancy work, Mrs. F. D. Hanley; floral parade, Miss Lucy Duke.

"Alice in Wonderland" Carnival.

The Girl Scout Troop of the Randolph Talcott School will have an "Alice in Wonderland" carnival and circus on Wednesday, from 3 to 6 o'clock, at 205 North Lombardy Street. The proceeds will go to endow a bed at the Dooley Hospital.

Miss Tremer's Engagement.

Henry Joseph Tremer announces the engagement and approaching marriage of his sister, Madaline Cecelia, to William Frederick Kastelberg, Jr., the wedding to take place in June.

Collected Artists in Concert.

A very beautiful program has been arranged for this concert on Tuesday, at the Strand Theater, under the direction of Shepherd Webb. Mr. Webb needs no introduction to a Richmond audience. It is rather unusual to have such prominent artists appear on one program.

Mrs. Gladys Peyton Dorsett, soprano soloist, of Second Baptist Church, and Beth Ahabah Synagogue, is well-known for her beautiful voice. Miss Sara Fisher, violinist and graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music, will be an acquisition to the concert. Joseph Whittemore, tenor soloist of First Baptist Church and Beth Ahabah Synagogue, and Horace Powell, baritone, of Second Baptist Church, are featured in solos, and will sing the beautiful duet from "Forzo del Destino," made famous by Caruso and Scotti. Many prominent women of the city are interested in this concert. Among the patronesses are: Mrs. Julien Hill, Mrs. W. J. Harahan, Mrs. John M. Brockenbrough, Mrs. John W. Stull, Mrs. M. J. Fulton, Mrs. Greer Baughman, Mrs. L. F. Sullivan, Mrs. P. Morrison Fitzgerald, Mrs. George A. Hanson, Mrs. Granville Gray, Mrs. Alvin Smith, Mrs. G. Watson James, Mrs. W. Hazell, Mrs. John W. Nokeley, Mrs. W. L. T. Rogerson, Miss Major Miller, Mrs. James T. Disney, Mrs. Hatton Valentine, Mrs. John Biley, Mrs. Joseph A. Dart, Mrs. Fritz Sitterding, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. Russell Rawlings, Mrs. F. J. McGuire, Mrs. A. J. Scott, Miss Katharine Shaughnessy, Miss Katharine Harahan.

Anderson—Beveridge.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beveridge, Jr., announce the engagement of their daughter, Eva Elizabeth, to Walter Bowles Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Anderson, of this city. The wedding will take place the early part of June.

"College Day" Tomorrow.

The College Club of Richmond, branch of the American Association of University Women, will give a "College Day" party at the Collegiate School for Girls, 1619 Monument Avenue, Monday at 4 o'clock.

Refreshments will be served and both public and private school girls are cordially invited to attend.

Miss May Kellar, dean of Westhampton College, will make a short address on the value of a college education, and some of the students at Westhampton will do a "stunt." The college day committee consists of: Mrs. Frank H. West, chairman; Miss Adelaide Rothert, Miss Jeffries Heinrich, Miss Francis McFaden.

"A Southern Cinderella."

Under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Society of Pace Memorial Church, the Nannie Eddington Bible class will present "A Southern Cinderella" in the lecture-room of the church, May 18, at 8 o'clock. This entertainment will be in co-operation with the Virginia Historical Pageant and will be given for the benefit of the Retreat for the Sick. Those taking part are: Madame Charterert, an old aristocrat, Miss Virginia Allen; Enid Bellamy, a Southern Cinderella, Miss Bessie Barlow; Miss Rosie Winterbery, a famous settlement worker, Mrs. Eva Sherrod; Miss Johnnie Bell Randolph, a coquette, Miss Sallye Woodson; Kathleen Hawke, an English nurse, Miss Virginia Harvson; Caroline Hawke, an adventuress, Miss Ruth Barlow; Black Mammy, Judy Johnson, Mrs. Nannie Eddington. The music will consist of Southern melodies, sung by Mrs. Bailey Shiflett, Miss Margaret Heindl, Mr. Brinkley, J. Watson James, Jr., directed by Mrs. Austin Martenstein.

Interesting Talent on Program.

The graduating class of Mrs. Thurston's School of Expression, each member of which represents a distinctive type of talent, will present a charming program in connection with their graduation at the Central Y. M. C. A. auditorium on Thursday evening. Miss Mattie Bell Anderson, who has developed a large repertoire, has been assigned a number under the artistic group. Miss Frances Burton, an accomplished young lady, of Littleton, N. C., has been given the dramatic group. Miss Evelyn Cosby, who is also a writer of merit, has chosen as her reading a selection from Edgar Allan Poe. Mrs. Inez Goddin Freeman, having pursued this course merely as a scholarly attainment, will take no part in the program. To Miss Thelma Keene, who is particularly gifted in characterization, has been assigned the humorous number. The Shaftesbury dramatic attitudes, performed by the graduates, will form the spectacular number. The undergraduates who will also have parts in the performance are Misses Helen Carter Smith and Marie Louise Smith. A very delightful feature of the evening will be songs by Miss Frances M. Allan, and piano music by Mrs. Allen J. Saville. Admission will be by card only.

Wedding in June.

Mrs. Belle Drake Bailey, of Lockesburg, Ark., formerly of Anderson, S. C., announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary Orr, to Moses Louis Mahone, of this city. The wedding will take place in June.

Announces Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor S. Goode, of 3306 East Broad Street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lona Marie, to Rev. M. Paul S. Huntington, rector of All-Saints Episcopal Church, of Norton.

Shower for Miss Perkins.

On Thursday evening, May 4, a miscellaneous shower was given by Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gebhardt in their home in honor of Miss Lula Thomas Perkins, whose marriage to Raymond W. Quarles took place Saturday, May 6, in the home of the bride.

The parlors were beautifully decorated with ferns and potted plants, and a color scheme of pink and white was carried out. The gifts were presented in a large hat box decorated with a huge pink bow. After the shower a wedding cake was cut containing all the charms.

The guests were Misses Josephine King, Hazell Perkins, Anna Meyer, Bessie Powell, Philena, Thelma and Hazel Vaughan, Gladys Hurley, Lillian Barbour, Mary Shoat, Lou Candler, Jeannette Quarles, Ethelyn Hayes, Lucy Crowder, Ruth Ford, Edna Bell and Lula Perkins, Messrs. Bass, sr. and Mrs. T. L. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Quarles, Mrs. O. C. Lane, Mrs. V. S. J. Vaughan, Mrs. Ruth Enders and Mrs. L. H. Epson.

Musical Program Monday Evening.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop D. J. O'Connell will be the speaker of the evening at the celebration of the second anniversary of the Virginia Missions' Aid Society, the Memorial society to Frank Parater, to be held at Mcgill auditorium Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock. The musical program will be rendered by Rev. Father Joseph Brennan, Mrs. R. S. Hudgins, Misses Madeline Trimmer, Katherine Singrey, Louise Williams, Messrs. Basil Fowler, Phillip Colorina, Jr., Russell Singrey, Casper Deady, accompanist; Mrs. P. J. Archer and Miss Marie Bernhardt.

Buford—Moffatt.

An interesting marriage of last week was that of Miss Marian Buchannan Moffatt, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Moffatt, to James Robert Buford, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Buford, of this city. The ceremony took place at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, May 6, at the Second Presbyterian Church. The church was decorated simply with palms and cathedral candles, and Dr. Russell Cecil, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The bride entered with her brother, Carlton Page Moffatt, who gave her in marriage. She wore a dark blue traveling suit and a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Jessie Moffatt, was her only attendant. She wore a dress of beige crepe roma and carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

The groom was attended by Harry L. Ewell as best man and A. R. Beck and R. H. Graeme as ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Buford left for a Northern tour.

Advanced Puplis in Concert.

Among the interesting pupil recitals this spring will be that given by the pupils of Miss Florence Dansey. It will take place in the Woman's Club auditorium on Saturday evening, May 20, at 8:15 o'clock, with Mrs. Robert S. Hudgins assisting artist. The program will be rendered

WEDNESDAY CLUB CHORUS IS INTACT AND FUNCTIONING

As Result of Necessary Delays in Plans and Interest in Virginia Historical Pageant, Board Decides to Omit 1922 Festival.

There is much discussion as to the future of Richmond's greatest musical organization, the Wednesday Club. Rumors are afloat to the effect that it has ceased to exist. There could be no Wednesday Club without the Wednesday Club chorus, and the Wednesday Club chorus is not dead, nor even sleeping. Its organization is intact and is functioning.

Owing to certain necessary delays in its plans and also to the absorbing and stressful interests in the great historical pageant, the board of governors decided that it was best to omit the May festival for this year. But the members of the chorus have no other purpose than to continue the existence of the Wednesday Club and the May festival, and to make these most important assets to Richmond of even greater value in the future than in the past.

Responsibility on Citizens.

But the responsibility for the success of the club and festival rests not upon the board of governors and present club alone. All Richmond should be interested and heartily respond.

At the City Auditorium last Tuesday night the largest chorus in the history of Virginia met to organize for service in the historical pageant. Why should not a like enthusiasm be manifested for the permanent musical reputation of Richmond. Shall Richmond, gate city of the South, with all its wealth and historic prestige, allow Atlanta, a sister city, which was scarcely more than a village in the War Between the States, to usurp her glory for culture and become the acknowledged musical queen of the South?

Skyscrapers and commercial enterprises are not sufficient for the maintenance of a city's prestige. Culture, too, must abound. The refining influence of good schools, an adequate public library, and generous musical facilities must be given the opportunity to contribute their vital and indispensable share to the honor and prosperity of the municipality.

Surely the citizens of Richmond, realizing the importance of such an organization as the Wednesday Club, will respond with a proper and enthusiastic co-operation, so that the Wednesday Club chorus may resume their rehearsals another year, with larger attendance than ever before, and may round out their course of instruction with a series of concerts which shall enhance the reputation of Richmond as a city of culture and refinement.
