STRONG SPECULATIVE DEMAND ON N. O. MART

(By Associated Press.)

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 12.—A strong demand, much of it for speculative account, lifted the price of cotton today for moderately wide gains after uncertain fluctuations and a period of easiness in the early trading. A private bureau condition of 9.9 per cent of normal and a yield of something under 10,000,000 bales were back of much of the buying. Considerable covering of shorts was caused in the second half of the session by the rumor that large traders had taken to the long side and following this the market went to the highest prices 41 to 46 points over the level of yesterday's close. In the last hour or two early buying longs were inclined to realize profits and the close was at net gains on the session of but 10 to 23 points. October went as high as 21.80 and closed at 21.66. During the course of the first call prices were 5 to 10 points up, but the demand was scattered and soon suffered, and the market almost immediately sagged under an unfavorable opinion of the foreign political situation.

October fell off to 20.74 and the trading sentiment to net losses of 11 to 20 points.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust dated July 9, 1919, and of record in the clerk's office of the Circuit Court of Hanover County, Virginia, default having been made in the payment of certain notes secured therein, and being required so to do, I will sell by public auction, on the premises, on

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1922,

at 12 o'clock noon,

the property described in said deed, as follows:

King and Mrs. Sarah A. Kersey's estate, the metes and bounds of which are more particularly set forth on a plat of survey made by Wortham Peatross, under date of September, 1915, and recorded in P. B. 6, page 59, plat No. 1, in the clerk's office of Hanover County. Being the same property conveyed to Robt. Kirk by deed from S. L. King and wife, dated July 26, 1918, and recorded in D. Executor's Auction Sale OF Splendid Stock and General Farm, containing two hundred and forty (240) acres and located on the Osborne Road, about four and one-half miles from Richmond. On SEPTEMBER 14, 1922,

At 12 M.,

I shall sell by public auction, on the premises, the above-mentioned farm, known as the Anthony place. It has a long frontage on both the Osborne and Mill Roads, is bounded on the north by a bold, never failing stream and supplied also with numerous springs. Most of the land is level and admirably suited for subdivision, and its nearness to the city makes this easily possible to advantage. The dwelling contains 10 or 12 rooms and is situated on a beautiful eminence overlooking the road and the entire farm; is surrounded by nice shade and supplied with running water from a bold spring in the yard. There are numerous outbuildings, a splendid road leading into the city. It is peculiarly adapted for dairying, and must be sold to settle up an estate.

TERMS: Easy and will be made known at sale, which is subject to confirmation by the court.
